

FROM AROUND THE "POND"

John Graber, one of Bohemia's thirty miners, has returned from a seven month visit with his father and mother in Switzerland. Thirteen years ago Godfrey and John Graber came from their Switzerland home to this country. About eight years ago they commenced mining in Bohemia having become interested in the Veauville mine, which they sold for a handsome price a year ago to F. J. Hard, of the Oregon Mining Exchange. The boys put in about seven years in association with their partner Albert Zinkler. During this time they made extensive development work piling up many tons of ore on the dump, blocking out many more tons, and mining some at the Stocks and Harlow mill. When the boys sold out last year they determined to visit their father and mother in the old country, and accordingly started for their birthland last August. They were young boys when they left the old home, returning 13 years afterwards, strong and hardy men just reaching the prime of life. For four of the years following the old folks, they wrote them that they "might visit home during the winter," but set no date. When they arrived there they so timed it that they reached the parental roof in the evening. They asked for a night's lodging, and the preparation for the stranger guests was immediately commenced. The old mother eyed the boys for a little while, and then a tear came into the old eyes, and she said "you can't fool me any longer, you are Godfrey and Johnny". The boys have had a splendid visit with the old folks, and John returns now while Godfrey will come on later in the season. The many friends of the boys will be pleased to see them home.

The postmaster at Cottage Grove has received from the McKinley National Memorial Association a limited supply of the certificates which have been prepared for distribution to contributors to the monument fund as souvenirs of their participation in that great enterprise. The certificate is a beautiful work of art on which is given an excellent reproduction of Mrs. McKinley's favorite likeness, the one which she carried with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and of the White House. The wording below the illustration is as follows: "This certificate is given to the undersigned for the sum of $1.00, which has been contributed to the fund for the erection of the national memorial at Canton, Ohio, in honor of William McKinley." The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, the great home of Tiffany & Co., New York, being the designer and manufacturer. The supply in the hands of the postmaster is a portion of the first edition of the certificates and is sent here to enable those who have not as yet contributed to do so. Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will receive souvenirs direct from the office of the association or through local committees.

RESPONSIBLE POSITION.—F. H. Rosenberg, the popular bookkeeper of the Pacific Timber Co., has received a position of which he is justly proud. Mr. Rosenberg has been in the employ of Messrs. Alexander & Campbell, of the Pacific Timber Co., for four years as the head bookkeeper, and since the head office of the company was opened in this city over a year ago, the burden of the clerical work has fallen upon him. Owing to the company's expanded business, now representing some eight incorporated companies it was found necessary to create the office of auditor, and as before stated the honor fell to Mr. Rosenberg. The Pacific Timber Co. is to be congratulated upon its success and upon its rapid expansion in business circles at home and abroad, and Mr. Rosenberg is to be congratulated in having proven himself not only "worthy of his hire," but of the promotion tendered him April 1st. The companies coming under his official gaze are: Pacific Timber Co., Coast Fork Timber Co., Drain Lumber Co., Roseburg Lumber Co., Cottage Grove Engineering Co., Pacific Cedar Shingle Co., Granddahl Automatic Block Co., and Double Lock-Corner Box Co.

LIKES THIS SECTION.—"I have traveled through the best of it on my western trip, with my eyes open, and I can conscientiously say that this section of Oregon surpasses any locality I have visited." This is what T. W. Hahn, of Wisconsin, who has been visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Len, has to say of this section of Oregon. Mr. Hahn, with his family, left Wednesday for southern points. He will visit California before returning home. He expects to return here by the middle of the season and confidently expects to bring others with him.

WILL UNIFORM.—The C. M. A. Band of this city has decided to purchase uniforms and with this in view are circulating a subscription among the business men of the town. In consideration of the assistance rendered them the boys propose to give a series of free concerts on the streets as soon as the weather is favorable.

WILL RAISE THE BRIDGES.—Surveyor A. B. Woods, of the O. & S. E. Ry., has completed arrangements to raise the railroad bridges across Row river and Mosby. Row river bridges will be raised three feet, and the Mosby creek bridge two feet. The work will be under the foremanship of Jas. Jennings.

GOOD SALE.—Wm. Landress sold 5 acres of land this week to Robt. Griffin and James Potts for $1000, $200 per acre. The tract lies about 100 rods east of the S. P. depot at the foot of the hill and extends out to the main road. It is a splendid tract and will make fine residence property.

MILITARY OPENING.—A beautiful display of hats, trimmings and all classes of high grade millinery goods at Miss Bartels Millinery Store, Saturday is the spring opening day and every lady in Cottage Grove and vicinity is cordially invited to attend and see the stylish hats on display.

SPLENDID ORE.—Over a hundred pounds of the rich galena and copper ore from the Le Roy was brought in this week. It is as fine ore as was ever taken out of a mine. The work is going steadily on but as yet the width of the ledge is not determined.

BROKE HIS LEG.—The son of Felix Curran had the misfortune to break his right leg just above the ankle last Friday afternoon, while hauling piling. Dr. Job was called and reduced the fracture, and at last accounts Mr. Curran was doing nicely.

This should effectively put to rest all disquieting rumors about Oregon's senior senator. It should also be a merited rebuke to the yellow press that has not only tried to put Senator Mitchell in the grave but further freshly discussed his successor.—Eugene Register.

Deceased was one of Lane county's old and respected pioneers, having crossed the plains with his parents in 1833. Since 1857 Mr. Wingard has been a resident of Lane county. He was unmarried and leaves one brother, Martin Wingard, and two sisters, Ellen Wingard and Mrs. P. F. Davis, all of Loraine. The remains were laid to rest in the Grange cemetery at Loraine.

CAREY, MARINDA—On March 31, 1903, at the family home in this city, the beloved wife of Robert Carey.
Marinda Veatch was born July 24, 1839 in White county, Illinois. Two brothers and two sisters survive her, S. Veatch, of Jasper, Mo., and G. C. Veatch, of Enfield, Ill., Jane Bailey, of Enfield, Ill., and Adeline Mount, of this city.

Deceased came to Oregon with her sister Mrs. Mount in 1885, and was married to Robt. Carey July 7, 1890. Deceased has been a Christian since her thirteenth year, of Presbyterian faith although she was not a member of the church. Besides her husband and stepson she leaves a large circle of friends who grieve her departure.

CONGRESSMAN'S SALARY.
Theoretically a congressman gets $5,000 a year. But scores of congressmen make their wives their secretaries, and by saving their mileage by riding on passes and husbanding their stationery allowance, manage to get $7,500 a year. By living as simply as possible, without beingiggardly, a congressman and his wife can get along and save a little money on this. But they cannot go even into the outer fringe of what is called official society. They must not expect to dine out frequently or to entertain even their visiting constituents. And there is no doubt that social influence is interlocked with political influence in congress, and the member who saves anything from his salary must be content to sacrifice some of his prestige; if he has none to sacrifice, he is justified in saying what money he can save. It will do no good to raise the congressman's salary, for that would merely raise the standard of living. Nothing can help the unknown member. He is the man with the five talents. No system of government was ever devised and no scheme of living can be adopted which is based on consideration for the incompetents. And yet they are in the vine and hopeless majority. And in the house of representatives, where the majority is supposed to rule, it doesn't.—W. A. White in Saturday Evening Post.

Hon. Henry W. Corbett, one of the best known public men of the northwest and of the State of Oregon, with which his name has been closely identified for a lifetime, died Tuesday morning. Mr. Corbett's death at this time was unexpected. The immediate cause was heart failure. He was conscious to the last and expired peacefully, before relatives outside of the household could be summoned. The end came at a quarter to 7 a. m. Telegram.
