THE ASSASSIN COLLAPSED.

Czolgosz Beginning to Realize His Position-Strong Guard Over Prisoner,

Auburn, N. Y., Sept 30.-Leon F. Crolgosz, assassin of President Mc-Kinley, in the custody of the sheriff of Erie county and 21 deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. The prison is only about 50 yards rom the depot.

Awaiting the arrival of the train Throughout Our Thriving Commonwealth there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either from fear of the crowd, which was not very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out, and two depnties were compelled to almost carry the man into the prison. Inside the gates his condition became worse and e was dragged up the stairs and into e main hall. He was placed in a sitting posture on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evineing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on the new suit of clothes. During this operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror.

The prison physician examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared seven bodies have washed into that that the man was suffering from stream. fright and terror, but that he was shamming to some extent.

AT THE ISLAND OF RUK.

German Authorities at That Place Are in a Fighting Mood.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.-According to information brought from the Caroline Islands by the brig John D. Spreckels, the German officers in authority on the Island of Ruk are prepared to give a warm reception to an unknown American whaling Them to Death-Had No Warning of bark that has San Francisco for its home port. Last year, it is said, the whaler sold a quantity of knives, revolvers and other warlike material to the natives on the island, leaving about the transaction. They were very wroth and made up their minds to give the whaler a warm reception upon her annual visit to Ruk this year. A big gun was planted on an eminence overlooking the usual anchorage and a petty officer and 15 men were placed in charge of the weapon. While the gun is intended for general use against smugglers, the American whaler is particularly desired to come within range.

As an evidence of the summary measures taken by the Germans against smugglers, officers of the John D. Spreckels cite the case of the Japanese schooner that was seized some months ago upon being apprehended in the act of smuggling revolvers and ammunition to the natives. Not only was the ship and its contents seized, but all the Japanese traders on the Island of Ruk were sent

CAPTURE OF MISS STONE.

Details Related by Members of Party She Was With.

Boston, Sept. 27 .- Details of the recent capture of Miss Stone, the American missionary, and one of her helpers, by brigands in Turkey, are given in a letter received here by the American Board of Commissioners for oreign missions. The facts became known to one of the missionaries of the board at Sanokoo, European Turkey, by members of the party with which Miss Stone and her assistant, Mrs. Tsilka, were traveling when the capture was made, and who fled on being released by the outlaws, There were 15 to 18 in Miss Stone's party. The bandits confronted them in a narrow valley, surrounded them and compelled them to wade a river and ascend a wooded mountain side for about an hour. There appeared to be about 40 brigands dressed like Turks, but speaking Bulgarian. At length a stopping place was reached. The next morning Miss Stone and Mrs. Tsilka were missed, and it was apparent that the main body of the outlaws had disappeared, leaving only a guard. Later this guard compelled the captives to give up their watches, money and jewelry after which they disappeared up the mountain, leaving the missionaries
