Bohemia Nugget | here good for grains, but it could not

LEE W. HENEY, Editor and Prop'r.

COTTAGE GROVE OREGON.

Youthe in their first year at college are not the only fresh men.

But almost any political doctor will ndinit that the trust evil is evil

Arctic explorers do not succeed in finding much except one another's remaine.

With the possible exception of the renairs in a new house there's an end to all things.

Mr. Bner has not as yet expressed any fear of what may happen to a man who dies rich.

Nine men out of ten would rather find $400 worth of gold in an old pot than to have written "Paradise Lost."

A woman never can understand why a man buys a new Dorby hat that, as far as she can see, is just like his old

If King Leopold hears what Marse Watterson said of the "four hundred" will take the next ship for New York.

The woman who worries over leaving her children to the care of a nurse food by different persons can be does not get very far into society nowadays.

Peary was about 400 miles from the pole when he was forced to turn back. Four hundred miles is a long way where there are no sidewalks.

The American helress wants quality and the impecunious nobleman wants quantity. Bring the two together and the result is a matrimonal merger.

Medical science has not yet discov ered the smallpox germ, but perhaps the doctors, like the rest of us, prefer to look for it through a long-distance

King Alfonso wants to rebuild the Spanish navy. All right, Alfey; rebuild it if you want to, but when you have it rebuilt he careful that it shall never get into a fight,

The Duchess of Mariborough, it is reported, will be declared by the kalser to be of royal birth. There are others in this country who are descended from a long line of ferryboats.

It is indeed startling to learn that London now proposes that the mistress shall go to school to learn how to treat id. Is it possible that the en's clubs have not settled all that?

It is a great relief to the country have Greenland proved an island by Lieutenant Peary. We laid awake one night last week, fearful lest it might turn out to be a simple peninsula.

A man has committed suicide leaving a note saying: "I have just found out what an ass I am." If this sort of intelligence spreads, Chancellor Andrews may stop worrying about overpopulation

It was Zola's misfortune that though his novels were written for reformer they attracted not reformers, but muck Clean-minded folk declined hunters. to wade through undenlable fifth to dublous social reform.

The Gregson incident, in which a British officer was whipped and ducked because he was "socially undesirable. seems to indicate that the lesson of the Boer war on the worth of "social standards in armies is not yet thoroughly learned.

FLOWERS FOR OUR RULERS. seen a comfortable family to live Bouquets Are Supplied Bountifully to in. Most argument intended to con-Congressmen and Benators, vince is a dead failure, because the per-Cut flowers are supplied gratuitously anal pride of the antagonisr is aroused. and he is only strengthened in his own by Uncle Sam to a number of persone and institutions in the city of Washssition. This, again, is not a good ington and members of Congress have thing, because it usually means that come to regard them as among the most the habit of seeing only one side of desirable of their perquisites. Th a subject is confirmed. There are two sides to everything, whether we see greenhouses from which the flowers in question come are maintained printhem or not, just as there are to the cipally to supply the city parks with meon. People who cannot argue withthe plants which make them such a out induiging in personalities ought feature of the city's beauty throughout never to do it. Those who cannot do without the to quoque argument should also be discouraged, and equally the greater part of the year. After the White House is supplied the hospitals and share in the distribution. Fam likes of members of the cabinet, the supreme court and legislative members come next. This custom, which has prevalled for years, of distributing the cut flowers is still followed. Besides the greenhouses in charge of the Source and stretched his to the supreme court and legislative members come next. This custom, which has prevalled for years, of distributing the cut flowers is still followed. Besides the greenhouses in charge of the Source and stretched his to the supreme court and legislative members court flowers is still followed. Besides the greenhouses in charge of and other public institutions receive unworthy of attention are those who tempt them. It is hardly in human nature, when one is told that one's relatives, or political party, or church, has cortain faults, to refrain from pointing out that the other person's belongings have faults just as bad. Yet this proves nothing except that human nature is

Besides the greenhouses in charge of the Superintendent of Public Buildings imperfect and that the pot is always and Ground, and the White House con-prone to call the kettle black.

servatory, other gardeners are those of Researches in modern science con the Agricultural Department and the tinue to hold out the most flattering botanical gardens. The latter are unpromises. Human beings are to live der the direction of the Senate Com-lidger. The way nilttee on Library. The gardens of the trall was a caution." longer, the fils that flesh is heir to are to disappear and perhaps even Department of Agriculture are devoted death may have no terrors. Experilargely to the growing of plants other ments are being made by the State of than floral.

