LEE W. HENRY, Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the postoffice at Cottage Grove, Oregon as Second Class mail matter.

Subscription price, $1.00, in advance.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1902.

Christmas comes but once a year. Next Thursday is the day for new resolutions.

The present city administration is to be congratulated on the good order preserved in our little city and the able manner in which the business is being transacted.

We have about a dozen different first class excuses to offer this week for any shortcomings that may appear in the paper.

Thursday, the day we usually get out the paper, comes on Christmas this week which necessitates us getting a hustle on ourselves and getting out the paper on Wednesday, a day earlier than usual.

W. H. Long hauled off a big load of turkeys today to Wilbur McFarland. The price paid for them was 12 1/2 per lb.

Last Monday's Portland Telegram contained an extensive writeup and numerous half-tones of the great state of Oregon and is a fine sheet to send east to your friends who are thinking about the great Pacific Northwest.

Love in Oregon.

"It rains today," the girl said. "Why so it does," said she. "But not so much as once it did!" "Why sure it don't" quoth he. "It rained yesterday I think. If men's eyes were right," Her cheek in faintest tint of pink betrayed her heart's delight. "It may not rain tomorrow though."

Musical Recital.

The recital at the opera house here Monday evening by Miss Arthur Frazer, pianist, and Miss Nina Ostrander, vocalist, drew quite a large crowd of the music loving people, all of whom seemed more than pleased with the splendid program rendered.

DIVIDE ITEMS.

W. S. Miller has accepted a position at the new saw mill at Springfield and is holding it down.

A good many cases of sickness around here mostly a combination of colds and scarletina.

School closes Friday and the school is making preparations to hold the closing exercises Christmas eve in conjunction with the Christmas tree.

The Southern Pacific is taking a good many car loads of piling from the Veatch switch now.

Another wedding last week, the contracting parties being Mr. James Cumberland and Miss Ida Taylor of Comstock. The young couple have the well wishes of a large circle of friends.

A big dance at Divide for Christmas. The boys all know what that means.

ITEMS FROM SILK CREEK.

Are you preparing for Christmas? Quite a number of our good looking ladies were invited to a rag, tea at Mrs. Emily Wheeler's residence last Thursday. As it was also the anniversary of her husband, Mr. E. Wheeler's birthday, he was permitted to occupy the seat of honor at the table and partake of the feast of good things.

These Richardson is improving somewhat in health to the great joy of his faithful wife.

David Estes steps high and also wears quite a beauteous smile all on account of a young miss, who arrived at his home a few days ago and announced herself as one of the family.

John Ashby made a trip to town today over the good roads to deliver a beef which he butchered yesterday.

W. H. Long hauled off a big load of turkeys today to Wilbur McFarland. The price paid for them was 12 1/2 per lb.

Geo. Thompson walked to town last Friday thinking it was post day but was unfortunate in being 24 hours too early. Never mind George better too early than not at all.

Quite a few of our neighbors were disappointed by the nonappearance of Mr. Bryan of Saginaw, who was to preach here last Sunday, but for some reason failed to get here.

LONDON ITEMS.

Const Fork is on a boom. We are soon to have more light on the subject as the Const Fork Lumber Company will soon install a new water wheel and an electric dynamo for lighting purposes, at their mill near here. This enterprising lumber company do not believe in sparing any time or expense in keeping their mill fully abreast of the times with the latest and most improved machinery.

The Shortridge mill will soon be running full blast and turning out lumber to its fullest capacity. This section of the country is full of men who are busy winter and summer getting out piling, working in the logging camps, the saw mills, on the river and in the mines. They are all getting good wages and are consequently prosperous and happy.

The new store at London is now completed and stocked to its greatest capacity with a new and up-to-date line of goods, perhaps the best of any country store in the county. In connection with the store is a large and commodious warehouse which enables them to take in exchange, or for cash, all kinds of produce.

NOTICE.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Ore., Dec. 11, 1902. Notice is hereby given that the approved plat of Survey of Fractional Township 22 S., R. 1 E., has been received from the Surveyor General for Oregon, and on Monday, January 26, 1903, at 9 a. m. the said plat will be filed in this office, and the land embraced therein being in the Cascade Forest Reserve will be open to entry only to persons having made settlement therein prior to September 28, 1893, the date of the withdrawal from entry of said land by order of the President of the United States.

CLIPPING SPELL CAUSES DEATH.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with fits of coughing which continued some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation - St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901."

The Golden Rule Mining Co.

This week we are in receipt of the prospectus of the Golden Rule Consolidated Mining Company which was recently incorporated and organized at Salem.

The incorporators are Wm. Wehler, C. Marsh, D. Steiner, A. F. Homoyor and C. L. Johnson. The list of officers are as follows: Wm. Wehler, president; C. Marsh, vice; Wm. Lanning, treasurer, and C. L. Johnson, secretary.

The properties of the company consist of the six claims comprising the Golden Rule group and the nine claims at the foot of the hill comprising the Consolidated group.

These are fine properties and will no doubt turn out to be great producers.

Lack of space this week forbids an extended description.

The officers of this new company are all hustlers and we look for some great developments. Success to the new company.

BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP.

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Shelburne, Wisconsin, writes May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle, they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c and $1 at New Era Drug Store."
