FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1903.

Cottage Grove is fast nearing the proportions of a thriving little city. The growth of the town during the past few years has gone beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. It is due to several causes. First we have one of the best locations. It is also a healthy locality. We have all kinds of milling interests. Bohemia Mining district is at our very door. We have a progressive set of business men. We have splendid real estate, a goodly portion of which can be purchased on a basis of real value, notwithstanding the fact that the present outlook is an incentive for greatly increased prices. In view of these conditions we must remember that much depends upon us as individual citizens, also upon the city government. There are several things that should be attended to, the sooner the better. For instance, the streets should be cleaned, the back yards and alleys should have the attention of the city authorities and the authorities should be backed up by the individual property owners. The council should, if it is possible, take up the matter of officially naming the streets and numbering them. Some of the names now clinging to the several streets might be changed with perfect propriety, but at any rate, let us officially declare the names of those already named and give names to those that have not been named. It will not be a very heavy official act, financially, and will be of great benefit to everyone concerned. The street numbering will be a trifle more expensive, but it will be a great benefit to the town. Let us get into the front rank of progress.

While no republican has or will have a word against Mr. Reames, the democratic candidate for congress from this district, so far as Mr. Reames personally is concerned, it should be borne in mind by all that it is the duty of republicans to elect a republican to office, thus sustaining the administration. We cannot afford to elect a democrat. It would be a direct insult to the administration. We have another reason—one of the best on earth—why Mr. Hermann should be returned to congress, and why Mr. Reames should not be sent there at the present time. Mr. Hermann is in touch with the affairs that will come under his official notice. He knows the ins and outs, has an extended acquaintance at Washington, and by his past record we know that he is amply able to represent this district, and in fact all Oregon. He is not only able but he has always been found a worker, always at his post of duty. Admitting that Mr. Reames has the native ability, even his friends must admit that he has not had the experience. At the present time, in the face of the Lewis and Clark exposition, and many other issues of great moment to Oregon and the Pacific coast we cannot afford to take chances in sending a new man to congress when we have an old and tried war horse, in the very prime of his ability, ready to take up the congressional cudgel.

The Nugget respectfully calls the property owners attention to the small fire which recently occurred in West Cottage Grove, not that it was an important fire, but that it is a warning to property owners and a forerunner of what may happen. We are now nearing the dry season. There are many buildings in this city that have more or less moss on the roofs. If a spark drops upon a moss-covered roof, fire is the result, and it just as apt to be a disastrous fire as one of no importance, hence this hint. It would be a splendid idea to examine the roofs of your buildings and hasten to clear the shingles of all foreign substance.

WOODMEN CELEBRATE.

Bohemia Camp, Woodmen of the World To Have a Great Jubilee at Eugene, on the 15th of May—Public Initiation of New Members.

200 CANDIDATES NOW ON LIST.

Bohemia Camp, Woodmen of the World was visited Saturday evening by Mr. Geo. K. Rogers, state organizer of the order, who is now making his headquarters in Eugene in the interest of the great "log rolling" which will be held there on May 15th. The Local Circle Women of Woodcraft also took part in the reception which was one of the most pleasant events ever given under the joint auspices of Cottage Grove branches of Perfected Woodcraft.

Present membership 347,000.

After an exceptionally fine program Consul Commander F. H. Rosenberg introduced Mr. Rogers who gave one of the splendid fraternal addresses for which he is noted. He told of the enthusiastic efforts of the "choppers" and "choppersesses" all over the country in the forthcoming celebration. Briefly he said that the eleven camps of Lane county had started out five weeks ago to obtain 200 candidates, to be initiated in one class in Eugene on May 15th next. A joint committee composed of representatives of all the Lane county camps was appointed to take charge of the affair. The success which has attended their efforts has been simply phenomenal. Mr. Rogers states that up to last Friday the local camps had received 149 applications and that they were getting forty a week. As the work progressed the boys became enthused with the idea, until now it is proposed to make it a great public jubilee occasion. With this object in view the committee has arranged to have the city lavishly decorated, for an elaborate series of open air and free games and sports, for an immense parade, and has invited Gov. Chamberlain and Senators Fulton and Mitchell to participate. The parade promises to excel anything Eugene has ever had. All features for it have not been arranged, but thus far it can be positively stated that it will be led by a platoon of police, will have two brass bands, seven floats, three companies of the Uniform Rank Woodmen of the World, several display figures from distant camps and between eight hundred and one thousand members of the order.

