

RETURNED FROM BOISE.—

W. B. Dennis of the Black Butte cinnabar mine came home on Saturday from his attendance upon the International Mining Congress at Boise, and on Sunday, in company with his charming wife, drove out to the mine. Mr. Dennis is well pleased with the results attained by the Congress, and thinks that the fostering of mining enterprises in Oregon in the future will be much enhanced by the efforts put forth through the gathering of and ideas exchanged by so large a number of both scientific and practical mining men. He had on exhibition a case of specimens of ore from the Black Butte, taken from the several levels and workings of the mine from the surface down, which commanded the attention of all and received most favorable comment, they being the only exhibit of cinnabar ore displayed. His exhibit was arranged contiguous to the fine display of ores from Bohemia sent through the exertions of G. W. Lloyd and Frank Jordan, and the attention paid to both displays was very gratifying to the exhibitors and will, no doubt, bring good results to the districts from which they were taken. At the Black Butte at present there are about 25 men employed in development work, which is progressing very satisfactorily.

MEDAL CONTEST.—
Under the presiding genius of Mrs. J. W. Baker the W. C. T. U. on Friday evening last gave a fine entertainment at Martin's Hall. The paramount event of the evening was the contest for a silver medal, which was participated in by the Misses Orpha Harms, Ruby Crandall, Blanche Johnson, Cleo Lewis and Lizzie Orpurd, and the award was given to Miss Cleo Lewis. Each participant acquitted herself admirably and their efforts were heartily received and generously applauded. The stage was artistically set in white with numerous potted plants and lovely flowers, and the contestants had a full house to greet them.

HOME TO SLEEP.—
Last Friday marked the arrival of the remains of Joseph Southwell from Eastern Oregon, where he had departed this life. Mr. Southwell was an early pioneer of Lane county, having lived for many years on Row river, where he and his family have large and valuable holdings. He was widely known all over this section and leaves many relatives and old friends to regret his taking off. He was laid away in the Sears cemetery to peacefully sleep until Gabriel's trumpet shall sound the triumphant reveille.

HER NINETEENTH BIRTHDAY.—
On Saturday, July 20, were assembled by invitation of and at the home of Mrs. L. M. Thompson the Mesdames Martin, Wynne, Pearson, Nichols, Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sharp, to do honor to the mother of Mrs. Thompson, Grandma Oliver, who had attained her nineteenth birthday and is now in good health, bright, lively and active. A sumptuous feast was provided and a day of much pleasure was held. Grandma Oliver enjoyed the occasion to its fullest and was the recipient of the best wishes of all for future days of happiness.

POVERTY BALL.—
On Monday night Martin's Hall was the scene of terpsichorean festivities that was participated in by some twenty-five young couple and a merry time was had. It was called a poverty ball, but why so named is beyond our ken, for the toilet of the ladies was most elaborate, the music up to the usual standard and all the environments up-to-date. The young folks made the most of it and went home by moonlight.

THE R. R. SHOW.—
The show on Wednesday attracted a good deal of attention and was fairly well patronized. The band gave two concerts and rendered some fine selections. Several features of the exhibition were decidedly good and some were only fair, but all in all those who attended seemed to believe that they got their money's worth.

ACTIVITY ON ALL SIDES.—

During the past week an air of hustle and bustle has prevailed on all sides. The order of the council to put down new and full-width sidewalks on both sides of Main street, from the depot to the Coast Fork bridge, has been and is being complied with as fast as lumber can be procured, and the fine appearance of the new walks already laid cause a general comment of approval. Many new houses are in course of construction and new coats of paint are being applied to many of the older ones. Business in every line is improving and some are doing a fine volume of trade. The advent of a number of capitalists to look at the mines of Bohemia is an encouraging omen, and the people generally have imbibed new courage to put forth greater exertions to build up the town and all that pertains to it. There is surely a bright future in store for Cottage Grove and it can only be attained by the united efforts of all, so let the good work go steadily on and let each one contribute his mite to push the wheel of progress forward.

LEG BADLY BRUISED.—
Last Saturday out on Mosby creek Mrs. John Allen had an accident which bruised her legs and thighs very badly. She had hitched a horse to a cart to come to town. After she got in with her baby and came a short ways down the road the horse took fright and started to run. Mrs. Allen threw her baby out on the grass by the roadside and further on managed to steer the horse into a fence. In doing so her feet pushed the dashboard off and in falling her legs got tangled up with the harness and whiffletree. The horse stopped and she managed to extricate herself after a terrible bruising. She immediately ran back to where she had thrown the baby and then fainted. In a few minutes after a young man named Castle came down the road where the lady and baby were lying, assisted them to their home and came post haste to town for Dr. Job, who immediately went out and rendered medical aid. At last accounts Mrs. Allen was getting along nicely.

THE STAR MINE SOLD.—
R. J. Jennings came down from Portland this week and made a short visit to Bohemia to look over his property interests. The Jennings brothers have owned the Star mine and mill on Martin creek, and have now disposed of that property, the deal this week having closed and the transfer been made. The five-stamp mill in the past was run by water power, but the new owners will put in steam machinery. A road will be built from Sharp's creek to the Star mine on Martin creek, 3 1/2 miles in length. Men will be put to work on development in the mine and the property will be put in good shape for continuous running.

