

MINING CONGRESS AT BUTTE.

An Interesting Article from Sec'y F. G. Eby, Delegate from Bohemia District.

ED NUGGET: To those of my friends, as well as others interested in mining and my trip to Butte City, Montana, to the Mining Congress, I beg to express through the columns of your valuable paper, my observations and conclusions. In a brief way, for if I were to undertake to write even of all the things of interest it would be intruding too much upon time, patience and space. So, leaving out the almost uninteresting trip, except the beautiful majestic and all inspiring scenery along and about "Where Rolls the Oregon."

by offering suggestions. Believing that my trip to Butte was and will be the means of creating greater interest Bohemia Mining District, and assuring you that I worked hard and faithfully without pay or hire, with this end in view.

I Am Your Humble Servant, F. G. EBY.

Card of Thanks.—I wish to express to those who have assisted me here in Cottage Grove my sincere thanks for their kindness toward me during my illness and for the subscription of money for the purchase of a ticket to New York City, and I do especially wish to express thanks to Dr. Geo. Wall, who has given me treatment and cared for me for the past two months.

HENNING OLSEN.—Josh Westhafer, of Longsotee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular aches. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Lyons & Applegate, Drain.

Notice.—I have 26 Cotswold sheep to let out for one or more years on shares. Mrs. H. E. Redford, Saginaw, Ore.

A Warning to Girls and Young Ladies Why Gallagher Let Her Go.—Now Gallagher had a best girl. He called her "Darling One." He told her to get her perfume from Morgan and Ireland.

ACERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.—"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Lyons & Applegate, Drain, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.

No many people have gone where the hop vine twined this week that we can't call names. Picking is in full blast at the Hays yards, Creswell and Knox yard east of town.

The "annex" to the Imperial hotel is doing quite a business in the way of sleeping apartments. The new structure has attracted quite a bit of attention this week on account of the unique display in the rear.

The smoky condition of the atmosphere these days indicates the presence of forest fires somewhere in Oregon, which is not to be wondered at when we consider the time since we were favored with a good refreshing shower.

Hop picking commenced last Monday and there was quite an exodus of people from our city as a result, most of them being away to the yards near Creswell as they usually do from this locality.
