FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1903.

Does it appear to the average business man that he can work up a business and sell goods without first having the goods to sell? Does it not stand to reason that if he wishes to sell more goods that he must lend his efforts and presence in getting more people to come to his store? When the business man gets the goods and opens a store if he is progressive does he not advertise, in some way or other, to get the people to come to his store? If it is consistent that we have more people in our community, does it not appear that the several business men must, collectively, let outsiders know why we demand a portion of their attention and presence? In order to do it, isn't it good policy to send broadcast some message in some way or other that will advise those who are coming west that we are among the live people—that we live in one of the best communities in the west—that we have more natural advantages than any other place in Oregon—in fact extend a hand of welcome to the throng of immigrants now westward bound? If such is the case let us turn out to a man and swell the membership of the Commercial Club. For this purpose, this club is organized. It is not the duty of one man, or two, or six, or a dozen men to go forward and keep an organization of this kind up, but it is the duty of every public spirited citizen to assist in keeping it up. To see that it is run right. To know that the best possible use is made of the money subscribed. To boost the town, the community. Not to lie about it, but to claim credit for what we have. Don't get an idea that when you have subscribed your membership fee that you have done your duty. You haven't, until you have come out and help spend it in a manner calculated to benefit all concerned. Gentlemen, come out to the Commercial Club Friday night. Lend your presence. It won't hurt you. Come out. Let's bring about a condition of affairs, that will cause people to suspicion, at least that we are on the map. Let it never be slung in our teeth again that we lack public spirit, that we are not enterprising. These things sting gentlemen—let's avoid the sting. Come out.

The Nugget wishes to call the particular attention of the citizens of Cottage Grove to the fact that the city is fortunate in having a band organization that is not excelled by any like organization in any place of the size of Cottage Grove, in Oregon. When we stop to think of it we are naturally proud of the fact, and if we should, any of us, be caught away from home, and the subject should be brought up, we, any of us, would take particular pride in praising the organization and the boys of which it is composed. In fact, the most of us would be apt to "swell up" a little on the proposition. But at home, in the ordinary walk of life, we too seldom underestimate—sometimes do not estimate at all—and perchance, forget the fact that we have so commendable an organization. We also are apt to forget the fact that it takes time, patience, money and, many times, hard knocks, to maintain an organization of this kind. A band is always expected to turn out, as it should, to assist in any public entertainment wherein the proceeds go to aid public enterprises, and no band has done more and shown a willingness to do more in this way than has the C. M. A. of this city. The organization should not be expected, however, to give its services to political gatherings. Fourth of July celebrations, etc. In fact here is where the handsome thing should be done—a good revenue turned into the coffers of the organization. Let us remember that we have an organization not easily excelled; that it is struggling along in an heroic way, dependent upon the combined energy of the several members to provide ways and means to secure music; that it is a deserving and useful organization; that it only asks for just consideration and patronage, and that in several ways it pays us back two-fold. That it needs a uniform, and that as a city we owe a vote of thanks as well as our patronage to the leader, Mr. Cochran, who has given his time and ability, with very little compensation, and to the boys, who have given Cottage Grove the reputation of having an "A" band.

Ex-Governor Geer is on record as having said that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for congress; and that when the nomination is made he will be found ready to do all within his power to elect the republican candidate. This is the right kind of talk and if the ex-governor will take this stand he will find himself once more fully established in his party lines.

Now that Mr. Fulton is elected United States Senator, Republicans should show a disposition to forget past difference and pull together. The Democrats are the enemy, and all the extra Republican energy should be bent in their direction. The only political interest taken in Oregon has been in the fight between Republicans. The result at last placed a Democrat in the highest office in the state, which easily shows that it is possible to elect more Democrats even in a state which has 15,000 Republican majority unless common sense prevails in party councils. Let us cease factional quarrels, admit that all sides should be heard, and proceed to work together. Fair play and reasonable concessions are the only requisites to harmonious action.—Statesman. The above is a good suggestion, and the point is well taken. However it is with pleasure that we note that the Statesman admits that there were a few knife thrusts at the head of the ticket last June.

The Guard, published for so many years in Eugene, by Campbell Bros., has changed ownership. Ira L. Campbell retiring, his brother John R., assuming entire ownership and control. I. L. Campbell's retirement from the newspaper business, with which he has been so long identified, is brought about by his impaired health. It will be with a feeling of sadness that Mr. Campbell's newspaper brothers record this fact, and it will seem strange to many of the craft to visit Eugene and not find "Ira" looking after business. However, the business now goes wholly into the hands of J. R. Campbell, who has stood at the post of duty for years, practically dictating the policy of the Guard, especially so since his brother's health failed some three years ago. John Campbell is a bright, brainy man, a true gentleman, thoroughly experienced in the business, and will pilot the Guard to a safer and solid foundation than ever before. May Mr. Campbell live to round out many years in the service of the Guard.

The Salem Statesman, in another long wail about the defeat of Ex-Governor Geer for United States Senator, states that "it is time that all this subject should be dropped." To show that the Statesman is sincere in this proposition it should start the ball rolling by dropping its worn and stale gag about those 45,000 votes.

BURIED TREASURE.

Grants Pass, Ore., dispatch (special to Oregonian).—From beneath the cabin floor on "Dutch Johnnie's" placer claim, on Rogue River, a few miles below this city, some $620 in coin and gold dust has been uncovered by C. C. Taylor and a companion, of this city. Johnnie Aiden, better known as "Dutch Johnnie," is a German and is now an inmate of the insane asylum at Salem. He was sent there a few months ago. Johnnie had lived on his claim since the early days, and it has been the general belief that he had a great quantity of gold buried about his cabin, as he was a man of miserly habits. Since being sent to the asylum several parties have "coyote" mined the German's entire place in an effort to find the hidden treasure, but that discovered by Taylor and his companion is all that is has been reported found.

