A small row is said to have taken place last Sunday among the men employed on the new S. P. switch. A white man struck a Japanese with a "shovel" when the white man saw the Japanese with the shovel. The white man was said to have given him chase and run him into the ditch in which is several feet of water. However no one was seriously hurt.

T. K. Richardson, of the Richardson Music House, was up from Roseburg last Saturday and shipped one of his large Colonial Newburgh pianos from his store here to that city, to be used by Mr. Arthur Frazer in his recital there Tuesday evening. The instrument selected is a beautiful one and will no doubt meet all the requirements necessary.

Last Monday was pay day for the Coast Fork Lumber Co., the Pacific Timber Co., the Black Hills, the O. & S. E. Long & Blumhahn and various other companies, and the city was full of men who lined up at the First National Bank to cash their checks. When night came the force in the bank complained of being weary and we do not wonder at it in the least.

The whist club held their regular meeting at the Woodmen hall last Tuesday evening and had a most enjoyable time. Refreshments were served by the committee which was composed of Mrs. Ed Long, and Mrs. Wm. Gorman. Guests of the club were Miss Ruby Baker, Miss Effie Stewart, Mr. Ralph Whipple and Mr. Otto Brown. The prize was won by Lily Larch and the "hooley" by Mrs. McClellan.

The young people's whist club met at the home of Mrs. Givens last Friday evening and enjoyed a most pleasant evening at that popular diversion. Miss Stewart, Mr. Oscar McCallan and Mr. Otto Brown tied for first place and Mr. McClellan won the prize on the last round. The consolation was limited by Bobby Blair. Refreshments were served by a committee appointed for that purpose and the meeting and guests all voted it a splendid success.

An effort is being made by the business men of Eugene to preserve Bang's park and prevent it being sold off in real estate lots. A stock company is being organized to purchase the park and make of it a county fair ground to be used by Lane county. This is indeed a very good idea and should be encouraged not only by the people of Eugene but of the entire county. A good county fair such as this would do wonders for the county and its varied industries.

A big, dejected looking, white horse wandered into the city last Monday from somewhere in the surrounding country. He had probably been foundered and turned out to "rustle" for the former. His hoofs had grown to an enormous length and resembled snow shoes or sled-runners. The man who took him in, thinking he could dispose of him to some one who wanted a horse to freight goods into Bohemia this winter over the deep snow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lettoy arrived in the city last Saturday from their trip south which they made in the hope that it would prove beneficial to Mrs. Lettoy's health. They had a most enjoyable trip and visited many most enjoyable places in Southern Oregon and Northern California, finally deciding to locate temporarily at Merlin a small village about ten miles north of Grants Pass where the country and climate suited them better than at any place they visited. Mr. Lettoy states that he saw no town that was as prosperous as our own little city of Cottage Grove.
