

What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves? In many forms of cutaneous eruption, such as rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility.

How are they expelled? By Hood's Sarsaparilla which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

It is the best medicine for all humors.

Love Idealizes.

All active love idealizes—that is, sees and loves the ideal of the loved one. Often, indeed, the absorption in the ideal is so complete that the outer life is mistakenly supposed to be identical with it, thus opening the way to shock and bitter disappointments.

Contagious Blood Poison

There is no poison so highly contagious, so deceptive and so destructive. Don't be too sure you are cured because all external signs of the disease have disappeared, and the doctor says you are well.

Like Bogies Like. A surface to break out again, and to their sorrow and mortification find those nearest and dearest to them have been infected by this loathsome disease, for no other poison is so surely transmitted from parent to child as this.

The Sin of the Parents. In early life, if it remains smoldering in the system forever, unless properly treated and driven out in the beginning.

SSS cures Contagious Blood Poison in any and all stages, contains no mineral to break down your constitution; it is purely vegetable and the only blood purifier known that cleanses the blood and at the same time builds up the general health.

Our little book on contagious blood poison is the most complete and instructive ever issued; it not only tells all about this disease, but also how to cure yourself at home. It is free and should be in the hands of everyone seeking a cure. Send for it.

HE WAS GETTING POSTED.

Wanted to Learn Something About the Striving Life of the West.

He had the look of a man who would not give another man a fair show, and it was only a minute after he sat down in the seat beside the cowboy that his nature was fully exposed.

"I suppose you have had some narrow escapes from the Indians?" he queried as a starter.

"Well, yes," was the reply. "It was only two months ago that as I was riding across—"

"And of course you have seen bears in plenty?" interrupted the Easterner.

"Yes, I've seen bears. One day about six weeks ago, as I was looking for stray cattle among the foothills, I—"

"And I have heard that the wolves out there are very savage."

"Wolves? Well, the timber wolves are bad critters to meet when they happen to be hungry. One day last winter, when the snow was about three feet deep, I was making my way around—"

"And is it true about there being so many rattlesnakes out there?" cut in the questioner.

"There's rattlesnakes, of course," replied the cowboy after a puzzled look at the other. "and maybe they are as thick as the papers tell of. Yes, I've seen a heap of 'em myself. I was just thinking of a narrow escape I had last summer. I had got off my cayuse to look for tracks of lost cattle, when—"

"And were you ever in a prairie fire?"

"Prairie fire? Yes, three or four of 'em. It was only last August that as I was loping across a prairie about twenty miles wide that—"

"And how about landslides and avalanches?"

"I've seen 'em both. The biggest landslide I ever saw was two years ago last fall. It was over at Panther mountain. I was within half a mile of the base—"

"Were you ever run over by a stampeding herd of cattle?" interrupted the listener.

"Yes, I was," slowly replied the cowboy, who, says the Detroit Free Press, seemed to be somewhat out of sorts.

"Was it a big herd?"

"About 10,000 steers."

"And of course you were trodden into a shapeless, lifeless mass?"

"Of course."

"That will do—thanks. I've always had considerable curiosity about the West, and I thought I'd post up a little. Much obliged for all your information, and good-day!"

RECENT JUDICIAL DECISIONS.

The owner of a team in charge of a driver is held in Perlestein vs. American Express Company (Mass.), 52 L. R. A. 959, not to be liable for injuries caused by its collision with another on the highway if at the time the driver has departed from the prescribed route for some purpose of his own.

A slot machine seized by police officers under statutory authority for the prevention of crime, which was designed to be used in violation of the gambling laws and incapable of being put to any legitimate use, is held in board of police commissioners vs. Wagner (Md.), 52 L. R. A. 775, not to be recoverable by an action of replevin.

Examining physicians who sign a certificate required by statute in order to commit a person to a hospital for dipomania and imbecilities are held in Niven vs. Boland (Mass.), 52 L. R. A. 781, not to be liable to one confined therein without cause, where they act in good faith and without malice, since the privilege attaching to witnesses and to cases of privileged communications attaches to them.

