FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1901.

The election on Monday to rectify the error of the former election for the issue of bonds to the amount of $15,000 for the improvement of and enlarging the capacity of the water facilities of this town was a very tame affair, only 104 votes being polled, with 85 in favor of and 19 against the issue. It was a foregone conclusion that the vote would be in the affirmative largely and therefore but few cared to leave their occupations to cast a ballot, and besides the great bulk of our people were in attendance upon the last rites to be shown our departed fellow townsman O. F. Knox. Proposals for the purchase of the bonds will now be in order and they will be taken up as soon as put upon the market September 2, 1901. Several parties are desirous of bidding in the issue and one or two have offered a most liberal bonus. In anticipation of soon having the money on hand the City Council is posting notices for bids for the construction of a 50-foot reservoir to be 15 feet deep and lined with stone or brick and thoroughly cemented, and for the laying of drainage pipe, feeders, etc. It is understood that the pipe for the mains, which is being contracted for in the east, may be delayed beyond the time of its promise, on account of strikes, but all preparations will be made for it, so that when it does get here there will be nothing but the laying of it to complete the system of water supply. The want of a sufficient water supply has been sadly felt in the past, and now that our town is steadily growing, and has every expectation of a rapid growth in the future, no one public improvement is more necessary than a bountiful supply of water for consumption, garden culture, flower beds and lawn uses and fire purposes. The rates of insurance are now very high, but with the completion of a first-class water system insurance rates will be materially reduced.

The City Council at its meeting on Monday evening decided to let a contract for the painting of the City Hall with a double coat. This is a move in the right direction and should have long since been an accomplished fact. The building occupies a prominent location in the heart of the city and in plain view of every stranger that comes to view our growing town. In the past the Nugget has called attention many times to the forlorn appearance of the building in its nudeness, but the council was handicapped for funds and could not have this most necessary work done. Now it is to be done and done right, and when finished it will be a source of pride and pleasure for our citizens to point out to the stranger within our gates the City Hall.

Wm. Bainbridge, who owns a small but well kept ranch near Elkhead, Douglas county, was in town this week, and gives his opinion on the festive hen. Mr. Bainbridge thinks the hen properly cared for is one of the best money producers a man can have; and to substantiate his assertion he tells his recent experience, as follows: On the 14th of last February he purchased 15 leghorn hens and took them to his ranch. From these 15 hens he has marketed $14 worth of eggs to date, nearly $3 per month. The fifteen hens are worth probably $3.50. Can anyone mention any other kind of stock that will bring in $3 per month on an investment of $3.50?

State school statistics show a gain of 2637 pupils in the last school year.

NOTES FROM BOHEMIA.

Bohemia, Aug., 12, 1901. ED NUGGET: Gee Whiz! I can't get words to express my feelings or views of the outcome of this promising mining district today. You'll have to wait another week. I'll try.

We are nicely settled on the Oregon-Colorado, are doing lots of work. Have visited Horseheaven, Noonday Ridge, Fairview, Grouse, Grizzly, Elephant and Adams Mountains, Jackass Ridge, Hardscrabble and Bohemia, a scene of activity all around.

Working instead of talking. Will try to make a story later. Have sent out a large number of assays, will know something about it when I write. Will be out about the 1st.

Sorry to have made this personal. Will surely try and send letter for publication in your next. The Nugget is looking fine.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.

One of those accidents happened on Tuesday evening which spreads a cloud of the deepest sorrow over the homes of two otherwise contented and happy families. Four boys who live in and around the Divide went down to the Coast Fork near Latham on Tuesday evening to swim, and two were taken out of the water dead. The unfortunates were Guy Lee, 17 years of age, the son of Bert Lee; Martin Tucker, 13 years old, the son of W. W. Tucker. While bathing in a deep hole the younger boy was suddenly taken with a cramp and the older boy went to his assistance. The little fellow, realizing his danger and becoming thoroughly frightened, grabbed the older boy in such a manner that he was powerless to make the rescue or assist himself. The other two boys swam to their companions to aid them, but in the struggle were forced to free themselves and seek safety, while the Lee and Tucker boy sank from sight and were drowned. The bodies were recovered later and taken to the homes of their respective parents. This is one of those takings away that brings a shock to the entire neighborhood. These young boys were bright and industrious and worked with their fathers in the wood business. It is one of those unlooked for trials upon the bereaved ones that in its very suddenness makes the grief so hard to bear. The families of these boys have the deep sympathy of all of their friends and neighbors. The interment took place Wednesday afternoon in Odd Fellows cemetery west of town and was largely attended by numerous friends of both families.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the late Ira Hawley desires to thank all their kind friends and neighbors for the many tokens of friendship and acts of good will bestowed upon the deceased and his family during his late illness and at the funeral ceremonies.

