

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH—

Notwithstanding the fact that the ground was soaked with rain and that it rained at intervals on the Fourth, say nothing of the fact that the celebration was called off, quite a number of people were in town, and throughout the entire day the streets were filled with people. Everybody seemed to understand that it was practically impossible to render a program, and all took the withdrawal of the same good naturedly. In the afternoon some of the horrible parade put in an appearance, creating considerable amusement for among the characteristics were "Tracy and Merrill," and a unique representation of the first locomotive of the Bohemia railroad. It is alleged that Harry Irsham, assisted by Jim Potts, was guilty of the manufacture of the locomotive. Considering the circumstances the day was agreeably passed and those who "happened in" seemed to enjoy themselves.

FOURTH OF JULY DANCE—

T. K. Richardson, the well known piano dealer of this city, was instrumental in assisting those who tried to put in the day in Cottage Grove, by giving one of his splendid dances at Martin's hall on the evening of the Fourth. The orchestra consisting of Professor Daily, of Eugene, violinist; Thos. Walsh, pianist; and Norval Atkins, cornetist, was excellent, the floor was in good condition, and the best of order prevailed. Professor Richardson is to be congratulated upon the very clever management of the ball.

TEACHERS SELECTED—

The board of directors for the Cottage Grove public schools, at a meeting held on July 4, selected the following named teachers for the ensuing term: Misses Marion White, Elva Lea, Marie Thompson, Ethel Loree, Maude Kelley, and Mrs. Tillie Taylor. It has been wisely left to Professor Briggs to install his assistants in the grades best suited to them. The corps of teachers is composed of experienced school room mistresses, guaranteeing a most successful term.

FAMILY REUNION—

Mention was made in last week's Nugget of the family reunion of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Adams, in which it was stated that the family had not been all together for five years. It should have stated five years. Mr. and Mrs. Adams have six daughters who are now with them, as follows: Mesdames Ellen Viles, Mary McFarland, Hattie McFarland, Cottage Grove; Lucy Armstrong, Myrtle Creek; Liddy Van Buren, Astoria; and Theodora Cathcart, Casgrove, Nevada.

ALL KINDS OF TRAVEL—

Messes. Christian and Bangs are kept busy these days supplying teams and conveyances for those going into the mines. At present they are running three stages per week on the Hardacre route and three on the Warehouse route besides the many private conveyances sent out daily as well as single horses.

WANTS THE OPTICIAN—

J. O. Watts, the well known optician, will arrive in this city next Tuesday and will have rooms at the Hotel Sherwood for the week. Mr. Watts enjoys the reputation of being one of the best opticians in the state, and the fact that he is a permanent resident of Lane county is assurance that he will do the best work.

ANOTHER DEER KILLED—

Alex Rank, who lives up the Coast Fork eight or ten miles, brought in a fine black bear last Monday that he had caught in a trap near his home. He sold the animal to Bartel & Veatch, who dressed it and put bear steak on the market.

EUGENE TEAM BEATEN—

Hampton Ross, half team of Eugene, were defeated at Grants Pass last Sunday 3 to 13 and at Ashland Monday 1 to 14 which is indeed a poor showing for the Lane county boys. They were also defeated Tuesday by Roseburg, 10 to 12.

FILL UNDER THE CARS—

J. G. Nowels, a S. P. brakeman, fell under a car at Marcola on the morning of the 4th and had both legs badly crushed. He was taken to Eugene and from there to Portland where he died in the hospital Monday.

TO THE HOSPITAL—

The many friends of Mrs. Morris McKibben will be pained to learn that she was removed to the hospital this week, where she will undergo a surgical operation. Her friends hope for her speedy recovery.

WILL CAMP—

Mrs. Frank Wheeler and mother, Mrs. Herbert Eskin, Misses Mary Curran, Edna and Nellie Martin and Laura and Lucy Newland, left Thursday for Blackbutte where they will camp for their summer outing.