The figures 1-9-0-5 on the roots of the stump is in compliment to the Lewis & Clark Fair by the Oregon Woodmen.

The railroad company has taken cognizance of the importance of the event and has made one and one-third round trip rates for the occasion.

Bohemia camp has been exceptionally highly honored by having had chosen Mr. F. H. Rosenberg as the presiding officer at the great 200 class initiation which will take place in the armory in Eugene on the evening of May 15. This camp will take down several candidates and will place an immense ax nearly twenty feet long in the parade.

Cottage Grove Circle Women of Woodcraft has also been invited to take part and they will attend "to a man."

The barn being built by the Miller Bros. on the west side is nearing completion and will be quite an addition to the west side.

The Misses Newland have taken the agency for the Chas. A. Stevens & Co., Chicago, ladies tailor made clothing and invite the ladies of Cottage Grove to call and see the fine line of samples of dress goods, quality the best and satisfaction guaranteed.

A SENSELESS QUARREL.

Much bad blood appears to be running now between the two worthy papers of Eugene—the Register and Guard. We are not quite sure whether there is any real "feeling" in the matter or whether it is an advertising dodge agreed to by the management of both papers. If two private firms would get into a mess of that kind and resort to the press to express their opinion one of the other, after a hearing on both sides had been published, the newspaper boys would mutually agree to "cut it out," on the ground that it was a scheme to get cheap advertising. It would be just as interesting to the public if our 140 county seat papers could adopt the method in their own trouble. The columns of either paper are too valuable to be filled with such nonsense. Better fill 'em up with patent medicine ads, boys, or do something for the good of the republican party—for instance—publish one of Billy J's old silver speeches. To be honest, boys, either of you have good papers of which you can well be proud. Just keep a-pounding away, and a-rollin' up more subscriptions. A subscription or two won't make or break either of "you'ns". You have a more interesting subject than that even, to quarrel about—politics for instance. If that subject is too stale, you editors just get your feet under your respective editorial table and grind out a great massive glob of thunks on how to make Eugene a city of 15,000 inhabitants, and to demonstrate to the great flood of immigration coming into the state that Lane is the best county in the state—then thy angry brow will clear and the gleam of ugliness that must certainly be glistening in thy eyes will be cleared away by happy smiles as you gaze on the bloated subscription list of both "uv yes". Go way will ye!

WALKS WITHOUT CRUTCHES.
I was much afflicted with sciatic, writes Ed C. Nud, lowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at New Era Drug Store.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Fraternal Aid Association Elects W. F. Shanafelt Delegate to the National Convention.

The Oregon State Convention of the Fraternal Aid Association met at Cottage Grove April 16, 1903, for the purpose of electing a delegate to the national and general council of the order, to be held at Topeka, Kan., on May 12th. The Convention organized by electing Sarah F. Wright delegate from the Eugene council as president and W. F. Shanafelt as secretary. Nominations for delegates to national and general council were then declared in order. W. F. Shanafelt was unanimously elected and Sarah F. Wright, of Eugene was elected as alternate. The State Convention for Washington was held at Seattle. The F. A. A. was organized in Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 14, 1890, since which time it has disbursed over $1,500,000 to its beneficiaries. It has a membership extending over nearly every state and territory and some foreign countries. The two largest councils are located at Lawrence and Wichita, Kan., each of which have nearly 1000 members. The Fraternal Aid Association has made a selection that could not have been improved upon and if each district organization throughout the United States selects a genial, good natured and enterprising a delegate as the one going from Cottage Grove, then it would be well worth the while of anyone who desires to enjoy the sunshine of human happiness, to attend the National Convention of Fraternal Aid Association at Topeka, Kansas, on May 12, 1903.

NEEDHAM PIANOS

THE BEST AND MUCH THE BEST

The frequent sale of small instruments of late is a surprise for this time of the year. Price and quality is what counts when selling goods, and you can always get the best goods for the least money at T. K. Richardson's.

We have on hand a few second hand pianos, which we are going to close out at a sacrifice, to make room for our next carload. We have only four pianos of our last carload left. The Needham sells itself at sight and sound. Needham pianos, the best and only the best. T. K. Richardson.