New York to determine the character and amount of food needed to keep the human body in the best possible condition. By means of respiration calorimeter the healthful demand for known. The man who is eating too park greenhouses is drawn much or unsuitable food-food that does not supply muscular tissues or energy-can know at once what to erwise have to be spent for flowers for do and what changes to make to secure the needed benefits. The United the hundreds and sometimes even thousands of dollars. The floral decorations States government, too, is carrying on for the Prince Henry dinner, which experiments testing the effect of variwere most elaborate, would have cost ous food adulterations upon bealth. Utilizing a dozen volunteers, Dr. Wi-$4,000 if purchased in the flower marley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, ket. As it was the real expenditure in will determine the value or harm of . the floral decorations was only a few many articles of diet whose virtues hundred.

are now questioned. Reports come from Rome to the effect that a promi-nent physician there is making expe-USE OF WATER AT MEALS. riments to determine the depth of a person's sleep. The results show there are certain periods when the sleepe is more easily awakened than at oth-Dr. Felix L. Oswald insists that the avoidance of water at meals is a mere "sanitary superstition." It is not possiers, and by use of a specially designed instrument it can be known at just what time a man ought or ought not to ble for any normally constituted human rise. Word comes from Paris that being to eat his way to the first quarter Germ-proof houses are at hand. There instalment of a modern dinner of overare to be no more palatial residences heated made dishes and greasy viands holding the germs of all the ages. without experiencing a distinct longing Single-storied houses are to be the for a cooling diluent, and before the models. These houses are to be built end of the second course that craving of porous earthenware and to be set assumes the urgency of positive dison gravel. The roof will be tiled, not tress, but he sufferer is warned to forslated, and the windows will reach bear. Has not Professor Orthodox enu from top to bottom of the walls. In no merated five distinct sources of peril room will there be corners to harbor from induiging that appetency, and dust and bacteria. The skirting will proved that the water instinct is wrong, curve into the hardwood floors instead and that nature knows nothing about of striking them at right angles. There it? is to be no place for disease. From The most specious of these arguments decision of that controversy? Dr. Schrodt, the author of "Naturand can do it again. These are only a will soon reduce over-cold beverages to few of the hopes held out by modern the right medium, and that a craving science, but there is still opportunity which nothing but fresh water will sat-for other wonders. The most helpless isfy is a clear proof that the stomach invalid and the most aged have reason is suffering from an excess of caloric to cheer up, expect perfect resonation and a deficiency of moisture. Just walt, and that distress will subside, insists Professor O-x. Yes; the CHAPTER VI.

CHAPTER VI. risoner's furious realistance apparently indicate any fc-the second se Our prisoner's furious resistance morer. city in his disposition toward our-

"I had grown my beard, and there was no chance of their recognizing elves, for on finding himself power-ess he smilled in an affacie manner, was not expressed his hopes that he had not hurt any of us in the scuffic.

though to assure himself that they were free once more.

The door. If you'll loose my legs I'll walk down to it. I'm not so light to the set of the police, I reckon you are he man for it," he said, gazing with addingulated admiration are followed them on my cab, and sometimes on foot, but the former was the best, for then they could not get away from me. "It was only early in the morning or late at night that I could earn any-thing so that I began to get behind them were day and nover some and the more of the source of the source of the source and the source of the source and the source and the source of the sou "If there's a vacant place for a chief of the police, I reckon you are the man for it," he said, gazing with

During two weeks I drove beaming them every day, and never once saw them separate. Drebber himself was scunk half the time, but Stangerson was not to be caught napping. "I watched them late and early, but undisguised admiration at my fellow-lodger. "The way you kept on my "You had better come with me," said Holmes to the two detectives. "I can drive you," said Lestrade, "Good! and Gregeon can come innever saw the ghost of a chance; than florat.

