

Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease. It originates in a serofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the vocal organs, disturbs the stomach. It is always radically and permanently cured by the blood-purifying, alterative and tonic action of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on seroful or the serofulous habit.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best cathartie.

He Thought Quickly.

Sandy—Oh, policeman, yer hair needn't in at "Black Bull" yonder—there's a mala' awfu' fecht gaen on.

Policeman—Is Black Jock there?

Sandy—Aye!

Policeman—And Lang Jimmy?

Sandy—Aye!

Policeman—Ah, weel, I'm sorry, but I wanna leave me heat, ye ken.

Propagators.

"Mosquitoes are accused of propagating disease," said Spokes.

"Well, I know that they propagate profanity," said Spokes.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local application as they cannot touch the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the ear canal. When you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition. In 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, nine cases out of ten are caused by earache, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (not catarrh) that can be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Centerboard Well Was Deep.

There was a new young man on board. He didn't seem to have much to say about the management of the boat, but he wore a lovely yachting suit. The girls were very much impressed.

It seemed to give them a sense of protection just to sit near him. One blue-eyed girl was heard to say to him: "I am not the least bit afraid when there are so many good sailors aboard. You know all about sailing, don't you?"

"Not quite," he answered modestly.

Just then the captain called to him: "Barry, rife the pall and fill-up the centerboard well."

Cheerfully the young man went to work and the girls stared.

"How many does it take?" he asked as he emptied the sixth pall; then he added: "What are you lubbers laughing at?"

Then the girls realized that it was the first time the man in the lovely yachting suit had ever been on a sailboat.—Chicago News.

A "Tennessee Lark."

The "Tennessee Lark"—a fresh young singer from Memphis, Tenn.—is all the rage among society people of Washington. She is wonderfully fascinating, and just as chile as any 1901 girl. Mrs. Letter and Mrs. Reginald De Koven and the wives of the cabinet officers are especially interested in her. She recently gave a concert at the exclusive Washington Club, when a tremendous ovation was given her.

Revolutionary War Claim.

A Revolutionary War claim for $400, the special value of which was $46.09, contracted under the act of 1779, has recently been liquidated by the Treasury Department. The interest and principal amounted to $12,906.20.

Phenomenal.

"We have the most wonderful cook you ever saw. You know, we only engaged her as a plain cook."

"Yes?"

"Well, she makes good bread."—Town and Country.

Lead, Copper and Iron Wires.

If a lead wire will sustain a weight of twenty-eight pounds a copper wire of the same thickness will uphold 302 pounds and one of iron 319 pounds.

Too Expensive.

Two tons of beets are equal in feeding value to four tons of hay, but its cultivation has proved to be expensive to be profitable.

A bella—There is only one man in the world like you.

Mr. Simpkins—How sweet of you to say that.

Arabella—Yes; you told that Smith girl the very same thing, and I know there is no other man living could do it.—Ohio State Journal.

HODD'S PILLS are the best cathartie.

Value of a Man's Life.

The Supreme Courts have decided that the life of the average man is worth just what he is able to earn. A man's earnings depend to a great extent upon his physical health. The stomach is the treasure of health. Every man may be bright and active if his digestion is normal. If it is not, Hoetster's Stomach Bitters will make it so. Try it for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, biliousness, flatulence, liver or kidney troubles.

Tact.

Cobbie—There goes Glover, one of my best friends. Never knew him to say one word against me.

Stone—Yes. He's a fellow of rare restraint.—Detroit Free Press.

I do not believe Piso's Cure for Consumption has an equal for coughs and colds.—John F. Boyer, Trinity Springs, Ind., Feb. 15, 1900.

the Labour Market.

POINTER FOR COLLECTORS.

Debtor Propounds a Query that Sets One Man to Thinking.

A collector of bad accounts received a lesson from a delinquent debtor a few days ago that has started him to thinking a bit. The collector had been chasing this delinquent for about six months and had become tired of "Call to-morrow," "I haven't it just now," and other excuses or a similar nature, and thought it was time to become "savvy."

"See here," he said the last time he called, "are you ever going to pay that bill?"

"Why, yes," replied the delinquent, "I suppose I will pay it some day or other. But look here yourself, young man, I think I can show you a thing or two. How many bills have you in that bundle?"

"About forty, I guess."

"How long does it take you to visit these people?"

"Generally, I can get over my route in a day."

"Suppose everyone of them should pay up?"

"That would be fine?"

"Oh, it would, would it? What would you do for a living if everybody paid promptly?"

The collector turned the thought over in his mind for a moment or two, and looked blank.

"Gracious!" he said, "I'd be out of a job!"

"That's exactly my point. Don't therefore be so internally anxious to collect every cent due to your people at one time. A few collections a day are enough. As for my account, come around some day next week and I may help you out of business by paying it. Good day."—New York Tribune.

A FILIPINO DELICACY.

The Filipinos in Manila have been having an unexpected feast. It came to them like the manna to the Israelites, being furnished by a swarm of locusts, which recently flew over the city. To these people the locusts are a great delicacy. The insects are served dry or in a potpourri. They are also made into pies and cakes, and in some instances ground into powder and steeped in liquid so as to make a beverage. At times catching the insects becomes a very profitable business. In Manila and the other large cities they sell at $2 a sack, gold. These sacks hold about a bushel. When dried, the locust can be kept indefinitely. The natives never eat the grasshoppers green, but they eat them in every form, dried or cooked. They even carry them in their pockets and eat them as they would candies and other confections. When dried the locust is nice and crisp, and tastes something like gingersnaps. Some confectioners dress the grasshopper in various ways, serving him up occasionally with chocolate trimmings and coats of sugar.—New York Post.

$1,000 REWARD

For Evidence of Fraud in Testimonials Advertising Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

It is sometimes thought that some concerns, in order to make people believe that the article in which they deal is a good one, manufacture themselves the testimonials which they use in their advertisements. The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., manufacturers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, however, have always held that the publication of a fictitious or even a misleading testimonial is not only bad morally but is bad advertising. Consequently the greatest care has always been taken in selecting testimonials for their advertising.

Every case is not only carefully investigated, but in most instances it is sworn to in legal form and the affidavit placed on file.

The Dr. Williams Medicine Company offers one thousand dollars ($1,000) for evidence of fraud, on its part, in the publication of any of the testimonials used in making known the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

In view of this, the following remarkable case, published in the Democrat and Sentinel, Lewiston, Pa., is given without further comment:

Mr. Frank A. Means, a well known farmer of Reedsville, Millin County, Pa., writes:

"I had the grip and as a result my nerves broke down. I lost the entire use of the lower half of my body. For a whole year I lay in bed perfectly helpless
