

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.

The school entertainment under the management of Prof. Briggs, at Martin's hall last Saturday evening, was a success in every respect. A happy medium was struck which is not always the case in the matter of length of program—it was neither too short nor too long. This was accomplished in carefully selecting the numbers and those participating; also in promptly announcing the succeeding number before any great demonstration could be made, by way of encore. Although several were made which were responded to, there were other equally as deserving that were denied on account of lack of time. It is always better to cut a little short on an entertainment than to let it drag until everybody is tired. Special credit is due the C. M. A. band for its services, and the organization certainly deserves praise for the clever rendition of the several pieces. The band is one of the best in this section of Oregon, and not only to the several members is the praise due, but to Mr. Cochran, who so faithfully and diligently performed the duties incumbent upon him as leader. A short discourse by Rev. Pease, on the "Ideal Man," was pleasing, instructive and well received. Misses Lou and Harlow, and Messrs. Morrison and Bishop, in quartette, sang "Freedom's Flag" in a pleasing manner. Then came an exercise by the "First Grade," under the direction of Miss Kelley, which was pleasing, and considering the age of the little participants, deserves much consideration. Miss Frances Howard then rendered the instrumental piece, "The Brook," which was well received. The double quartette, in "When Hands Meet," was listened to with much appreciation. The Fifth Grade then gave an exercise that pleased everybody. The instrumental number by Mrs. L. D. Beck, "Zampa," was cleverly rendered, showing at once the lady's mastery of her profession. Mrs. Beck was escorted until she reappeared, graciously rendering the "Broken Heart" waltz. Mr. Newland then acquitted himself commendably. In comic recitation, Miss Bryan then favored the audience with the recent solo, "Astoria," responding in an encore with "Every Rose Must Have Its Thorn," which was very pleasing to the audience. The recitation of Miss Nettie Burdick was well rendered and more than pleased her hearers. Chas. S. Cochran rendered a earnest solo to the delight of all lovers of horn music. For clearness, roundness and smoothness of tone, Mr. Cochran is indeed hard to excel. Mrs. Bond added much to the evening's entertainment in her work in comic recitations. The quartette, by Misses Bryan, Harlow, Lea and Atkins, which by the way, was rendered earlier in the evening, was well received. The entertainment then closed with a march rendered by the C. M. A. Band, and as the audience departed words of praise could be heard on every hand.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Commercial Club met at the Judson Rock Mining rooms Monday evening, as announced, and a report of the progress of the club was made. In the absence of President Job, W. H. Blair presided. Upon report of Secretary J. H. Pearson it was found that the membership had increased 50 per cent from Friday to Monday night, without a canvass of the town. The committee on literature presented specifications of pamphlets, one of which was accepted, and the committee instructed to rush the work of compiling the literature as rapidly as possible. There being no further business the club adjourned to meet Friday evening at the Judson Rock rooms at 8 o'clock sharp.

COTTAGE GROVE GETS 'EM.

It is announced that the Harriman lines are following the tactics of dropping immigrants off at places that responded to the company's solicitation to furnish advertising literature. The railroad company is right in this. It is to be presumed that a town that will not reach forth to secure a portion of the immigration coming to the state, especially when the matter is brought to its attention, does not want new comers. What hurts just now, Cottage Grove happens to be one of those towns that failed to grasp the opportunity, and as a result she is getting some of the newcomers—"ali's".

NIEN UNTO DEATH.

J. C. Wallace, one of Lane county's old and respected pioneers, who has been identified with this section for many years, was brought back from Portland, where he has been at the home of his daughter Mrs. Ruth Giltner, for several months undergoing treatment, last Saturday. At this writing Mr. Wallace is at the home of his second daughter Mrs. Delure Hemenway, this city, and his death is momentarily expected. Mr. Wallace's health has been poor for a year past and expected to be benefited by an operation. In making the examination the physicians discovered that the cancerous growth of the stomach had assumed such an aggravated condition that an operation was impractical, and the operation was not completed, although temporary relief was given. For the past few weeks, however, the patient has been gradually worse, and, as stated above his death is expected any moment.

RETURNED TO HIS OREGON HOME.

M. and H. C. Veatch, all of this city, he himself having lived here until some thirty years ago, when he located in Eastern Oregon. Mr. Veatch is 50 years old, and is in very good health. In fact has been bedfast for nearly two months with a complication of troubles that frequently come with old age. Mr. Veatch will make his home with his nephew, Oliver Veatch, and it is hoped that the change of climate and renewal of acquaintance with scenes and faces of his early pioneer days will restore him to health and give him many years of comfort.

Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topoka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or a cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at New Era Drug Store.

Last Sunday the contest was decided and it was found that the blue buttons lead by only three.