The flowers from the White House conservatory are used for daily decorations of the executive mansion and it is for state functions and all other or dimary occasions that the supply of the park greenhouses is drawn upon. Through this source of supply not an inconsiderable amount that would other wake have to be spent for flowers for many state dinners runs well up into the hundreds and sometimes even thought.
"I can drive you," said Lestrade. "Good! and Gregoon can come in all we and interest in the case, and may as well stick to us."
Tassented gially, and we all departed to exceeded together. Our prisoner made no attempt to escape, but stepped calmly into the cab which had been his, and we followed him. Lestrade mounted the box, whipped up the horse and brought us in a very short time to our destination.
"Presently some luggage was brought out, and after a time Drebber and Stangerson followed it and drove at the supely out and the supply of the park are on the spent for flowers for the spent for flowers for the house the horse while had been his, and we followed him.

we were ushered into a small brought out, and after a time Drebber and Stangerson followed it and drove We were ushered into a small chamber, where a police inspector noted down our prisoner's name and the names of the men with whose murder he had been charged.

ing to shift their quarters, "At Euston station they got out, and I left a boy to hold my horse and fol-The official was a white faced, un-emotional man, who went through his duties in a dull, mechanical way. lowed them on to the platform. heard them ask for the Liverpoo "The primer will be put before the magistrates in the course of the week," he said: "in the meantime. Mr. Jefferson Hope, have you anytrain, and the guard answer that one had just gone, and that there would not be another for some time. thing that you wish to say? I must warn you that your words will be taken down and may be used against 'Stangerson seemed to be put out at that, but Drebber was rath pleased than otherwise. I got close to them in the bustle that rather 80 for a sound to be heard, except the iripping of the rain. When I looked n at the window, I found Drebber all huddled together in a drunken sleep. could hear every word that passed be I shook him by the arm. 'It's time to tween them, go out "Drebber said that he had a little you." "Twe got a good deal to say," our prisoner said, slowly. "I want to tell you gentlemen all about it." "Hadn't you better reserve that for your trial?" asked the inspector. "I may never be tried," he an-swered. "You needn't look startled. It ian't suicide I am thinking of. Are you a doctor?" business of his own to do, and that if the other would wait for him he would soon rejoin him. and followed me down, the garden

"His companion remonstrated with him. And reminded him that they had resolved to stick together. Drebber answered that the matter was a He turned his fierce dark eyes upon me as he asked this last question. "Yes, I am," I answered. delicate one, and that he must go alone. "I could not catch what Stanger-

"Then put your hand here," he said, with a smile, motioning with his manacled wrists toward his chest. with a smile, motioning with his manacled wrists toward his chest. I did so, and became at once con-scious of an extraordinary throbbing and commotion which was going on

In the silence of the room I could hear a dull humming and buzzing which proceeded from the same source "Why," I cried, "you have an aor-BOHICE tic aneurism!"

you a doctor !"

placidly.

"That's what they call it," he said, acidly. "I went to a doctor last "The moment for which I had wait

A NERVE DEFINED. Side, insists Professor O——x. Yes; the suble chemistry of the organism will Onick Answers from Kindergarten Papils. A certain Brooklyn kindergarten con-tains during the school term many On a morning not' long ago the head On a morning not' long own hands

dering life, I was once a janitor and sweeper out of the laboratory at ing on poisons, and he showed his stuients some alkaloid, as he called it. which he had extracted from sor South American arrow polson and which was so powerful that the least grain meant instant death. I spotted the bottle in which this preparation Majestic monarch of the cloud! Who rear'st aloft thy regal form, To hear the tempest trampings loud, And see the lightning lances driven, When strive the warriors of the storm

She call'd her engle-bearer

OLD

FAVORITES

The American Flag.

intain beight

When Freedom from her mountain Unfuri'd her standard to the sir, he tore the asure robe of night.

