Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspersia that is caused by derangement of the female organ-lam, and which, while it causes dis-turbance similar to ordinary indiges-tion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterime-tonic effects as well. Thousands of testimonial let-ters prove beyond question that nothing will relieve this distress-ing condition so surely as Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Com-pound. It always works in har-mony with the female system. Mrs Finkham advises sick women free, Address Lynn, Mass. There was another interval during which the saleswoman was out of sight under the counter. When she rose again, flushed but triumphant, she disclosed a little package still in its wrappings. It proved to be a candle of pale pink, fresh and unmarred in any way.
