

Devoted to the Mining, Lumbering and Farming Interests of this Community, to Good Government, and Hustling for a Grub Stake.

VOL. IV

COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1902.

NO. 47

Suitable Gifts.

In our Large Stock of Goods we carry Suitable Gifts for Husband, Wife, Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, Son, Daughter.

CHRISTMAS TOYS AND GIFTS.

Christmas will soon be here. No better evidence of it can be found than in our Toy Department, which is more complete this year than ever before.

A LOOK THROUGH OUR STORE

Will make grown folks long to be children again. Everything in the way of Mechanical and Musical toys. We can't begin to enumerate them.

Bring in the Little Folks to See Them Purchases may be made now and left with us for future delivery.

EAKIN & BRISTOW.

DOLLS.

We have the Largest Stock of Dolls ever brought to Cottage Grove. In this Stock will be found every style of doll manufactured and from the largest to the smallest. We do not intend to carry one of these over the Holidays,

Consequently they will be sold cheaper than dolls were ever sold on the Pacific Coast.

Mines and Mining

Devoted to Bohemia Notes and Items of general interest to Mining Men.

Mining Stock of Bohemia.

Table listing mining stocks: Oregon Securities Co., Oregon & Colorado Mining Co., Vesuvius, Sunrise, Bohemia Gold Mining Co., Golden Slipper, Hiawatha, Crystal Consolidated, Lefroy, Star, Gold Hill & Bohemia, Mayflower, Golconda, Judson Rock, Riverside, North Fairview, Great Eastern.

May Locate Here.

Herman T. Dow, the timber locator, returned last Friday morning from a few weeks' business trip in the east, and while there visited his old home at West Superior, Wisconsin. Mr. Dow says that the people of that section of the country are wonderfully interested in the Pacific northwest and piled him with all kinds of questions during his short stay there.

Great Things For Oregon.

W. A. Root, special traveling agent of the Mining and Engineering Review, stopped over in our city last Monday evening on his return home from a trip through Eastern Oregon, where he says, the weather has been too severe to accomplish much. However, he expresses great faith in the future of the Siskiyou district and thinks it will make a wonderful showing next season.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hiawatha Mining and Milling Company will be held at the company's office in the Flinn building, at Cottage Grove, Oregon, on the 11th day of December, A. D. 1902, at the hour of 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

The Great Eastern.

Lewis Hartley called at this office Monday enroute from Bohemia to his home at Corvallis where he will remain during the winter. He informs us that the Great Eastern Mining Co. has shut down at both their camps for the winter and will not resume work until about the first of February.

The two camps of this company, which are located at the head of Chinar creek, have been scenes of bustle and activity during the entire summer and much has been accomplished in the way of development and preparations for future work on the property.

Practice What You Preach.

The two characters who have been incarcerated in jail since the carnival here were liberated Saturday and immediately raised enough disturbance to warrant their arrest. In answer to a charge of disorderly conduct that morning they promised to manufacture a get away promptly if let off. Judge Dorris was lenient and Marshall Stiles saw that the two worthies were passengers on the afternoon's train. They paid their own fare.

Strawberries in December.

S. B. Morse, who lives just outside the city limits southeast of town, brought in a fine sample of December strawberries, last Monday, that grew on his place. It seems that he irrigated a part of his garden late in the fall, before the autumn rains set in, and some of the water ran over the strawberry beds with the result that the plants bloomed, and are now growing a fine crop of large strawberries, which will not amount to anything as they cannot ripen this cold cloudy weather.

There are several patches of strawberry vines in this city also, that are producing a late crop of berries, due probably from the same cause.

A Cheap Thief.

One day last week a smooth-looking, well-dressed man dropped into the second-hand store of C. J. Miller and informed him that as he was contemplating moving out of the city, he had two gasoline lamps and some carpenter tools he would like to dispose of.

Sells Transfer Line.

J. E. Brown, father-in-law of the Nugget, who has been in Eugene since last spring, has disposed of the Gordon transfer line and will retire from that business this week. Mr. Brown has no definite plans for the future, but will doubtless remain in Eugene until spring, when he will re-engage in business.

Roseburg Stage Held Up.

The Roseburg-Myrtle Creek stage was held up Tuesday night, near the Asher Island place, a mile and a half from Olalla. The only persons on board were Driver Sawyers and A. W. Perkins, a commercial traveler. The latter was compelled to deliver $7.50 in cash. The mail was not disturbed, as the robber was told that the brass-locked pouch was sent over the Marshfield route.

BETTER THAN A PLASTER.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Druggists, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.

Won A Prize.

Mr. Wm. Garman was the lucky man that drew the $35 buttoned sofa pillow that was raffled off the first of the week by J. H. Warner. This valuable pillow is the work of Mrs. Warner and is a thing of beauty. Should any man doubt it let him allow his wife a good look at it and see what she says about it.

Hard Times Ball.

The Redmen will give another ball at the opera house here on the evening of Tuesday, December 23, which will doubtless eclipse anything given here for some time in the past. "Hard Times" will be the watchword of this ball and it is likely to go hand with those who forget it and put on their best "store clothes" or do any other "fixing up."

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

This is the season of the year, when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indications of the cold appear. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Druggists, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.

HE FOUND A CURE.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d Street, Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years, have tried many doctors without relief, but I have found a cure in Herbine. I recommend it to all my friends, who are afflicted that way, and it is curing them, too. 50c at New Era Drug Store."

CLASHING SPELL CAUSES DEATH.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901. Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1 at New Era Drug Store.

The Berg brothers who lately returned from a two years sojourn in the frozen regions of the Klondike country, recently purchased the elegant residence on the west side built a few years ago by Ben Larch. They are already occupying it. John Baker's family having removed into the Glass house near the Southern Pacific track. This is one of the finest residences in the city, with a few exceptions, and will make them a nice home, and at the price paid, was a bargain.