And set the stars of glory there: Nhe mingled with its gorgeous dyes The milky baldric of the skies,

And striped its pure celestial white With streakings of the morning light;

Then from his mansion in the sun

Fing of the brave! thy folds shall fly. The sign of the brave: thy folds shall dy, The sign of hope and triupuph high, When speaks the signal triupertons, And the long line comes gleaming on; Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet, Here during the blood, warm and wet, pure exultation.
 "If any of you gentlemen have even pined for a thing and longed for it during twenty long years, and then suddenly found it within reach, you would understand my feelings.
 "I lighted a cigar and puffed at it to steady my nerves, but my hands were trembling and my temples throbbing with excitement. To where thy sky-born glories burn, Heave in wild wreaths the battle shroud, And gory sabres rise and fall "As 1 drove 1 could see old John

Each gallant arm that strikes below just as plain as I see you all in this room. All the way they were ahead of me, and one on each side of the horse. That lovely messenger of death.

Thy stars shall glitter o'er the bra When death, careering on the gale, Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail. And frighted waves rush wildly back Refore the broadside's reeling rack. Each dying wanderer of the sea Stall look at once to heaven and thou, And smile to see thy splendors fly In triumph o'er his closing eye.

By angel hands to value given. Thy stars have lit the welkin dom And all thy hues were born in heaven, "I had to walk healde him to keep him steady, for he was still a little

> With freedom's soil beneath our feet, And freedom's banner streaming o'er

-Joseph Rodman Drake,

PROUD OF HIS WORK.

His Early Manual Labor Gave the Noted | arrister Much Batisfaction. The late D. W. Richardson, in an address to working men, declared that work, manual work, and that, too, of a resolute kind, is absolutely necessary for every man. He spoke also of the importance of doing one's work, not merely to get it done, but with a feel-ing of pride in doing it well. In this

I was invited not many years ago to s much interested in all matters relat- a lecture at St. Andrew's University, ing to flying ships, and especially is he and to listen in the evening to a lec interested in Santos-Dumont and his ture by another man, like myself, an efforts. A few weeks before the coro-nation it was extensively rumored that the king had quite made up his mind knew that he filled an important judito leave some account of the business scenario of the business before in mediate danger?" the former is immediate danger?" the former is many the had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many who had been engaged is the set of the many engaged is the set of the set sufferer a little more comfortable, though also a little leaner. Even thus, the disappointed stomach will make shift to lead molsture from some other part of the organism where it is less sorely needed and the distress subsides, though a feeling of vague discomfort re-manded matters. The other and the tirs, the grave, and I am not likely to lip molsture reabsorbed from the lower alli-mentary duct is not every word I say is the alli ta to you. Every word I say is the alli ta tay in got a carting brites the sorely needed and the distress subsides, though a feeling of vague discomfort re-mended matters. The other and the the grave, and I am not likely to lip to you. Every word I say is the alli ta tay ing for acarty half an hour in the tay of the man my new friend. "Immensely," I replied. "The man who laid those stones was an artist who must have thought that his work would live through the ages." "Well, that is pleasant to hear," he said, "for the walls are my ain daein'." He had the Scottlah accent when he "in it was in earnest. "Fortunate man," I replied, " to have the means to build so fine a place," for I thought, naturally enough, that, being a rich man, he had built this hall After a at his own expense, and presented it to the university. "Fortunate, truly," he answered, "but up and ran into the house as fast as she not in that sense. What I mean is that I laid every one of those stones with my ain hand. I was a working mason, and the builder of the hall gave me the job of laying the inside stone work; and I never had any job in my life in which I took so much pride and ded' so much pleasure." While this man was working with his hands he was working also with his brain. He took his degree, went to the bar, and became a man honored throughout the country. We applaud-ed his brilliant locture; but those silent, beautiful stones before him, which echood our applause, must, I think have been to him one cheer more, and a big one.

