A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove, Lyons & Applegate, Drain.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

From the Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia.

I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cold for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. WOODMAN. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited as was Mr. Woodman. This remedy is sold by Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove, Lyons & Applegate, Drain.

H. T. McIntyre, St. Paul, Minn., who has been troubled with a disordered stomach, says, "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do me more good than anything I have ever taken. For sale by Benson Drug Co.

A MUNIFICENT GIFT.

Bonds to the value of $15,000,000 were formally transferred to the trustees of the Leland Stanford Jr. University of California on December 9th by Mrs. Jane L. Stanford. This represents accumulations since the death of Senator Stanford. It means that nearly all of her private fortune has been given by Mrs. Stanford to endow the university founded by her late husband to commemorate their only son.

Mrs. Stanford has faithfully followed the plans made by the late senator for the foundation, equipment and growth of a great institution of learning. Beginning with the construction of the university buildings at the home ranch, Palo Alto, each year has seen new additions both to the material needs of the institution and to the faculty.

This gift places Stanford in the first financial rank among the great universities of the world, and will enable it to carry out many projected improvements.

Stanford University stands today as one of the two great educational institutions west of the Missouri river. With California it ranks in efficiency and scope with Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Chicago, Pennsylvania and Cornell, and possibly exceeds any of them in financial backing.

Be careful how you judge. The rooster can be heard four miles; but it is the silent fox that is the most deadly.

Don't be afraid to do too much good lest you exhaust your resources. A river never runs dry.

A PLAIN TRUTH PLAINLY STATED.

Oregonian.

It may be said—without offense, since the assertion is but just—that Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, the young widow of the late ex-President Harrison, is not a proper claimant for a pension. If the marriage of young women to old soldiers of the rank and file is to be censured—as it has been and is—as adding a heavy and utterly unjust burden to the pension fund, the women who commit the same offense against equity by marrying ex-presidents and elderly officers of the army cannot in justice be exempt from like criticism when they, through their agents, put in claims for pensions. Had the wife whom General Harrison married in youth, who shared the vicissitudes of war and poverty with him, and who came up with him to well-earned honor and position, outlived him, she would have been at least fairly entitled with Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. McKinley to the consideration shown by a pension grant. The present Mrs. Harrison has no such claim upon the public, she having been merely the traditional "old man's darling" of her husband's few latest years, and not in any sense a companion of the vicissitudes and labors of his life. The Oregonian's position on this question is well known, and it is free to say that the scandal of the marriage of a young woman to an old soldier, which develops when she, as his young widow, makes claim for a pension, is not one of degree, but of kind, and extends impartially all along the line, from the highest to the lowest.

Such a marriage is, of course, a matter of personal taste and private business, as long as the public is not asked to endow its youthful relic with a pension. When that time comes, however, as come it surely will, the public is justified in uttering a strong protest, regardless of the name that is attached to the application for a pension. As the widow of General Harrison the present Mrs. Harrison was amply provided for in his will; as the widow of ex-President Harrison; she is not entitled to $5000 or any other sum per annum from the government. This is a plain truth, plainly stated, and its simple justice should render it void of offense.

If fashion decreed the wearing of three hundred pounds of china armor the average woman would be found right in line doing her blue-eyed best to be up to date.

If a man worked as hard to get to heaven as he does to get an office he'd have a cinch on the glorious hereafter.

The old man gives experience. The young man gives pointers.

The Crystal Con. Mining Co.

(INCORPORATED)

G. W. LLOYD, President
H. D. SCOTT, Vice-President

FRANK WHEELER, Treasurer
FRANK E. JORDAN, Secretary

The five splendid properties comprising the mining claims forming this company are located in the great Bohemia Mining District in Lane and Douglas counties, Oregon.

These properties have had much work done upon them, so that now they are embryo mines with an assured future.

The stock of this company is now upon the market. Its par value is $1. It is non-assessable. Its principal office is in Cottage Grove.

For development purposes a limited amount of stock has been authorized to be sold at 3 cents per share.

Two of the claims—the Mountain Lion and El Calado—are on the now famous Helena lode. These two claims have had over 600 feet of tunnels run on them and the face of the tunnels are now in solid ore.

ONE MORE.

Brooklyn Eagle.

It is announced that King Edward and Queen Alexandra have approved the following verse being added to the British national anthem:

In perfect peace serene,
Keep thou our gracious Queen,
With her abide;
May heaven's own sunshine fair
Rest on her everywhere;
Hear thou thy people's prayer,
God save the Queen.
Still another stanza might be added, something like this:
God save the Prince of Wales
And all the girls and males
Of royal line;
May our beloved Prince
From dangers never wince;
Grant all our prayerful hints,
Oh, Lord benign.

That sort of thing could be indefinitely continued, and would be, but for the fact that authors of other stanzas might injure their chances, in these states, of ever becoming successors to Ambassador Choate in the office wherein he finds a minimum of labor and a maximum of delight.

STRANGE EFFECT OF OIL DRILLING.

News comes from Indio of a most remarkable strike by the Riverside Oil Co., while drilling for petroleum at their plant 1 mile east of Volcano Springs. At a depth of 500 feet the bit penetrated a subterranean volcano which released a column of steam, hot mud and molten rock that shot into the air for a height of over 100 feet. The drilling outfit was wrecked but fortunately no one operating the rig was injured. The location is now a miniature volcano, hurling steam, mud and molten stuff high into the air, the roaring noise from which can be heard over a mile distant. Operations have been entirely abandoned, and the hole is constantly enlarging and fears are entertained that the well may turn into a volcano of large proportions. Boulders of a large size have been thrown high into the air while smaller stones have been hurled hundreds of feet by the subterranean disturbance. The locality is on the edge of the well-known Salton Basin.
