

SCARE AT LEROY OFFICE.

Last Saturday morning there was nearly a panic at the LeRoy Mining company's office on account of the non-appearance of F. G. Eby, secretary and treasurer of the company, at the usual hour. First to arrive at the office in the morning was Mr. Johnson, fully expecting to find Mr. Eby in the office, with whom he wished to talk over some weighty affairs of state. Next to appear, Miss Benoit, the stenographer, her face all rosy with smiles, expecting to have her heart made glad by receiving from Mr. Eby a check for her weekly salary. But 9, 40 and 11 o'clock having passed, and Mr. Eby not putting in an appearance, the affairs of state grew mightier on Mr. Johnson's mind as an examination of their partnership affairs showed in Mr. Eby's possession 11 1/2 cts. of partnership funds unaccounted for, the wreath of smiles gradually faded from the face of the stenographer, and a grave consultation was held between the two worried persons, which resulted in a determination to advertise the missing Eby as lost, absconded, strayed or stolen. They were about to telephone the Nugget for 5,000,000 hand bills, when fears were somewhat allayed by the finding of the following note on Mr. Eby's desk:

At the Long and Bingham saw mill this week men are busy getting the machinery. The boiler is already planned and a splendid furnace of fire proof brick is under it. The engine was also placed in position this week, and it will now be only a short time until the big mill will be in operation.

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

E. C. Sanderson, dean of the Eugene Divinity School, was in this city Sunday afternoon and Monday, holding services at the Christian church Sunday evening. In conversation with a reporter Dean Sanderson spoke very pleasantly of the school, its past struggles and its promising future. The Divinity school was incorporated through the energetic efforts of Dean Sanderson and a few staunch allies, in 1893, a small affair to begin with, a small reared building serving the school the first two years. Each year it has shown a marked advancement, in popularity and in number of students, and today the corporation owns its own grounds upon which has been erected two magnificent buildings, a credit and honor to any city. While the school is under the control of the Christian church denomination, it is open to young men and women without regard to denominational peculiarities, the requirement being that satisfactory credentials of their Christian character forthcoming.

COUGAR KILLED.

Some of the Mapleton folks had an exciting chase after a cougar Wednesday evening. The animal was seen near there about 8:30 p. m. by L. Hollenbeck who shot at it but missed. He then went to hotel and reported and a party started out with a gun and several dogs in pursuit of the beast. It hid gone into the thicket and the dogs were unwilling to go far away from the men. Warren Andrews and One Phelps followed the dogs for an hour or more and at length they succeeded in tracing the varmint. Though it was quite dark Andrews brought the animal down by a shot from his rifle. The cougar measured 3 feet, 6 inches from tip to tip. Mr. Hollenbeck states that it had been lurking around there for several days.

RAY UNDER ARREST.

Bert Ray the alleged slayer of Ben Tracy, the saloon keeper, who was recently killed at Junction City, was placed under arrest by Sheriff Withers last Friday and will have an opportunity of proving his innocence. The chase has been a long one but the sheriff finally landed his man after visiting Redding and Sacramento, Cal., Winnemucca and Reno, Nevada, and Wells where he found his man.

RAPIDLY IMPROVING.

Hansing Olsen, the young man who fell between the flat cars on the construction train of the O. & S. E. Ry' Co., last week, and as a result had his arm amputated, is reported rapidly improving and that it will only be a question of a week or two until he will be on the streets in his usual good health.

TIP CREW MOVED.

The crew of men that have been employed during the summer at Latham by the S. P. Co. were removed Tuesday to Upton, California, where they will remain about six months at the same work. They put in the year between this place and Upton and this move at this time is a regular one.

SETTING THE MACHINERY.

At the Long and Bingham saw mill this week men are busy getting the machinery. The boiler is already planned and a splendid furnace of fire proof brick is under it. The engine was also placed in position this week, and it will now be only a short time until the big mill will be in operation.

BEAUTIFUL TIMBER.

At the Southern Pacific depot may be seen a number of boards of California's famous Redwood timber. This is a part of the finishing lumber for the new depot, upon which work will commence about the first of August. Some of it is about twenty inches wide and will be used for the tops of the counters. Several carloads of more material was received this week, among which are the doors and windows.

ADV. FOR BOHEMIA.

This Pacific Miner of the 13th inst. contains a half page write-up of Cottage Grove and Bohemia, also a half-tone cut of the Mosby creek bridge on the new Bohemia railroad. It also contains a lengthy write-up of the Bohemia district by Geo. W. Lloyd, of Boston, which formerly appeared in a commercial paper of Boston. Verily the wealth of Bohemia is beginning to attract attention throughout the country.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.

Each day a little more material is added to that already on the ground at the depot, and it is understood that the work will commence between now and the first of the month. The Long & Bingham saw mill is well under construction, the buildings on Main street are fast nearing completion, and altogether the town has the appearance of prosperity and business, an indication well founded.

QUICK SALES.

Finical Hinds, the real estate dealer, had a little run of business the past few days that shows how real estate is moving in Cottage Grove. Ten lots belonging to the Perkins' estate were placed in his hands for sale last Friday. Tuesday Mr. Hinds reported that he had sold all but three of the lots and that those were being negotiated for. The lots lay in the southwestern part of town and are going at ridiculously low figures.

OREGON MINERAL SPRINGS.

Work on the large and commodious hotel at the Oregon Mineral Springs near Amos is nearing completion, the painters and paper hangers finishing their work on its twenty-one rooms this week. These springs are becoming better known each year for their medicinal qualities and now that good accommodations have been provided for those desiring to try them, the number visiting this beautiful locality each year will no doubt greatly increase.

LOOKING ABOUT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keyzier, formerly engaged in the general merchandise business at Elmira, visited Cottage Grove several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Keyzier sold out a couple of months ago and have since made an extended visit in Southern Oregon, with an eye to a business location. Mr. Keyzier hinted that he might "hang up" here if he could be shown a business enterprise that "looked good to them." It is to be hoped that they will so decide, for they are progressive, and of the sort that adds to the worth of any town.

ODD FELLOWS' GATHERING.

The Odd Fellows of this city held an important session at their hall last Saturday evening. It was installation night, and aside from that the presentation of a medal presented by the Grand Lodge through its subordinate lodge of this city, to Sam'l P. Garoutte, for his faithful service in the lodge for 50 years, was the feature of the evening. Judge Walton, of Eugene, made the presentation speech, which set forth the life of the honored guest in an interesting manner. The medal is a beautiful piece of work in gold, and is said to be the first bequeathed by the Grand Lodge of Oregon. Mr. Garoutte is in his 80th year, fifty years of which he has been a faithful Odd Fellow. May he grace the lodge room for many years.
