In casting about for a successor to Congressman Tongue, many republicans turned at once to Binger Hermann and the feeling in favor of returning him to congress seems to be rapidly gaining strength. He served the people well and faithfully during his twelve years as representative. Through his experience as commissioner of the general land office and his long term in congress, he has an extensive acquaintance throughout the country, which together with his natural ability, gives him a great deal of influence in Washington.

A FORTY-ACRE RANCH Isn't a bad piece of property to own especially when located handy to town and on a good road. This one is, and containing what it does. It consists of cleared land suitable for farming, grazing and timber. There is a fairly good two room house and out buildings on the place, several hundred fruit trees, two good clear springs, ten or fifteen acres of plow land, a large saw timber tract, more than pay for the place and over a thousand dollars worth of dry logs for stove wood, and the whole business is fenced and cross fenced with good rail fences. And I am going to sell this place

AT A GREAT BARGAIN within the next sixty days, (if not a buyer) This place is a bargain at $5000, and if you want it, you will "have to hurry". It will bring a clear thousand dollars before the summer is over and is well worth it to the right man. He can make it bring him that during this year and have the place left. A proposition to trade for property in this city might be considered or a proposition to pay part in cash and to be delivered here during the summer.
