THE FIRE FIEND

The Handsome Home of James McFarland Completely Destroyed.

Heroic Work of the Firemen and Several Prostrations from the Heat.

At 12:45 on Tuesday great volumes of smoke were seen issuing from the fine residence of Jas. H. McFarland near the foot of the bluff at the extreme western outskirts of town. The house was occupied at the time by the daughter of the family, Mrs. Rena Edwards, Miss Daisy Thomas and Mrs. Fredericksen, who were engaged in making dresses. They had ceased their labors for luncheon, and while in its preparation a defective flue above the kitchen caused the fire.

Many of the neighbors were on hand before the ringing of the alarm bell, which brought a great portion of the town people to the scene of the conflagration.

The fire companies started with their apparatus, but it was soon discovered that no hydrant was in reaching distance with the hose, and the hose carts were abandoned on the way. A wild rush was then made for the burning home and most heroic efforts were made by all to save everything that could be got at.

Much of the household furniture, clothing, bedding, bric-a-bac and pictures in the rooms of the lower floor were brought out and placed in safety, but nearly the entire contents of the upper floor was consumed by the flames.

Before the fire had made too great headway Mrs. Edwards ran up to her room and secured her purse, watch and one or two of her best dresses, but all of the valuable papers and documents belonging to the family were lost.

Mr. McFarland and his wife are on a visit to relatives in Boise City, Idaho, and have been notified by telegraph of their loss.

In the efforts made to save the property the firemen did noble work and four of them were prostrated by the heat, Frank Phillips, Frank McFarland and Shell Coffman of the Rescue Company and C. H. Burkholder of the Eagle Company. Frank McFarland was unconscious for many hours.

When the fire was at its fiercest rage the heat was so intense that no one could approach within 100 feet of the building, and the flames and cinders shot heavenward hundreds of feet.

Many ladies rendered valuable aid and showed great presence of mind, while some became so excited that they had to be taken away as they were fast bordering on hysteria.

The house was insured in the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, but the amount could not be ascertained.

The Southern Pacific Company will make a large and creditable exhibit of farm and orchard products from territory tributary to its lines in Oregon, at the Portland Carnival and exposition, which opens September 18th. It is desired to secure any samples of grain (in the sheaf), grasses, vegetables, etc., also samples of green and dried fruits, showing the productiveness of the country. All exhibits should be carefully labeled with the name and kind of product as well as the name of the producer, so as to attract particular attention to the locality in which it is raised. All exhibits will be received by the agents along the line and carried both ways free of charge. This is a splendid opportunity for our farmers to make a fine display with practically no expense where it will be seen by thousands and do much to bring this section to the front.

The G. A. R. encampment in Cleveland, Ohio, this week is being attended by a host of veterans. That city is decked in its best and most fitting apparel for the welcome of the National Grand Army. All the business blocks and thousands of the private residences are decorated with flags, banners and streamers and millions of electric lights and the occasion is being made memorable in the history of that splendid organization. The only regret and sorrow that casts a shade of gloom is for the sad condition of President McKinley, who was to have filled the highest place of honor. The veterans' parade on Wednesday was the event of the week.

Representative Tongue favors a law to exclude anarchists.

WILL GET WELL.

The crisis with President McKinley has passed and it is now almost a certainty that he will fully recover from his recent wounds. The great American heart has gone out to him in his hour of affliction and the prayers of the nation will be answered. He will live but will probably carry the bullet of the anarchist through life. It is likely that a day of thanksgiving will soon be held for his restoration to health, when bells will ring and cannon boom in rejoicing of this great nation.

MARRIED.

SOMER-BLAIR—In this city September 10, 1901, Fredwin H. Somer to Miss Mamie M. Blair, the Rev. L. D. Beck officiating.

The interesting ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, the Sherwood Hotel, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. At 2 o'clock the young couple entered the parlor, which was profusely decorated with rare flowers and ferns, and in a few moments were united in the silken bond of faithful love. After congratulations and many fond farewells they took the 3 o'clock southbound train for their future home in San Francisco. Mr. Somer is a young man of sterling qualities and business ability and finds scope for his talent in the newspaper field, conducting the Tradesman in San Francisco. Miss Blair has lived but a few months in Cottage Grove, but through her loving kindness and modest winning ways she had gathered about her a choice number of warm and admiring friends who wish her the full realization of her fondest dreams. She is the eldest daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Blair, has ever been a loving and dutiful girlfriend and will be a fond and faithful wife. The Nugget wishes the young couple a long life of usefulness, comfort and wedded bliss.

REEDY-MOORE — At Eugene on Wednesday, September 11, 1901, John Reedy to Miss Mae Moore, both of Blackbutte.

Cupid, the god of love, seems to be shooting his arrows in many directions this fall. This young couple have felt the shaft and obeyed the summons. Their many friends wish them a pleasant voyage on the rosy sea, and the Nugget joins in the benediction.

"The Oregon State Fair at Salem, September 23rd to 28th, 1901, inclusive, promises to be the best this year that has yet been held. New features for amusement and instruction have been added, and particular attention will be given to the Stock Exhibit, owing to the great and constantly increasing interest in dairying throughout the state. For this occasion, the Southern Pacific Co. will make a rate of one fare for the round trip, from all its stations in Oregon, to Salem and return, and it is to be hoped that everyone who can do so will show his appreciation by taking advantage of this opportunity to pass a few days pleasantly and profitably at our State Capital.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Having just taken a course of instructions in the Professor Rogers system of tinting we are prepared to do the most beautiful work known to our business. This work is beautiful. Call and see our samples.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, September 13, 1901. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Robert A. Landerdale of Norman, County of Snohomish, State of Washington, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 1812 for the purchase of the SE 1-4 of Section No. 18 in Township No. 20 S. Range No. 7 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Monday the 18th day of November, 1901.

He names as witnesses: Geo. Woolly of Drain, Oregon; L. G. DeWolf of Portland, Oregon; Riley Smith of Roseburg, Oregon; Iver Iverson of Fir, Wash. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 18th day of November, 1901.

In the spring time gentle Annie
There's a smell in the back yard
And an odor in our city
That hits the stranger hard,
It's an argument for sewerage
But there is another plan;
You can go to the New Era Drug Store
And you may buy a can of Chloride of Lime.
It's very fine
Take it in time
Don't lose a dollar
To save a dime,
Call early and avoid the rush.