Johnnie has no known relatives living and his property was put in the hands of the court for adjustment. In 1879 he killed John Forrest, a notorious character of the time and was exonerated by the court, but the memory of the crime weighed heavily upon him and drove him insane.

WAKEFUL CHILDREN.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by Benson Drug Co.

NEW LAWS.

Here are some of the new laws given by the last legislative session: Hereafter Road Supervisors will take their offices the first Monday in January, instead the first Monday in July, following their election. This change was made in the present law by the legislature of 1903. Another bill that passed this legislature was one amending the law requiring the appointment of county roadmasters, so as to make such appointments optional.

The law relating to the licensing of peddlers has been amended so as to require county courts to fix a license fee of from $10 to $50 per quarter. Until such fees have been fixed, a fee of $50 is to be charged. The act does not apply to the peddling of products of this state nor to peddling in cities which are authorized to collect fees from peddlers.

By a recent act every incorporated city or town in Oregon is authorized to establish and maintain a public library, and the city council of said cities or towns is authorized to levy a tax at any rate deemed advisable, upon all property of the city, to maintain a library.

The State Board of Medical Examiners will hereafter admit physicians licensed in other states to practice in this state, provided that the laws of the state from which the applicant comes extend the same credit to licenses in Oregon.

Notice To Taxpayers.

The 1902 assessment rolls for Lane County, Oregon, will be opened for the collection of taxes on Monday, March 2nd, 1903. There will be a 3 per cent rebate given on all taxes paid in full previous to March 15th. One half of any tax may be paid at any date before April 6th and if so paid the remaining one half may be paid any date before October 5th, without penalty or interest. In case a tax or the first one half is not paid before April 6th the law requires a 10 per cent penalty and 12 per cent interest to be added to such tax until paid. Letters of inquiry concerning taxes will receive our prompt attention.

FRED ESK, Sheriff and tax collector of Lane County, Oregon.

READ IT THROUGH.

"Would Spoil This Story to Tell it in the Headlines."

To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "over true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon of Meigs Station, Va. had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was." For sale by Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove; Lyons & Applegate, Drain.

CURES SCIATIC RHEUMATISM.

Mr. A. E. Simpson, 609 Craig St., Knoxville, Tenn., writes, June 10th, 1899: "I have been trying the baths of Hot Springs, Ark., for sciatic rheumatism, but I get more relief from Ballard's Snow Liniment than any medicine or anything I have ever tried. Enclosed find postoffice order for $1.00. Send me a large bottle by Southern express." Sold by New Era Drug Store.

DIVIDE ITEMS.

March 3, 1903. Last Saturday night the freight train passing south in the night had a smash-up near the rock quarry. One car loaded with lumber was dinged on the upper side of the track, while the trucks fell on the other side. Besides the loss of the car several rails were broken and bent, about a hundred the broken and a lot of track torn up. Cause unknown. No one injured or killed.

School began Monday under the charge of Mr. L. M. Tucker, although the attendance will be small for awhile on account of sickness of all kinds, which still continues.

An effort will be made to start a singing school here shortly.

The roads are drying up wonderfully fast these days.

Mr. Gray, of Silk Creek, was in this neighborhood last week.

We hear that a sawmill will be built and be in running operation in a short time by Smith, Simpson & Co., Mr. E. F. Smith to be manager.

THE BENEFIT OF CHANGE.

We like house plants. We need a change of soil now and then—to be replanted. New scenes, new experiences, new surroundings—a change of climate, dry air instead of moisture, sunshine in place of cloud. This is sometimes essential to health. There are conditions near at hand that are better than European offer. Take a month or two in California. Plant yourself for a time where there are no irritations, where the hotel is beyond criticism, the landscape pleasing, and where warm sunny weather invites to walks and drives. Pure and dry air, and the increased electric influences of sunshine are vastly helpful.

You can make this trip at very little expense, and enjoy a ride over the scenic Siskiyou and Shasta mountains, which, at this time of the year with their snow covered peaks, are unsurpassed for their grandeur.

For complete information regarding rates, points of interest and delightful hotels in California, address W. E. COMAN, General Passenger Agent, S. P. Co., Portland, Oregon.

School Notes.

Report for February: Total enrollment for year, 420; number on roll for February, 325; average number belonging for February, 311; average daily attendance, 293; number days attendance, 5493; number days absence, 307; number cases tardy, 119.

Sickness has made the attendance very irregular and has interfered with the work to a great degree.

The teachers and pupils wish to thank the patrons for their attendance at the concert given last Saturday night; also to those helping on the program, and for the kindness of Mr. Richardson for the free use of his piano.

State Supt. J. H. Ackerman will lecture here on Friday evening, April 10th, and Hon. B. F. Mulkey on the evening of the 11th. Watch for programme.

Card Of Thanks.

Words cannot express the gratitude I feel toward Mr. J. W. Baker's family for their many kind acts and patience during my illness, and especially Mrs. Baker and Robie, for their diligent watchfulness over me by day and night. Also to Dr. Hosmer for his medical assistance.

Miss. OMAH ROBINSON.

NEEDHAM'S PIANOS

We Needham because musicians Needham and must have them, and everyone that wants a good piano, a sweet toned piano, an artistic piano, a durable piano, they find it under the name of NEEDHAM. Arthur Frazer says the Needham has as good action as he has ever used, and Mr. Page, the baritone soloist, says the tone is exquisite, and has placed an order with us for one to be delivered at his home in Philadelphia. In fact the Needham has no rival and that is why we have just shipped a car load from the factory, and our last lot is a lot of beauties of new and artistic designs.
