

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitute for Hood's. "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no belching and no distress." Mrs. WILLIAM G. BARRETT, 14 Olive St., Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Good Nater.

This phrase was first used by Dr. Johnson, who said of Bathurst, a physician: "He was a man to my very heart's content. He hated a fool, and he hated a rogue, and he hated a whig; he was a very good nater."

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation searches out and removes all manner of poisons from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impurities. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

We are doing great good to suffering humanity through our consulting department, and invite you to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CASE

Which the Doctors Failed to Cure or Understand.

A medical man, as a rule, dislikes to acknowledge the value of a proprietary medicine. In fact, professional etiquette debar him from doing so. There are many eminent physicians, those most advanced in their professions, who give full credit to the great curative properties of Vogeler's Curative Compound from the fact that it is manufactured by an old and reliable company, proprietors of St. Jacobs Oil, from the formula of a brother physician, who today stands in the front ranks of the most eminent medical men, and on account of its intrinsic merit it is largely prescribed by the medical profession.

Mrs. Nettleton graphically relates the particulars of her own case, which will doubtless be of interest to many of our lady readers:

"I had been an intense sufferer for many years from dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles, when a pamphlet was placed in my hands, and although at that time I had been bedridden for more than six months, I determined, after reading some of the cases similar to mine, which had been completely cured by Vogeler's Curative Compound, to try some, especially as my doctors failed to even benefit me, and I had given up all hope of ever being well again. The very first dose of 15 drops relieved me. It was not long before I was able to get up and about; three months from taking the first dose I was enjoying better health than I had been for 14 years. I should not have been alive today had it not been for Vogeler's Curative Compound."

Mrs. Nettleton said: "I have recommended Vogeler's Curative Compound for indigestion and eczema, and in every case it has proved a cure, beyond doubt. Mr. Swinbank, our chemist, has sent me the names of no end of people who have been cured by Vogeler's Curative Compound. By the way, the proprietors have so much confidence in this great London physician's discovery, that they will send a sample free to any person sending name and address, naming this paper." St. Jacobs Oil Co., 205 Clay St., Baltimore, Md.

A Saint Upon Earth.

"Pa," said Willie, "what does it mean to say a man is 'one of nature's noblemen'?"

"One of nature's noblemen," my son," replied the old gentleman, with a significant look at his better half, "is a man who smiles when he gets some ridiculous, cheap gift for Christmas, and exclaims: 'How nice! Just what I wanted!'"—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Fruit of Faith.

Sunday School Teacher—Faith, children, is believing in the existence of something we can't see. For example, when you buy bananas you know that there is a delicious fruit inside the tough skin. Do you understand?

Children—Yes, ma'am.

Sunday School Teacher—Well, what is faith?

Children—Bananas.

Makes Money Raising Popcorn.

A. I. Schaeffer, of Edgar county, Illinois, last year harvested the largest crop of popcorn ever gathered in the world. From his 102 acres he had 1,800 bushels, a yield of a little over 17 bushels to the acre. It cost him $17 an acre to raise, sort, shell and pay ground rent.

SECURED A CONTINUANCE.

Sharp Trick Perpetrated by an Ingenious Illinois Lawyer. Ethen Allen Siveley of Springfield, tells a pretty good story of how, some years ago, when he was editor of a Carlinville paper, he brought the press agent of a circus to time and made him pay the paper its price for a big advertisement by threatening to snailpox the show. But up till last week we don't know that we had ever heard of an attorney working this bluff on a court and jury, and the little incident, which occurred in the County Court, is quite laughable.

W. H. Crow was an attorney for a man under indictment for an assault, and the case had been continued several times on one pretext and another, and was up again, and the prosecution was insisting on going to trial. Mr. Crow's witnesses were not present, and to go to trial under the circumstances would surely result in a conviction of his client, and just what to do he was at a loss to know. The jury was in the box ready to be passed upon, and the boys were becoming desperate and was up again, and the prosecution was insisting on going to trial.
