Marshal's Sale of Real Property.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a warrant issued by the City Recorder of the City of Cottage Grove, Lane County, Oregon, to me directed, dated the 21st day of January, 1902, and against each of the persons herein named, commanding me to collect the assessment due on each of the following described parcels thereof and tracts of land in the City of Cottage Grove as hereinafter set forth for the improvement of Main and Wall streets from the right of way of the S. P. R. R. to the west boundary of said City of Cottage Grove, I have levied upon the following described property, a more particular description of each lot, part thereof or tract of land together with the name of the owner or reputed owner and the delinquent assessment due thereon, being as follows, to-wit:

SPARE THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Evening Telegram.

Some readers may have thought The Telegram slightly iconoclastic when a few days ago it criticized mildly the appeal to school children for funds for various purposes: but here is the Kansas City Star, a very conservative paper, saying:

A species of tribute which is never justified under any circumstances is that which is levied from time to time on the school children. It doesn't make any difference what the object may be the principle is wrong. The money, to begin with, doesn't come from the children. It is supplied by their parents, and in a majority of cases is given simply because it is asked and, so far as the children are concerned, without any proper understanding of its design or purpose.

The Telegram quite agrees with this. Neither the children nor their parents ought to be subject to this species of imposition—required to give or made the butt of ridicule for not giving what they cannot afford or is contrary to their honest inclination.

A DIFFERENCE AND A DISTINCTION.

There is a little girl in the city whose passion for the truth under all circumstances embarrassed her father very much the other day, relates the New York Tribune. Not long ago he lost a high salaried place in a business house because of its absorption by a trust and in the evening denounced all persons connected with trusts as thieves and robbers. But the trust found that it needed him, and he was soon holding his old place, in addition to a good book of stock. It was noticed that the little girl was deeply impressed with the incident and looked at her father doubtfully when he was home. One evening there was company at the house and the host became involved in a heated political debate with a peppy guest. The former made a statement which the latter flatly denied.

"Why, my dear man," laughed the host, "you don't mean to call me a liar?"

"No he don't," declared the little one, as she sprang in front of the visitor and glared at him with flaming eyes, "and I won't have it. My papa is a robber and a thief, but he is no liar!"

The explanation was soon secured from the child, and the hilarity that followed the expose was the joy of the evening.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Drain, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.
