London, June 2.—Peace has been declared after nearly two years and eight months of a war which tried the British empire to its uttermost and wiped the Boers from the list of nations.

The war has come to an end with Lord Kitchener's announcement from Pretoria that he, Lord Milner and the Boer delegates had signed "terms of surrender." This announcement had been anticipated for several days, but its receipt Sunday afternoon took the nation by surprise, as everybody had confidently believed that the house of commons would hear the first news today.

The edge of the anticipation with which Great Britain awaited the promised statement in the house of commons was still further dulled by the following message from King Edward to his people, which was issued after midnight:

"The king has received the welcome news of the cessation of hostilities in South Africa with infinite satisfaction, and his majesty trusts that peace may speedily be followed by the restoration of prosperity in his new dominions, and that the feelings necessarily engendered by war will give place to earnest co-operation on the part of his majesty's South African subjects in promoting the welfare of their common country."

The news which Great Britain was so anxiously awaiting came characteristically on an entirely pacific and uninteresting Sunday afternoon, when London presents a deserted appearance. Very late Saturday night a dispatch was received from Lord Kitchener, in which he said the Boer delegates were coming to Pretoria, that they had accepted Great Britain's terms and they were prepared to sign terms of surrender. Mr. Broderick, the war secretary, personally communicated this message to King Edward, who was at Buckingham palace. But the government declined to take any chances and nothing concerning the receipt of this message was allowed to leak out. About 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon the war department received the message from Lord Kitchener, announcing the signing of the terms of peace.

The clerk on duty at the war office transmitted this message to Buckingham palace, where King Edward was lurching. At about 5 o'clock word was received permitting the publication of this message, and the small notice which was stuck up outside the war office consisted of a copy of Lord Kitchener's cablegram. A similar notice was put outside the colonial office.

Beyond these two skimpy bits of paper, London knew nothing of the great event. In the clubs, the hotels and the newspaper offices, which were almost all deserted, the momentous news was ticked out on the tape.

Then like wildfire, at about 6 o'clock, London awakened to the fact that the South African war was over. By 8 o'clock the news had become generally known. A few belated extra editions of newspapers were peddled about the streets, but before their appearance the enterprising hawkers, who for a long time past had kept union jacks, feathers and horns stored up in anticipation of the present event, were much in evidence.

Cabling from Pretoria, the correspondent of the Daily Mail, after announcing the signing of the terms of surrender, says the British authorities absolutely rejected the suggestion of the Boer delegates that the terms of surrender should be ratified by Mr. Kruger, and declared that the Boers in Europe had no hand in the Boer war.

"The terms will show," continues the correspondent, "that the British government carried its contentions on every vital point, while the minor concessions, particularly those in regard to the generous financial treatment, will greatly appeal to the Boers in general. The value of Lord Kitchener's personality as a factor in the conclusion of peace can never be overestimated. There is no doubt that peace will be popular among the Boers."

Low Rates to Eastern Points. The Northern Pacific Railway Company is now naming low excursion rates to all points East. If you are thinking of visiting the old home—your childhood's home, write or call on any agent of the company and full particulars will be furnished you, or write A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent at 255 Morrison street, corner of Third, Portland, Or., for details, rates, routes, etc.

Again in Volcanic Eruption. Seattle, Wash., June 3.—Mount Rainier, a lofty peak on the coast of Cook inlet, is again in active volcanic eruption. It belched forth a great column of fire, brimstone and smoke on the afternoon of May 3. The mountain has been in eruption for the past two months, but advice received today from the north state that it was at its worst on the day named. The ashes fell thick as snow at Kenai, 50 miles away, and the whole mountain range and the greater part of the coast was hidden from view by a pall of smoke.

Fatal Rockaway Fire. New York, June 4.—Four persons lost their lives and two were fatally injured in a fire today which swept away many buildings at Rockaway Beach. The fire started in a frame building. In a short time it spread to an unoccupied brick building, and then in succession leveled 12 other buildings. The buildings for the most part were of the frame sort found at the seaside, and the loss is estimated at $120,000. After the fire had been controlled the body of a man was found turned to a crisp in one of the buildings.

Interest on Transvaal Bonds. Pretoria, June 4.—A proclamation which was issued yesterday in connection with the signing of the peace terms declares that, notwithstanding the proclamations of Mr. Kruger, interest on the bonds of the Transvaal republic would be suspended so long as the war lasted, such interest shall begin to accrue June 1, June 26 and 27, the days of King Edward's coronation, have been proclaimed public holidays here.

Striking Bakers Enjoined. Kansas City, June 4.—Striking union bakers were today enjoined by Judge John F. Phillips, of the United States circuit court, who issued a temporary order restraining them from patrolling in front of the Grand avenue bakery, or otherwise interfering with the employees of that concern. The action grows out of the lockout of the union bakers by six leading firms, members of the Masters' Association.