"We'll soon have a light," I said, striking a match and putting it to a wax-candle which I had brought with me. 'Now, Enoch Drebber,' I continu-ed, turning to him and holding the light to my own face, 'who am I?" (To be contraued.) ONE CROWN AT A TIME. Why King Edward Did Not Take Flying Ship Trip.

passed. It has been getting works to the start of the set of the s King Edward VII, as is well known, placidly. "I went to a doctor last week about it, and he told me that it was bound to burst before many days up enemies within my power. To passed. It has been getting worse cone that I knew the game was in my "Don't imagine that I futended to kill him in cold blood. It would only have been rigid justices if I had done so, but I could not hring myself to do it. I had long determined that he should have a show for his life if he observed to take advantage of 19 chone to take advantage of it, "Among the many billets which I have filled in America during my wanpure exultation.

Brixton road, stamping about.

There was not a soul to be seen,

'All right, cabby,' said he.

was kept, and when this preparation was kept, and when they were all gone I helped myself to a little of it. "I was a fairly good dispensor, so I worked this alkaloid into small, soluble pills, and each pill I put in a box with a similar pill made without poison. I determined at the time that, when I had my chance my scettere And gave into his mighty hand The symbol of her chosen land.

when I had my chance, my gentlemen should each have a draw out of one of these boxes, while I cat the pill that remained. "It would be quite as deadly, and a good deal leas noisy, than firing across a handkerchief. From that day I had always my pill boxes with me, and the time had now come when I was to use them. To guard the banner of the free, To hover in the sulphur-smoke, To ward away the battle-stroke, A did its blendings shike afar, Like reinbows on the cloud of was The harbingers of victory! oud of war,

"It was nearer one than twelve, and a wild, bleak night, blowing hard and raining in torrents. Dismal as it was outside, I was glad within-so glad that I could have should out from

- the glance. And when the cannon-monthings lond

Like shots of fisms on midnight's pail Then shall thy meteor glances glow, And cowering foce shall sink benesth Ferrier and aweet Lucy, looking at me out of the darkness and smiling at me,

Fing of the seas! on ocean wave antil I pulled up at the house in the brave;

"I suppose he thought we had come the hotel that he had mentioned Fing of the free heart's hope and home: for he got out without another word

Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foc but falls be top heavy. When we came to the door I opened it and led him into the front room. I give you my word that. fore us, all the way, the father and daughter vere walking in front of us. "'It's infernally dark,' said he.

ection he said:

Paris, too, comes the assurance from 1s the alleged risk that the introduction wiseacres that old age is to be abol- of cold water would congulate the alshed, or rather extreme old age is to bumen of the ingesta, and thus compliecome enjoyable, through occasional cate the labors of the digestive organs. fasting. By this chenp process bodily But is it not evident that those organs ills are to disappear, youth is to be should be allowed a casting vote in the renewed and man to enter on a new career. As if all these assurances were not enough to make life worth living, Hellkunde," holds, on the contrary, an Illinois physician has come for- that our diet is not half fluid enough, ward saying he has raised the dead and demonstrates that organic warmth of health and the joys of new life.

'Who can tell me what a nerve is?"

"It's what makes the tooth hurt

This created a laugh, and a number of other answers followed, when a lit-

"I know," said one little tot.

when you have the toothache."

eacher. "What is a nerve?"

na says, 'Oh, what a nervel' '

Petroleum as a Beverage.

this habit had sprung up from the in-creased taxation on alcohol imposed

Well, what is it?"

ell you

The experiment which the government has been making in enlisting sail- teacher was giving a talk on physioloors for the navy from the interior of gy and asked: the country has been successful. Several hundred farmers' boys from Kansas, Iowa, Kentucky and Nebraska Lave been in training on the ships Lan caster and Hartford during the past few months, and their instructors say that they are making excellent sailors. Most of the boys got their first smell of salt water when they boarded the to give a reply to almost every que

The haate which various scientific gentlemen make to announce that Peary's last expediton is not a failure betrays a prompt recognition that th general estimate is likely to be that way. Peary's expectation of conquer-ing the pole did not thunder so londly in the preface as Baldwin's did. But Engle. it was nevertheless predicated on the indent assertion that by preparing bases of supply and arranging for a stendy advance that ky citadel was certainly attainable. Yet in the finale sary to adopt some measures against it comes to the same result as its predethe alarming spread of petroleum COBBOTH.

