COMPLIMENT TO COTTAGE GROVE—
On May 15th the Lane county eamps of the Woodmen of the World will meet in Eugene, and the celebration that is outlined is said to eclipse anything of the kind yet executed in this section of Oregon. They will have a class of over 200 to initiate, and no end of over 200 to initiate, and no end of over 200 to initiate. have a class of over 200 to hitlate, and no end of preparations are being perfected in the matter of sports, etc., to make it a day long to be remembered. The Cottage Grove camp is justly proud of the honor conferred upon it in the election of F. H. Rosenberg to the office of presiding consul commander of the big log rolling. Mr. Rosenberg is at the present consul commander of the local lodge, and is one of the most enthusiastic all-round lodge men in the county. He will fill the high position assigned to him with credit to himself, his local lodge and to the state camp

FOR IMMIGRATION.

For Immigration.—
Watter Kyler, of Corning, Mo. representing the Western Immigration Bureau, arrived in this city Tuesday leaving for southern points Westers day afternoon. Mr. Kyler is very greatly impressed with Oregon, particularly the valley and southern points. He is working in the interest of the Harriman lines, and has already been instrumental in bringing many people to Oregon. He carries a camera with him and is taking views to assist him in presenting Oregon as it really is to those interested in seeking western homes. He is a conservative, wide homes. He is a conservative, wide awake gentleman and no doubt will-be instrumental in bringing a goodly number of people to this section.

GONE TO TENNIOSCIC:-

According to previous announcements and arrangements Rev I. b. Beck and family took their departure for Tennessee on the late Tuesday night train going via San Francisco, where they will spend one or two days visiting before journeying on to their former home in the sunny south. Some dozen or more of their friends remained up with them and assisted the family and numerous lunch baskets into comfortable places abourd and after a very hasty farewell hastened to alight on the platform and watch the long train disappear bearing with it one of respected families of Cottage Grove.

THE GLENWOOD.

The GLENWOOD.—
The thenwood Mining Co, is now perfecting arrangements for the immediate development of the company's holdings in Bohemia. Among other important measures now taken up by the company, the management has this week left at the Nugget office the copy for a neat and attractive prospectus, which will be issued the coming week. The company is composed of several of the most responsible men of this section, and the property owned by the corporation has long since been conceded to be one of the most promising in the diggings.

Thurst Weel, Or The District.— THINKS WELL OF THE DISTRICT.

D. A. Hendricks, of Libby, Mont., who has been spending several weeks in this city, returned home last. Thursday, While here Mr. Hendricks, in company with T. H. Supple, made an extended visit to Bohemia, where they examined several mining properties. Mr. Hendricks expresses himself highly pleased with the district and states that it is bound to make one of the best in the United States. He returns home with the expectation of interesting some Montana people, and will probably be on Bohemia ground again in the near family.

Some one played sad havoe with the canine family in Cottage Grove Tuesday night by poisoning several pleces of beef and throwing them along water street where, of course, the hungry curs found them and proceeded to make a meal with the result of six dend and several more missing. A little bitter feeling existed among the owners of the dogs and perhaps the guilty party will not make himself, known for a few days at any rate. Still there seems to be a good supply of dogs left.