The Trouble with the Yaquis. Tucson, Ariz., June 4.—The report of the Yaqui Indian troubles in Sonora, Mexico, has been greatly exaggerated. No revolution is in progress. The trouble grew out of a disagreement between a Mexican and a number of Yaqui laborers who, in a conflict, killed two Mexicans. The Yaquis, fearing the soldiers, left the ranch and took to the hills, where they were joined by some other Yaquis. Soldiers were sent after them and in the fight seven Yaquis were killed.

FURNISH DEFEATED

THE VOTE FOR GOVERNOR IS VERY CLOSE.

Republicans Elect Congressmen in Both Districts—Legislative and County Tickets Are Divided—The Returns Are Exceedingly Slow in Coming In—Chamberlain Carries Multnomah County by 500 to 700.

Portland, June 3.—The Republican state ticket, with the apparent exception of governor, won a victory at the polls yesterday. The vote on governor is very close, and it will require another day to make certain of the result.

Tongue, for congress, in the First district, is elected by an increased majority over two years ago. Williamson, in the Second district, wins by a good majority.

Inclement weather prevailed over Western Oregon, which kept down the vote to some extent. In Eastern Oregon, a full vote was polled.

Multnomah County. Portland, June 3.—Chamberlain will carry this county by from 500 to 700. Williamson leads Butcher by about 500. The counting proceeds slowly and full returns will not be in before night.

The indications are that the Republicans elected the legislative ticket. It is also probable that they will control Portland.

Union, June 3.—The count is progressing very slowly. Reports indicate that Chamberlain will carry the county. Butcher leads Williamson by a very few votes.

Cook County. Prineville, June 3.—Of a total of 24 precincts in the county incomplete returns from one and complete returns from three give Furnish 50 and Chamberlain 49. For congressman the same precincts give Williamson 144, Butcher 91.

Sherman County. Moro, June 3.—The Republican congressional and legislative ticket is elected by a good majority. Only two small precincts gave that Furnish will carry the county by 100.

Josephine County. Grants Pass, June 3.—Partial returns from the three precincts of Grants Pass give Furnish 143, Chamberlain 133.

Polk County. Dallas, June 3.—Reports are coming in very slowly. Complete returns from five precincts give Furnish 199 and Chamberlain 194.

Lane County. Eugene, June 3.—One hundred and seventy out of 181 votes in South Eugene. No. 2, give Chamberlain 68, Furnish 89.

Tillamook County. Tillamook, June 3.—From returns received Furnish is running 100 votes ahead of Chamberlain. On the rest of the state ticket the Republicans have a majority of two to one. Tongue is running ahead of Weatherford by three to one.

Lincoln County. Newport, June 3.—Two out of 14 precincts in Lincoln county give Chamberlain 60, Furnish 81.

Jackson County. Ashland, June 3.—Returns from the various precincts of Jackson county are meager and the count progresses slowly. The indications are that Chamberlain has carried the county for governor. The Republicans are claiming the election of senator.

Benton County. Corvallis, June 3.—Out of a total of 13 precincts incomplete returns from five complete and three incomplete give Furnish 408, Chamberlain 404. The legislative nominees probably elected are Republican.

Clatsop County. Astoria, June 3.—Out of a total of 26 precincts, incomplete returns from seven precincts and complete returns from eight give Furnish 725 and Chamberlain 626. Two Republicans and one Citizen are probably elected to the legislature. Williamson will carry the county for senator.

Palma's Sons Return. New York, June 4.—Jose and Tomas Palma, two of the president's sons, have sailed for New York, says a Havana dispatch to the Tribune. Jose returns north to take his examination at Columbia Law School; Tomas attends school at Newburg. President Palma, who with other high officials, went aboard to bid them good bye, was quite overcome by the parting. He gave each son a hearty embrace as he left the steamer, and spoke words of encouragement to them.

Striking Bakers Enjoined. Kansas City, June 4.—Striking union bakers were today enjoined by Judge John F. Phillips, of the United States circuit court, who issued a temporary order restraining them from patrolling in front of the Grand avenue bakery, or otherwise interfering with the employees of that concern. The action grows out of the lockout of the union bakers by six leading firms, members of the Masters' Association.

The Trouble with the Yaquis. Tucson, Ariz., June 4.—The report of the Yaqui Indian troubles in Sonora, Mexico, has been greatly exaggerated. No revolution is in progress. The trouble grew out of a disagreement between a Mexican and a number of Yaqui laborers who, in a conflict, killed two Mexicans. The Yaquis, fearing the soldiers, left the ranch and took to the hills, where they were joined by some other Yaquis. Soldiers were sent after them and in the fight seven Yaquis were killed.