Tradition says that the Queen of Shebn asked Solomon to thread an intricately plerced stone, and that he did so by means of a hair tied to a living worm. A long sewer in an Ohio factory recently became clogged, and a son of Solomon came to the rescu Tying a long ball of twins to the shell of r mud-turtle, he put the animal into the entrance of the newer and turned on a stream of water. The turtle burrowed his way through the refuse, was "satered on" at each manhole, and energed victorious at the outlet. rope attached to the twine, a swab and strong arms accomplished the rest awifily and economically.

A character in one of Arthur Sherburne Hardy's novels said, in answer to nomebody who wanted to argue with him: "When I see two men arguing I see two donkeys in a treadmill, Write out what you want to say and I will go home and think about it." The application of this trenchant romark will hit about nine out of ten of those who indulge in arguments. They rarely do much good. They are of use to certain uperaments, because they aid in facility of expression. It is said that Gladstone acquired his command of language from the custom which obtained in his family of arguing every on the harmfulness of this new vice. Getting Rid of His Enemios. First Small Boy-Did you throw any old shoes after your sister when she got married? Second Sinall Boy-Not muchi I delphia Record.

> Crime in Buenos Ayres. Buenos Ayres has issued its criminal statistics for 1901. They include 90 murders, 244 attempted murders, 1,710 assaults, and over 5,000 thefts, burglaries, and swindles.

When a man opens up a business the onpers say he has a large circle of friends, and after the accounts begin to ccumulate in his ledger he begins to believe it.

If the wish is father to the thought, question, small and great. It may have the thought must be sunny.

tie girl, who is usually depended upon What Age Is He? tion, raised her poluted finger and said; The Navy Department is trying to the following remarkable statement: front of me and he halled it. "I know the answer, teacher; I can answer the question: "How old is Rear Admiral Thomas O. Selfridge, re-"You may answer, Emily," said the tired?" Is he 00 or 100? The records do not show and Rear Admiral Sel-"When anyone is too fresh my mam-The lesson ended after a desperate effort to restore order .- Brooklyn have been at least 15 years old at that time, the supposition is that he is between 99 and 100. The Admirafs oldest son, Rear Admiral Thomas O. Sel-The Medical Society of Paris has fridge, Jr., owns to being 66 years. The expressed the opinion that it is necesbardston, Mass .-- Philadelphia Press. drinking. At first it was thought that Singular Signs for Travelers the case; the habit had been prevalent some time previously in certain dis-tricts and had spread with great rapid-ity. The victim of the order the ford the store is out of sight it is ring, and that his last thempties here is a system of the other was a young chap whom I tives and have been of the petroleum habit the famous finger post which is said isnes. "I have carried it about with me, does not become brutal, only morose, opinions differ among physicians as veyor of roads in Kent: "This is a complice over two continents until I is road, "You hound!" he cried, shaking his "You hound!" he cried, shaking his main road."

French Happy Home Broken Up. A Parisian lady has been compelled by the police to break up her happy home, consisting of 20 hens, 50 cocks, 30 pigeons, a goat, 4 cats, 8 dogs, a parthrew all my mother's slippers .- Phila- rot and a dozen small birds, Her neighbors objected to being kept awake all night by the cats and dogs, and to being roused up at an unearthly hour by the trowing of the cocks.

