HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Druggists, Benson Dr. & Co., Cottage Grove.

Miss Emma A. Bryan wishes to announce to the people of our city that after Jan. 1st, 1903 she will be permanently located in rooms in the Finn building where she will be pleased to meet any one desiring vocal lessons. Terms reasonable.

Musical Concert.

A grand musical concert will be given at Martins Hall, Monday night, Dec. 22 by Arthur Fraser, Pianist, accompanied by talented vocalists. The concert will be followed by a social dance. See hand bills and notices in the business windows of Cottage Grove.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indications of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Druggists, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.

VERSE FOR CHRISTMAS

Some Seasonable Jingles in Which There May Be More Truth Than Poetry.

CHRISTMAS SONNETS.

This column contains many verses that we confidentially recommend to the public as embodying many bright and truthful sayings that are well for all to read and remember on this, the glad old Christmas time.

CHRISTMAS CHIMES.

Ring out ye bells your Christmas chimes
And songs of love and lore
And tell in many rhythmic rhymes
What you never told before.

Of gifts of love and friendship
In quantities galore
To suit the most fastidious
At the New Era Drug Store.

P. S. We are sure it's but a pleasure
To keep the bells and chimes
To tell you of the presents
We have for Christmas time.

Morgan & Brehaut.

FOR ALL SORTS.

The lean, the fat, the short, the tall
We've presents here for one and all
And if from Missouri or not
We're glad to show,
You all of our goods, Morgan & Brehaut.

It is nice thing to have a place like
And experience such as they
Are only too willing to give the knight
And lady on Christmas day.

DAYS OF OLD.

In days of old when knights were bold
And barons held full sway,
A custom there was and is practiced yet
On the glad old Christmas day.

Each knight would bring his lady
A present for well he knew
That she would return the compliment
By bringing him one or two.

And this exchange of gifts goes on today
As it did in days of yore
And knight and lady can find what they want
At Morgan & Brehaut's Drug store.

FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS.

We have rabbits we have kittens
We have story books and toys
We have many many presents
For the little girls and boys.

We have deer just like red "Santa"
Has
On all his midnight rides
We have mermaid we have poppers
And lots of things beside.

So bring the children to us
For they will be well pleased we know

With any of the presents
From Morgan & Brehaut.

FOR MEN ONLY.

May all your troubles end in smoke
And they all will we know
If you get one of those fancy pipes
From Morgan & Brehaut.

For we pipes from many lands
The German and the Turk
We have pipes down here for duds
And pipes for men who work.

We have in stock some curious pipes
Made out of cherry logs
We have newsham, clay and briar
And Missouri old corn cobs

How Pat Murphy Won Bridget O'Grady—a romance.

Now Patrick he loved Bridget
And he loved her more than life
But he never could get Bridget
To say she'd be his wife.

He tried hard all the summer
And filled his heart with pain
To find that fall had come around
And things were just the same.

Bridget she seemed distant
And poor Pat was feeling sore
And then it was he saw the "ad"
Of the New Era Drug Store.

In which it said they'd help the boys
(In words so very plain)
Win any lady that they wished
Pat's courage rose again.

"Be gob," he said "I'll try them
I never thought before,
So he sent for one of the handsome sets

From the New Era Drug store.
P. S. You can guess just how the present worked

It has been a year or more
And Pat is buying Castoria now
At the New Era Drug Store.

A PERSONAL LETTER.

Just a Word to the Wise.

Dear Friends: Remember it is drawing near to the good old Christmas and New Year holiday times. It is often a very serious time in the lives of many young men and women. Just see the dark lines around the eyes of so many of the young men. What causes them you ask. The poor boys lie awake so much at night worrying over what they shall send to the idol of their hearts.

They worry so much that no wonder they have a haggard look. But boys! A word in confidence, stop all worry and trust to us, and girls do the same thing for we can make it easy sailing for you. But we want you to remember that often on the Christmas present hinges the happiness of all your future lives. So be careful, go slow, be calm, cool and collected. Don't rush into sending her or him a present with your eyes shut. Look for real value. Get the artistic, the beautiful. Show the candy and pomposity, because it may be a little cheaper. Remember that deep rivers flow majestically, shallow

Our shelving and show window is also empty, and ready to receive a large shipment of stools and scarfs from the Tonk Mfg. Co., of N. Y. With twelve years' continued experience with the Needham goods we have found them the most satisfactory, both to ourselves and to our customers. We earnestly invite the intending purchasers of pianos especially to see this fine lot of instruments before purchasing elsewhere.
