Geo. Chamberlain, the "good fellow" candidate for governor on the democratic ticket, will be in the valley this week, according to the announcement from democratic headquarters. His plan is to ignore national politics in this campaign and to attempt to hoodwink the people on "state issues." But the voters of Oregon have not been in the habit of picking upon "good fellows" just because they are good fellows and elevating them to the responsible and dignified office of governor of their commonwealth. Neither can they be led to ignore national politics for republicans realize too well "as Oregon goes so goes the country."—Ashland Ticks.

REPUBLICAN DAY.

A GOOD HOUSE GREETED THE REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS WEDNESDAY.

Senator Fulton Made an able Address.

For several days the republicans of this city have been looking forward to the day when W. J. Furnish, republican nominee for governor, and party would arrive and entertain those who are of republican faith.

The party was booked to speak at Martin's hall at ten o'clock Wednesday and in order to make the date they were obliged to take the morning freight train from Eugene and, as is usually the case on such occasions, it was late, not getting here much before 11 o'clock. Notwithstanding, a large crowd was still in waiting. The band was out and discoursed good music both at the depot and at the hall. The party was composed of W. J. Furnish, for governor; J. H. Ackerman, for state school superintendent; A. M. Crawford, for Attorney General, and J. R. Whitney, for state printer; while State Senator C. W. Fulton, of Astoria was the speaker of the day.

Upon the meeting being called to order, W. J. Furnish was introduced and made a short statement of his policy, strictly to the point, in which he demonstrated that he is, as his ardent admirers claim for him, a clear-cut, progressive business man, able to handle the questions of state that are sure to come to the hand of the executive office of Oregon.

Mr. Furnish was followed by Mr. Ackerman, who made a short talk along the line of education. Mr. Ackerman is a thorough scholar and has spent many years of his life in the interest of the work in Oregon, and the ideas he advanced were well received by those who heard him.

Hon. A. M. Crawford was then introduced. He also made a brief talk, owing to lack of time, but it was to the point, and he did not fail to touch strongly upon the initiative and referendum plank in the republican platform which he highly recommended, admonishing every man who during its short existence, followed in the rank of the populist party, that inasmuch as that was one of their cardinal features, it now became their duty to vote the republican ticket.

Senator Fulton was easily the speaker of the hour. He is a good orator and is forceful in his presentation of facts. He defended the republican platform, and spoke for the entire ticket, realizing that only to the republican party can the people look for sound and substantial policy, and a continuation of our present prosperous condition. The 1.55 train took the visitors to Harrisburg where they held an afternoon meeting, and one in the evening at Junction.

ENTHUSIASTIC REPUBLICAN.

B. F. Crow, who resides in the Siuslaw precinct, was in town Wednesday to hear the republican speaking. Mr. Crow is certainly an enthusiastic republican, and it is to be regretted that there are not more like him. He is nearly 70 years old and walked eight miles through the rain and over muddy roads to be in at the speaking. He has been a life long republican, casting his first vote for Abraham Lincoln, and now, hale and hearty, he expresses a desire to live until the next presidential election that he may cast his vote for Theodore Roosevelt. May his wishes be realized.

A DELIGHTFUL PLAY.

The newest and most delightful entertainment of the year is the prole comedy, "Too Rich to Marry" which will be seen at the Cottage Grove Opera House, Friday, May 23.

The style of the comedy is a positive innovation. It is as far from the time-worn style of the ordinary comedy as can be conceived. It is certainly a brilliant creation, not dependent upon coarseness and vulgarity for forced laughs, but full of the richest of humor that brings the laugh spontaneously, and that is the kind of a laugh that sends the audience away from the theater well satisfied.

The Comedy, "Too Rich to Marry" has an intense dramatic interest and is a rare combination of romance, pathos and comedy. It is a vital and living play shown in a series of vivid and lifelike pictures.

COTTAGE GROVE INVESTMENT CO. The Cottage Grove Investment Co. was organized in this city last week, with the view of handling real estate, mines and mining claims. Already large properties have been listed with the company and several sales have been made.

MAIL CONTRACT. Owing to bids being unsatisfactory the United States Postal Department has again advertised for bids on the Cottage Grove-Bohemia route. Bids will be received until May 14th. Parties desiring to bid should attend to it at once as the time is short.

TRANSFER OF CLAIMS. J. E. Russell and Alfred Johnson recently purchased the Hiawatha, Helvetic and Wisconsin claims in Bohemia for $3,500 and sold them to the Hiawatha Mining and Milling Company for $2,000. Changes are frequent and everything is booming in that district.

OUR JOB DEPARTMENT. Cottage Grove business men appreciate good job work as evidenced by the run we have been having in our job department. We have recently added new stock and new material to the amount of several hundred dollars and are better equipped than ever to supply our patrons with first-class work at reasonable prices.

HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER. Deputy City Marshal Reed is likely to have a serious time in extricating himself from the trouble brought about by his shooting Thomas C. Owen on Thursday. At the inquest held upon the body of Owen, the coroner's jury brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts; adding, that "in the opinion of this coroner's jury, the said Frank Reed is guilty of the crime of Manslaughter."

"TOO RICH TO MARRY." Whoever heard of such a thing, the idea of anyone being Too Rich To Marry. Still there are people in the world whose riches place them in the most complicated embarrassments. Those troubled or suffering from the above cause, can be placed on the road to success, by seeing "Edwin Owens Tourne." Great New York production of "Too Rich To Marry" coming at the Cottage Grove Opera House, Friday, May 23.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK. Last week the Dr. Snapp property on Main street was sold to Lawson, Jenkins and Martin for $1500. The new firm will commence the erection of a new two story business block 36x60 just east of the residence, as soon as the details can be arranged. This new business block will add much to the appearance of Main street and give this enterprising firm more room for their increasing furniture and paint and paper business.

MENELY QUARTETTE.

The Cumberland Presbyterian church was comfortably filled last Friday and Saturday evenings with a crowd of our townspeople who had gathered to hear the celebrated Menely quartette sing, (and they sang.) Of course it was excellent thruout, no small feature of which was the scintillation of the tenor, between acts. The audiences were delighted with the program and the quartette was vociferously applauded time and time again.

SERMON TO ODD FELLOWS. A large number of the members of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges of Cottage Grove assembled at the hall last Sunday, decked themselves in the proper regalia and marched in a body to the M. E. church where they listened to a special sermon to Odd Fellows by Rev. Zimmerman. The house was crowded and the sermon was a good one, right from the heart of a sincere and able young minister and no doubt did good. 'Twas not an array of flattery in soft words of praise but "food for thought."

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY. Dr. Job was called out to Blue Mt. district last Sunday evening to dress a bad knife wound on the shoulder of Clarence Wooliver which was caused by young Fred Martin. It seems that the trouble occurred at the Blue Mt. school house last Sunday evening when the boys got into a "scrap" to settle some old score between them. As young Wooliver is somewhat older than Martin he seemed to have the best of it when young Martin drew a knife and inflicted the wound in his shoulder. The gash is nearly five inches in length and quite deep. Had it been across the shoulder instead of as it is, young Wooliver would surely have bled to death ere medical assistance arrived.

SMELTER IS ASSURED!

To Be Located Near Cottage Grove The Centre of the Mining District of Western Oregon.

WORK COMMENCES ON RAILROAD.

Will Be Pushed Rapidly to Completion. Details Now on Hand and Preliminary Work Began Last Monday.

It is now definitely assured that Bohemia is to have a smelter plant erected this season. This word comes direct to the Nugget from one of the prime movers in the company, and who for various reasons does not wish to have his name mentioned at this time. The company will probably do business under the name of Bohemia Smelter and Refining Company, and the location, while not definitely decided will be on the line of the Bohemia railroad, and probably near the Red bridge. It will be established practically for the reduction of Bohemia ores, but it is expected that much custom work will be received from Blue river and Southern Oregon mines. With a railroad and a smelter, "Bohemia against the world."

Work Begins on Road.

The Pacific Coast Construction Company, represented by Alexander and Campbell, of the Pacific Timber Company, are today unloading a construction outfit, consisting of four cars, and pitching camp half a mile this side of Mosby bridge, where immediate work on the grade will commence, grading gangs working both ways. The bridge gang is already at work, under the direct supervision of T. R. Campbell, and the right-of-way clearing gang now has three miles cleared. The contract calls for 22 miles of completed road, the first 10 miles to be completed and ready for rolling stock by July 31. One thousand tons of rails are now on the way, and will arrive this week.

Cottage Grove is crowded with strangers, and in 10 days from now, if the present weather continues, the road from here to Bohemia will be strung with freight teams carrying to the mines equipment for the greatest season's work in the history of the diggings.

Mr. J. H. Smith, president of Pacific Coast Construction Company, which has the contract for building the railroad from Cottage Grove to the Bohemia Mining District accompanied by Mr. M. Beglan, who has the contract for the grading of the road, arrived in Cottage Grove Sunday.

The outfit arrived Sunday night and was unloaded Monday. Tuesday morning the actual work of grading was commenced and at that rate dirt is now flying ten miles of the road will be completed by the middle of July.

The clearing gangs are well ahead and Chief Engineer Johnson and Assistant Engineer Brooks have their hands full keeping their gangs ahead of the work.

Campbell & Alexander report that the ties and bridge timbers are ready. Everything is in full swing and Cottage Grove is jubilant.