> Stunted. Citiman-L hear the Popleys have oved out near you. Have you seen their baby? Isn't it a tiny little mite? helf baby7 isn't it a tiny into into , over was only myself. Subbubs-Yes, but you must remem-per it passed the first six months of I managed to scrape along somehow. I managed to scrape along somehow. its life in a flat.-Philadelphia Press, ber it passed the first six months of this life in a flat.—Philadelphia Press, A woman's idea of a bargain is some-thing abe can't afford when she needs mages that ever wore contrived, this the difference of the problem for me. The hardest job was to learn my way about, for I reckon that of all the mages that ever wore contrived, this the most confusing.

mentary duct is not exactly what the solute truth, and how you use it is last of them. stomach wanted. With these words, Jefferson Hope in his walk, and was evidently pretty leaned back in his chair and began well on. There was a hansom just in > subjoined account, for I have had ac- of my horse was within a yard of his cess to Lestrade's notebook, in driver the whole way, which the prisoner's words were tak. "We rattled across Waterloo Bridge en down eractly as they were ut and through miles of streets until, to fridge will not tell. He says it is no-body's business how old he is. But as "It doesn't much matter to you he entered the navy in 1818, and must why I hated these men," he said; boarded.

"It's enough that they were guilty of the death of two human beings—a fathor and a daughter—and that they had therefore, forfelted their own lives. After the lapse of time that has passed since their crime, it was imposed by for much sectors a complex of water, if you imposed by for much sectors a complex. "I could not imagine what his inten senior Selfridge was born in Hub-impossible for me to secure a convic-bardston, Mass.-Philadelphia Press. "That girl that I spoke of was to""That's better," he said. "Well, I

Singular Signs for Travelers. have married me twenty years ago, On the banks of a rivulet near Stra. She was forced into marrying that bane is a stone with this singular in. Same Drebber, and broke her heart noise like people struggling to enter when this stone is out of sight it is ring, and that his last thoughts should not safe to ford the river." This recails be of the crime for which ho was pun-"This fellow had Drebber by the

There is nothing left for me to hope for or to desire. "They were rich and I was poor, so that it was no easy matter for me to follow them. When I got to Lon-don my pocket was about empty, and I found that I must turn my hand to something for my living. "Driving and riding are as natural to me as walking, so I applied at a to me as walking, so I applied at a cab owner's office, and soon got em-ployment. I was to bring a certain sum a week to the owner, and what- I might take him right out into the 'Grandma, what's 'at?' "That is medicine, my dear." "What is it made of, grandma?" "Out of leaves and roots and barks," replied grandma.

"Oh, grandma," said Ethel, as her big eyes opened in wonder, made of little dog barks?"

A Funny Moon.

One summer evening a little girl was at doors washing her feet. After a while she happened to look at the moon, just under a cloud. She jumped could, and said:

"I'm not going to stay out there and that moon slipp'n' and slid'n' 'round like that."

		Pa Kne	W-
"Pa,	what	does	'ab	rent	-min	id
"My	boy, th thick?"		ıy.	Did	you	4

"And your thoughts ran on?" "Yes.

"Well, that's it." - Indianapolis

Proof Positive.

Lady-You say you were a soldier and a hero in the late war? Tramp-Yes'm.

Lady-How can you prove your bravers? Tramp-Give me a match and I'll light your gaso ine stove for you .- De troit Free Press.

Ascum-I notice that Mr. Kloseman has become a regular attendant at church. When did he get religion?

Gassaway $10 some time ago, and he's country and there in some deserted had to take it out in pew rent .- Phila- expert chemist, and my client and I delphis Press.

Brown-Do you think she is a clever

Judging from the Sample.

A Congressman who thought that one of the great national parties was trying too hard to find an issue when there was no issue in sight, rebuked his opponents by telling this story:

A client of mine has a large family, and accordingly is rather pressed for money. He came to me joyfully one day, declaring that he had found off flowing from a spring on his land, and bringing me a sample.

The bottle he brought was one which he had picked up in a hurry somewhere about the house. I forwarded it to an walted with a good deal of interest for his report of the analysis. In a day or two we got this telegram;

"Find no trace of oil. Your friend has struck paregoric."

What ornery people there are in the world! But you can't reform them.

Takes It Out in Trade. Brownie-He didn't. It's just husi-ness with him. He loaned Rev. Mr.

Nows

Impossible

Smith-Um-m1 Bather too good it and which is offered at a reduction when she has no use for it.

aneurism might go wrong. "I drove along slowly, weighing in my own mind what it was best to do.