PREACHERS ARE LAZY SAYS BISHOP FOWLER.

[Philadelphia North American.]

In his address before the New Jersey Methodist conference Bishop Fowler took occasion to give some advice to old as well as young men in the ministry.

"You are called to preach, not gabble or talk twaddle," he declared, with emphasis. You can't preach extemporized truck on Sunday that will combat sin for an entire week. If you are only to be exhorters you had better go 'way back and sit down.' You must do more than simply exhort. You must feed your people with ideas. They read the best literature. Their heads are filled with it. Don't you read secular papers too much. Some religious papers if pays to read.

"If you haven't a good wife, get one with good common sense. Don't marry her because she's religious. A religious woman might backside. Don't you allow your sermon to be like a squab, biggest when born. Strike out the big words. It is in them that little ideas are buried. When you reach a vacum, just swing your arms and shout and thoughts will come. The greatest trouble is, our Methodist ministers are lazy. None of you like that, but it is true. No one has a better chance to be lazy except the presiding elder or bishops. Anybody who has religion and good legs can make a good pastor. Be sanctified, not crankified."

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—nay, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c at New Era Drug Store.

PIANOS.

Now that we are turning our attention greatly to the mineral smelting enterprise, of which you see an account in this paper, it is our intention to close out a lot of our stock of goods now on hand at greatly reduced prices. But at the same time while I am in the east there will be a competent man, whose name will appear hereafter, to attend to my business. So many people are turning their attention to the wonderful Needham piano that it is hard for us to keep up the stock of these goods.