SMASHING A FLAT CAR—

Last Sunday afternoon while switching on the O. & S. E. line in this city an S. P. train crew smashed a new flat car loaded with steel for the new road into smithereens, dumping the load of rails in the twinkling of an eye besides demolishing several rods of track.

FRANK WORKS UP—

The huge frame work for the Loog & Bingham saw mill is now well up and work is going on rapidly. The mill will be in operation in thirty days, at which time the Bohemia railroad will probably be equipped to bring in logs from Mosby creek.

AGAIN AT WORK—

The contractors have again commenced work on the road to Bohemia. The delayed steel arrived Sunday, and now that the weather is good again, work will go merrily on. The steel is now laid almost through the Bohemia place and next week will probably take them to the river.

ATTENTION LADIES!

Miss Cora Baker has arrived from San Francisco with a complete line of embroidery materials, linens, art goods, stamping patterns, embroidery silks, etc. Anyone desiring lessons and materials will call on her at J. W. Baker's residence at once as she will not remain here long. Miss Baker will give lessons free in Venetian darning and Russian outline stitch to those purchasing material of her.

WORK TO COMMENCE SOON—

Work will commence on the new S. P. depot within the next ten days and be rapidly pushed to completion is the information given out by the head carpenter who visited the city the first of the week. Part of the building material is already on hand and the balance will be shipped here and unloaded soon.

THE HONOR—

Frank Blair, the well known traveling man, arrived in Cottage Grove Wednesday. Frank was recently the hero of what came very nearly being a drowning accident in Eugene. Last Monday a little fellow by the name of Toby, was rubbing over a fence, peering into the "dismal depths" of the mill race in that city, when he lost his hold, and in he went head over heels. He no sooner hit the water than he commenced to take in water and but for the timely arrival of the genial Frank, who fished him out, the little fellow's light would have gone out, and "mother" would have missed a sunny, chubby face.

JESSE JAMES' BODY—

A dispatch from Kansas City of June 29th states that Jesse James' body, which has been buried for 20 years in the dooryard of the old James homestead near Excelsior Springs, Mo., was disinterred today and buried in the cemetery at Kearney, Mo., beside the bodies of his father and wife. Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, mother of Jesse James, Frank James, his brother, and Jesse James and Mary, his son and daughter, attended the ceremony. A funeral service was held and the pall bearers were comrades of Jesse when all were members of Quantrell's band. When the skeleton of his father was dug up, Jesse James, Jr., picked up the skull and pointed out the hole made by the bullet from Bob Ford's pistol. Besides relatives and close friends of the James family, only a small crowd attended the exercises.

ABUNDANCE OF WATER—

It is gratifying to know that since the repairs and extension of the city water system last summer, the city is abundantly supplied with the purest water ever piped into a city. In fact the city has water at the present time to burn, the only possible defect at the present time being in the size of mains. It is said that it would have been much better if the city had put in larger mains. The demand for water is growing every day, which materially increases the annual revenue of the city. The O. & S. E. railroad has arranged to feed their locomotives with water from the city. The Loog and Bingham saw mill is trying to arrange for water, while several water motors are being talked of. If the water business of the city is judiciously handled the revenue will go a long way toward meeting the municipal debt.

Local Brevets.

Jim Plaster is building a new barn for his father on the east side of the Hawthorn hills. "Populist" is the name that has been attached to a party recently located in Bohemia by Edward White. They were first defeated at home by Albany, then by Junction, Grants Pass, Ashland and Roseburg, and finally at "sea" on their last trip, losing by a close margin. The Pacific Miner of July 1st contains a page written by Cottage Grove and the Bohemia railroad, also a full account of a scene down by the depot taken when grading was being done in the Bohemia railroad showing a steam engine at work grading. Among the many good laws passed and appropriations made by the last congress the Indian pension law is one of the best and most needed by the people of Oregon and the veterans in particular. A portion of the S. B. Eakin residence now stands at the junction of High and Ninth streets, home buyers having reached there with it last evening.