J. H. HAWLEY AND FAMILY.

DIVIDE ITEMS.

Miss Elsie Hicks is staying with Mr. and Mrs. McDole and family. Threshing has begun.

Mr. and Mrs. Griggs of Latham were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller Sunday.

Mr. McDole's oldest daughter Mrs. Wilson is visiting them at present.

The funeral of Ira Hawley was held here last Wednesday August 7 at 3 p. m., the remains being interred in the family graveyard. Quite a number were present.

"Why not spend the vacation at Yaquina Bay, where can be had excellent fare, good fishing, good bathing, alluring rides and rambles. The courses and exercises at the summer school, of 1901, at Newport, will afford great variety of instructions, diversion and entertainment. No other resort offers equal attractions and advantages."

The drug stock of Benson Drug Co. is choice, complete, and absolutely the best in the market. Try us.

A terrible accident befell one of the men employed at Mill No. 1 on Wednesday. He was struck by a piece of steel which penetrated the face under the eye. It had to be pulled out with forceps and during the operation he lost much blood.

BORN.

SUARD—At Saginaw, August 9, 1901, to the wife of C. M. Suard, a daughter.

SEIFERT—At Saginaw, August 10, 1901, to the wife of John Seifert, a daughter.

MARRIED.

SEARS-ORMSBY—In this city, at the home of the groom's mother, August 14, 1901, James W. Sears to Miss Lidia Ormsby, the Rev. F. E. Billington officiating.

After the nuptial knot was tied the young couple received the congratulations of their immediate friends and relatives, and all partook of a delicious repast. James and his bonny bride will soon tie themselves to the Bohemia hills, where the honeymoon will be spent while Jim does his assessment work. The printer man acknowledges the receipt of a box of wedding cake, for which many thanks.

DIED.

KNOX—At Eugene, August 11, 1901, O. F. Knox, aged 80 years, 1 month and 21 days.

Mr. Knox was born in Schuyler county, Missouri, in 1845, and came to Oregon across the plains with his parents in 1853, landing in the Willamette valley. His first winter was spent in Lebanon, and in the spring of 1854 the family came to Lane county and bought a claim east of Cottage Grove, where he was raised. He was educated in the common schools, at Willamette University and at Monmouth College, now the State Normal school, where he graduated in 1871. He lived with his parents until 1873, when he was married to Miss Sarah L. Churchhill of Folk county. During the long years that Mr. Knox had lived in this city he filled many parts, having been a school teacher, at times in various lines of mercantile business, and in the stock raising and farming industry, in all of which he was signally successful. He held the highest office in the gift of our people for several terms as mayor of Cottage Grove. Last year he was selected by the republicans of this county to make the race for county judge and was only defeated by an official count. He was a member of the Christian Church and its choir leader for many years and no man in this community was held in higher respect or more valued for his full measure of qualifications as a man and brother than O. F. Knox. To mourn his loss the deceased leaves a loving wife and five children, Mamie, Roy, Duke, Lizzie and Frank, and five sisters and two brothers. The remains arrived here on the afternoon train last Monday from Eugene and were met at the depot by nearly the entire town and surrounding country and escorted to the Masonic and Odd Fellows cemetery west of town, where impressive service was held and a last look taken of his mortal remains by the large throng of relatives and friends assembled. The Rev. Crandall offered a most eloquent prayer, the choir sang impressively and the Rev. Billington sermonized in eulogy of the departed one. A most touching and devoted last look was taken by his immediate loved ones, the casket was lowered to its last resting place, the earth filled in over the remains and the little mound piled high with floral offerings from those who will cherish his memory while he peacefully sleeps in that quiet hillside.
