

CHRISTMAS TIDE.

The People of Cottage Grove Enjoyed It.

The Little Ones Were Made Happy From the Boughs of the Christmas Trees.

Those who had in hand the care and happiness of the little ones who have in times past made their Sabbath pilgrimages to the various Sunday schools, saw to it that the faith of their prototypes was fully exemplified in the receipt of the generous gifts that were taken from the evergreen foliage at the ample Christmas trees that were provided in at least three of the leading churches of Cottage Grove. The committees who had the beneficent work in hand most worthily acquitted themselves of the imposed duties devolved upon them. A sense of complete satisfaction was on all sides and at no time in the past has there been such a serene satisfaction among the recipients of the gracious gifts that were detached from the boughs of these Christmas trees.

The churches on this occasion were elaborately decorated with the yule tide emblems of mistletoe, myrtle and fir. Appropriate mottoes adorned the walls, and the seating capacity in each of these places of worship was utilized to its utmost limits. In each of the churches programs had been arranged which were carried through in detail and gave unbounded satisfaction to all. We append the programs of the various exercises in the churches that contained the trees whose boughs held the many gifts that gave so much pleasure to the little ones who attend the Sunday schools.

THE S. P. TIE PLANT.

After an absence of nearly six months in the Siskiyou of California the tie plant of the S. P. Company has returned to its old camp ground at Latham, just within the sound of the bells of Cottage Grove. Tie Inspector Cole is at the helm, his lieutenants are trusty, true and tried and the work at the tie camp will be productive of much good in this industrial field.

Jack Walsh is in town this week from the Lucky Boy mine in Blue River. He is enjoying the holidays.

FOOTBALL DELIGHTS.

In the line of athletic sports the football game on Christmas afternoon attracted several hundred of our people and there was with us the flower of our sister town of Oakland. The players on both sides put up a strong and very interesting game and acquitted themselves with all the honor that was coming to them. Our boys lost the game but they put up a valiant fight, and although they were outclassed and consequently outplayed, the young men from Oakland realized that they had been up against warm lads. Our boys are all known and they are still with us; the boys from Oakland won the victory and carried their joy with light and happy hearts. That they may have the honor due them their names are here appended with their rank upon the field:

Foot guard, captain,
R. E. Butler, left guard.
Ed Schilling, right guard.
Clas Biddle, right tackle.
Tom Harbeck, right end.
Tom Gray, quarterback.
Edo Brown, right half back.
Bob Kirkington, full back.

THE ENDEAVOR'S ENDEAVORED.

The Presbyterian Endeavor Society on Christmas night at the Masonic Hall entertained the members of the Epworth League and the Christian Church Endeavor Society and by the faith of their endeavors they did endeavor to have a real nice time, and they had it. There were songs, recitations and music. The hall was filled with the youth, beauty and Christian cult of the town. A most enjoyable evening was had by those who dwell in the faith and in social environments that charm. Rival attractions there were in town, but the endeavorers' social was only abridged in numbers by the subscribed limits of the hall. To say that the pleasures of the evening were enjoyed by all present puts the phrase in its mildest form—it was simply delightful.

THE TURKEY SHOOT.

Honors were easy and there was genuine enjoyment at the meeting place of our sportsmen on the Ladies' place this week, who love to press the trigger when the game is on the wing. At the shoot were lined up the very cream of trigger-pressers in these parts—and they are mighty handy with the gun—but it remained for Billy Petman to carry off the honors and the turkey too. Now, Billy makes no pretensions to being a cracker Jack, but he got in easy and through the regular route, and although he was in a star aggregation there was not an envious spirit there. Some people are born lucky, others have honors thrust upon them, but when luck abides the possessor of it easily outstrips the more experienced one and is honored with a seat at the banquet in the front row. Billy, you don't need but a little fixing.

REVIVAL OVER.

For the past three weeks the Rev. Morton L. Rose of Eugene has held the attention of large and interested audiences at the Christian Church nightly gatherings. That his ministrations have brought forth fruit it can well be realized when it is noted that some forty professions of faith were made and that number of devotees were added to the regular worshippers at the Christian sanctuary. It is to be hoped that Mr. Rose has left a lasting impression upon both the permanent flock and new additions to the fold and that these worshippers can truly say of him: "Well done, thou good and faithful."

CHANGED HANDS.

The Bohemia saloon this week finds itself under partly new management, Mr. McKinney having disposed of his rights in the premises to Al White, the controlling spirits now being Messrs. Curran and White, who are well known, the combination being now a logger and a miner. They need no introduction and will always be glad to meet their friends.

Tom Medley is down from Bohemia this week to enjoy the good things of Christmas tide. Tom has been putting in some big ticks of late in assessment work; has done on his holdings the law's stipulation and is now enjoying the holiday season.

J. R. Brown had quite a severe accident happen him recently while at work in Mill No. 2 of the Booth-Kelly plant at Saginaw. A limb struck his right leg and laid him up for some time. He is all right now.

J. C. Clucky is in town this week from his winter quarters in Drain. Mr. Clucky is one of the owners of the Golden Star group of mines in Bohemia. This group consists of the Golden Star, Morning Star and Aurora claims, and the one taken from them is among the best in that mineral zone.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove, Lyons & Applegate, Drain.