The State, as accuser in a criminal proceeding, does not seek the conviction of one of its citizens unless the evidence shows his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the Supreme Court of Georgia holds, in the case of Ivey vs. State 69 S. E. Rep. 423; nor will it permit its prosecuting officer to use any unfair means in the trial, or illegal arguments in his address to the jury, to the prejudice of the accused.

A railroad company is not liable for damages resulting from an assault and battery inflicted by the station agent upon a person when it appears that the difficulty which gave rise to the beating arose out of a personal quarrel, the Supreme Court of Georgia holds, in the case of Lynch vs. Florida, etc., R. Co. 69 S. E. Rep. 423; and that the agent, so far as related to his participation therein, was acting upon his individual responsibility and not within the scope of the business of his agency as an employee of the company.

Mrs. Valentine Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Happiness will go out of your life forever, my sister, if you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. Valentine's letter, unless you act promptly. Procure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. It is absolutely sure to help you. Then write for advice if there is anything about your case you do not understand.

You need not be afraid to tell the things you could not explain to the doctor—your letter will be seen only by women. All the persons who see private letters at Mrs. Pinkham's Laboratory, at Lynn, Mass., are women. All letters are confidential and advice absolutely free.

Here is the letter:—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to your list, hoping it may induce others to avail themselves of the benefit of your valuable remedy. Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt very badly, wretchedly nervous, and I tired, had sick headaches, no appetite, gnawing pain in stomach, pain in my back and right side, and so weak I could scarcely stand. I was not able to do anything. Had sharp pains all through my body. Before I had taken half a bottle of your medicine, I found myself improving. I continued its use until I had taken four bottles, and felt so well that I did not need to take any more. I am like a new person, and your medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 506 Ferry Avenue, Camden, N. J.

Use Knives in Quarrels.

In Burma in Ceylon, and, though fortunately in a lesser degree, in Madras, quarrels are constantly occurring in which knives are brought into play and serious wounds inflicted, resulting more than often not in death. The knives used in Ceylon are sheath knives, and for long the law abiding community has been trying to get the authorities to insist on these knives being made with a button on the tip. They would thus be rendered harmless for stabbing, while still available for legitimate use.

Motors for Fire Engines.

The first town in England to do away with horses at the fire stations is Eccles. Mayor F. Smith has supplied the engine houses with powerful little motors, which were proved successful in every way. GOVERNOR OF OREGON

Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family For Colds and Grip.

CAPITOL BUILDING, SALEM, OREGON.

A Letter From the Executive Office of Oregon.

Pe-ru-na is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Letters of congratulation and commendation testifying to the merits of Pe-ru-na as a catarrh remedy are pouring in from every state in the union. Dr. Hartman is receiving hundreds of such letters daily. All classes write these letters, from the highest to the lowest.

The outdoor laborer, the indoor artisan, the clerk, the editor, the statesman, the preacher—all agree that Pe-ru-na is the catarrh remedy of the age. The stage and rostrum, recognizing catarrh as their greatest enemy, are especially enthusiastic in their praise and testimony.

Any man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh. Catarrh is well-nigh universal; almost omnipresent. Pe-ru-na is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh out of its victims. Pe-ru-na not only cures catarrh, but prevents. Every household should be supplied with this great remedy for coughs, colds and so forth.

The governor of Oregon is an ardent admirer of Pe-ru-na. He keeps it continually in the house. In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman he says:

State of Oregon, Executive Department, Salem, May 9, 1898.

The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sirs—I have had occasion to use your Pe-ru-na medicine in my family for colds, and it proved to be an excellent remedy. I have not had occasion to use it for other ailments.

Yours very truly, W. M. Lord.

It will be noticed that the governor says he has not had occasion to use Pe-ru-na for other ailments. The reason for this is, most other ailments begin with a cold. Using Pe-ru-na to promptly cure colds, he protects his family against other ailments. This is exactly what every other family in the United States should do. Keep Pe-ru-na in the house. Use it for coughs, colds, influenza, and other climatic affections of winter, and there will be no other ailments in the house. Such families should provide themselves with a copy of Dr. Hartman's free book, entitled "Winter Catarrh." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.