MODERN WOODMEN.—
At the joint convention of this order held in Albany on July 17, it was decided to hold a Harvest Home Carnival in Albany on September 4 and 5. Every camp is asked to take part in the contest and parade, and assist in making this celebration one of the best ever held in Oregon. The program for the two days will embrace many contests for which valuable prizes will be offered. It is expected that over a thousand Woodmen will be in attendance from all sections of the state, and the friends of the order and sightseers will number several thousand more. The business men of Albany will give the carnival its hearty support and a grand time is looked for and will be had.

A RATTLER KILLED.—
Miss Maggie Gough, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Medley, on Silk Creek, assisted in the killing last week of a large rattlesnake that had found its way into the dooryard of Mrs. Medley's home. His snakeship had seven rattles and a button. It was not thought that rattlers were ever found in that section, and indeed this is the first one met with in a long time.

TO THE WIDOWS.
A gentleman over fifty, of good habits, in good health, strong, active and a good worker, of kind and affectionate disposition and of domestic inclination, desires to and will marry a widow or elderly maiden lady between the ages of 30 and 50; the only proviso is that the lady must be possessed of sufficient real and personal property for an independent and generous living. Any lady who may wish further information will be given full particulars by writing or calling at the Bohemia Nugget office. This offer stands good for 30 days.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—
Last Thursday evening some fifty friends and acquaintances gathered at the home of Miss Robie Baker to make merry. The occasion was the celebration of the joint birthdays of Miss Robie and Miss Edna Martin upon the advent of their eighteenth anniversary. The festivities were held upon the lawn, which was handsomely ornamented and brightly lit up. The young women were the recipients of many fine presents. Refreshments were served and a most delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mat Sehr is laid up at the home of Charley Brown with a sprained ankle.

Rush Giltner and wife of Portland are visiting relatives in the Grove this week.

Mrs. J. I. Thomas has returned from an extended trip to Portland this week.

Joe Cole was in town this week and reports things moving nicely up his way.

Horace Burnett, city editor of the Eugene Guard, was spending a day of pleasure in Cottage Grove on Sunday.

William Harris of the Black Butte mine returned on Saturday from the Boise mining convention and went up to the mine.

Winfield Bennet and Jas. Potts left the first of the week for Northern California where they go to work on the S. P. Co's steam shovel.

Miss Sina Orrell returned home to Eugene Tuesday after a few days visit with friends here. Miss Orrell has been quite ill for some time.

Mrs. J. H. Davidson, who has been seriously ill with rheumatism the past two months, is now greatly improved and able to come down town.

Mrs. Pearl Burnfield arrived in the Grove Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill. Mrs. Burnfield has been enjoying an extended visit here.

Your attention is called to the new "ad" of Friedman Bros. & Co. of St. Louis and their elegant footwear. Call on Ben Lurch and examine these handsome shoes.

Read the new "ad" of the Bon Ton Meat Market owned by Beagle & McFarland. They have the choicest and largest supply of goods in their line and invite you to come and inspect them.

Sam Newsom had good-bye to his many friends in this city last Saturday preparatory to his departure for Goshute, Oregon, on the Columbia river, where he accepts a position with the Tresscott Packing Co.

Norval Atkins has been in town during the week visiting his parents and sister. He has been holding down the wire keyboard at Klamathon, Calif., and is now on his way to take the position of agent and operator at Forest Grove.

Foster Phillips and mother, Frank Phillips and family and Frank Wheeler and family will leave today for a ten day outing in the Bohemia hills. They will pitch their camp near the Warehouse, will hunt, fish and enjoy communion with nature.

W. D. McDonald of McMinnville was this week registered at the Sherwood. It is understood that his visit here was to interest himself in the issue of bonds of Cottage Grove, but through some legal technicality the bonds are not ready to be put upon the market.

Lawyers Eby and Johnson and their families took a pleasant outing down the Coast Fork a couple of miles on Sunday. They caught fish, had a basket picnic, learned the women folks how to swim, by nearly drowning some of them, and altogether had a right good time.

The Sherwood Hotel during the past week has received a neat coat of paint on the balcony, doors and windows, and is now quite attractive to the eye and improves the corner of Main and Fourth very much. With the new sidewalk and paint Mr. Sherwood has done a good job.

Attention is called to the new "ad" this week of Joseph Schlee, the grocer on the corner of Main and Second streets. He has a nice line of goods and wants you to come in and look his store over. His store will soon undergo extensive repairs and when completed will be one of the nicest stores in town.

Joseph A. Gale of Schley, Wash., former fish commissioner under Governor McGraw and now in the oyster business on Totten's Inlet was registered at the Sherwood this week. He was a pioneer of Cottage Grove and Bohemia thirty-three years ago and is here now on a visit to the scenes of his early trials and triumphs.

The Cash Grocery on Main street has this week "ad" in another column, setting forth the many good things they have for sale. The store is neat and clean, the goods are artistically arranged and of the very best, and you will be waited on by polite and attentive salesmen. The owners are recently from the east and desire to become acquainted with you, and you will like them and profit by giving them a call.

DRAIN NORMAL.—
The action of the State Text Book Commission at their recent session gave to Oregon a new list of school books. This calls for a special effort of candidates for certificates at the February examination. The State Normal at Drain is prepared to meet the demand and to do so teachers' review classes will be organized at the opening of the school, Sept. 9th. These classes will be placed in the hands of the experienced members of the faculty. Strong practical work is assured. Expenses low. Write to the president at Drain for information or circular.
