FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1902.

THE WRONG MAN.

The only solution to be arrived at regarding the election of Mr. Chamberlain to the office of governor, is the fact that the republican party put up the wrong man.

This is plain spoken, particularly so inasmuch as it comes from a republican paper, the loyalty of which to republican principles cannot be questioned.

It is true that there was a combination of circumstances that worked against Mr. Furnish, but with the great state majority conceded by all to the republicans, no matter how great the combinations against a candidate, it must follow that if the candidate had been the right man, the terrific inroads made upon that magnificent majority, bequeathed by the republican party could have been checked. Conservative men of either party estimated the strength of the opposition to Furnish to be in Portland and Multnomah county; and in proportion to the population this was correct, but no one, not even the democrats, expected such a landslide for Mr. Chamberlain in the interior of the state. The Nugget does not wish to speak disparagingly of Mr. Furnish as a man. It believes him to be a man of honesty and of moral worth, but he has been greatly over-estimated as a politician, as a statesman and as an organizer.

His utter inability to address an audience, was simply a campaign fund for the opposition. In fact, had Mr. Furnish been able to have made a decent speech the other obstacles hung in his way would have been surmounted. It was this one thing, more than any other, that caused the island vote to drop from him like crops of tallow from a lighted candle. Had Hon. S. M. Voren, of this county, a man who can stand before the people and tell them what he knows in logical, forceful and eloquent manner, received the nomination for governor, he would have won hands down.

American people admire a man who can express his honest convictions. This Mr. Furnish cannot do in speech. It is too late to cry over spilled milk, or to offer suggestions, but it appears now that had Mr. Furnish been sick or unavoidably detained at home, and had intrusted his campaign to one or two good men like Hon. Chas. Fulton, he would today be proclaimed governor of the State of Oregon.

The republican party of Lane county is certainly beholden to Florence precinct. And when it is taken into consideration that on more occasions than one the Florence delegation has gone home from the county convention empty handed, the obligations under which the republicans of Lane county are placed is magnified. The time has come when Florence should receive its just recognition at the hands of the republican party of the county. When the next convention rolls around Florence should turn out a good man for a good office and demand his nomination, and the convention should honor the demand and then elect the man to office. The Nugget is proud of the Florence republicans and is frank enough to stand by them. It has saved the bacon of the party on more occasions than one, and it is time to show a little appreciation.

If every republican precinct had come to the rescue of W. J. Furnish as did Lorane and Florence, Oregon would today be ratifying the election of a republican governor. At Lorane out of 75 votes cast Mr. Furnish received 46, Chamberlain 29, or 17 in favor of Furnish. In Florence Furnish received 127, Chamberlain 51, or 96 in favor of Furnish. The vote of these precincts ran about the same straight down the line in favor of the republicans. Lane county republicans can well be proud of them.

Those who are and who contemplate taking part in the hunt for the murderous convicts, should pool their watches and other valuables. By so doing they will be instrumental in saving the escapes from the charge of robbery, and then the revenue from the pooled goods will go a long way toward paying funeral expenses.

The next Oregon Legislature will consist of eighteen democrats and seventy-two republicans. If our democratic friends can get any consolation out of this fact they are welcome to it.

CONVICTS KILL AND ESCAPE

TWO DESPERATE MEN DO DESPERATE WORK.

Three Guards Killed and Convict Seriously Wounded.--Chase For Life--Surrounded in Timber.

Few of the excursionists from this place and other parts of the state who visited the state penitentiary at Salem last Sunday thought it would occur that the scene of bloodshed and violence, of which the daily papers have been full since the outbreak took place last Monday morning.

We haven't the space to give a complete account of the lamentable affair but will give a few of the particulars. The story as told by eye-witnesses has few parallels in the criminal history of the West for pure wanton destructiveness of human life.

Weapons had been concealed in the Foundry building by being smuggled in over the wall by some ex-convict, and not by an excursionist. It happened about 6:30 Monday morning as the convicts marched out to work. Of the prisoners identified the foundry and with them Tracy and Merrill who worked together. No sooner had they entered the shop than they seized the rifles concealed at their pattern cases, with which they shot the first guard through the heart and attempted to shoot the second but was prevented by a life convict (Ingram) who seized the weapon and was himself seriously shot in the leg. The remaining guards then fled, the main uniting and spread the alarm, while the armed convicts discharged their rifles about the enclosure, leaped a ladder against the wall and climbed over, shooting another guard as they did so, who was at his station on the wall. Guards Tiffany and Ross attempted to head them off on the outside of the enclosure but were held up and disarmed and marched along with the convicts a short distance for protection, when Tiffany was killed and Ross wounded by the desperate men who then took to the brush.

Since that time the hunt has been a hot one but at the time of going to press the men
