

That Tired Feeling

is a Common Spring Trouble. It's a sign that the blood is deficient in vitality, just as pimples and other eruptions are signs that the blood is impure.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove it, give new life, new courage, strength and animation. They cleanse the blood and clear the complexion.

Accept no substitute. "I felt tired all the time and could not sleep. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a while I could sleep well and the tired feeling had gone. This great medicine has also cured me of eczema." Mas. C. M. Rior, Grand, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

A new and revised edition of Stephen Paget's "Experiments on Anticars," with an introduction by Lord Liseter, is published by the Messrs. Putnam.

J. A. Hammetton, of London, is about to publish a volume of Stevonians, to consist of extracts from magazines and other periodicals relating to Stevonians.

It has become known that Andrew C. Wheeler (Nym Crinkie), who recently died on his farm in Rockland County, was the "J. P. M." whose striking essays and books have had a large popularity in these latter years.

Ralph Fletcher Seymour is the publisher of "Ceres and Persephone," a child play by Miss Paul Menefee. The Demeter myth is retold for children in simple lyrical dialogue and Mr. Lang's translation of the "Hymn to Demeter" is appended.

Of middle height, white-haired and ruddy-faced, Jules Verne looks like a sea captain who is spending the autumn of a well-filled life on shore.

Prof. John Ward Stimson's long expected work on art and the philosophy of beauty, "The Gate Beautiful," is at last announced for early publication by Albert Brandt, of Trenton, N. J. It will be a quarto of 420 pages and will contain several thousand illustrations and two color charts, one being printed in twenty four colors.

Paul Laurence Dunbar, author of "Lyrics of Lowly Life," "Poems of Cabin and Field," etc., has just read the proofs of a new volume of poems which will be a companion to his "Lyrics of Lowly Life" and "Lyrics of the Heart'side." For the most part it is made up of dialect pieces and will bear the title "Lyrics of Love and Laughter."

It is said that the novel by John D. Barry entitled "A Daughter of Theseis," which L. C. Page & Co. have in press, is one of the few accurate stories of American stage conditions that has ever been written. Mr. Barry's stories of theatrical life have already been highly praised by the reviewers, among others by William Archer, the leading dramatic critic of England.

Miss Mary Johnston's new romance love story, "Sir Mortimer," will follow Mrs. Humphry Ward's "Lady Rose's Daughter" in Harper's Magazine. The scenes of the story are laid in England at the court of Queen Elizabeth and in the officer in her Majesty's miniature navy.

"David Harum" has passed into its one hundred and first edition, which Messrs. D. Appleton & Co. issued immediately after the holidays. In the matter of popularity expressed in numbers it now takes first rank in American fiction, "Ben Hur" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" being its only rivals. The book's first century of editions was celebrated in October last with an issue of 10,000 copies, printed on a special paper in a special binding. The new edition will appear in the family yellow cover, with full-page illustrations by Clinehurst.

He No-need Clothes. A Western Senator brought to the Capitol a good story about Minister Bowen, who had the minister himself recently told at a dinner.

"I was asked some days after I arrived here in Washington," said Mr. Bowen, "why I had stuck so closely to my rooms at the hotel and not showed myself around town."

"The only reply was a rather painful one," but, nevertheless, fully truthful. It was because "I hadn't the clothes."

Thereupon Bowen told how he had been commissioned to hasten North suddenly and without opportunity to provide himself with the heavier wearing apparel necessary for residence in a cold climate. As soon as he reached town he put a local tailor to work upon an outfit.

The harshness of the situation was that Mr. Bowen had ordered some raincoat across the Atlantic in a British bottom, which was one of the very first ships to be held up by the blockading fleet of the allies. There was no help for it, and Mr. Bowen's London clothes, such as are necessary for proper appearance in polite society, are still somewhere in South America. He had reason, therefore, for being personally grateful when the blockade was raised and his clothes had an opportunity to go forward to Caracas—Washington Post.

An Accommodating Neighbor.

The following conversation of two young ladies was overheard a few nights ago in a Fifth avenue electric car, reports the New York Times:

"Do you know, I think she is absolutely the meanest woman I ever knew?"

"Why, what is the matter with her?"

"Matter? Why, everything. She does nothing but borrow from morning to night. You know. She has the apartment just across the hall from us, and the day she moved in she started by borrowing an egg from mother. The next day she borrowed a cup of sugar, and since that time she has borrowed everything from a place of butter to the baby carriage, and has never made any attempt to return a single thing. I have often told mother that I was going to borrow some of the things back, but she has always forbidden us. Last night, however, I had to write some letters, and I had no ink. It was raining very hard, and mother was out, so I received that rather than go out in the rain I would disengage orders and ask our neighbor to lend me a few ink. I asked her, and what do you think she said? 'I haven't any ink, but I'll let you take my shoe polish. It is just as good. It dries quickly, but you can write just as well with it.' Oh, I never met a meaner woman in my life!"

Beautiful Marks of Maple. Nobody seems to know what cause it is which produces those delicate and beautiful lines in maple, known as bird's-eye. Some people think they are produced by the hundreds of little scratches which shoot out over the trunk of the tree as soon as a clearing is made around it. Export timbermen say that it is not the case. The only way to tell a bird's-eye maple tree is to cut it. There are no outward signs by which one can judge. The Railroad Gazette tells a story of the late George M. Fullman. Many years ago he was offered a mahogany log for $3,000, to be cut into veneers. It was supposed to be a very fine piece of wood, but this could only be determined by cutting it. He declined the offer, but agreed to take the log out into veneers for what it was worth. The owner had it sawed and was paid $7,000 for his veneers. Any one who can discover the secret of determining the interior nature of wood from the outside will have a fortune.

Rags-Actly. "I see," said the telegraph editor, "that a woman in New York has sued her husband for divorce because he pulled her hair out."

"And she probably wants to get out of the house," remarked the stock buroist.

"Did she pull him—"

"Her name wasn't O'mny, anyhow," said the copy writer; "that's the worst joke ever hatched."

"Say, you fellows, drop that shell game and get to work" growled the fellow that fixes the salaries. And at once more quiet reigned.—Baltimore News.

No Bath, No Wife. Among the Turks bath money forms an item in every marriage contract, the husband engaging to allow his wife a certain sum for bathing purposes. Should it be withheld she has only to go before the cad and turn her alphas upside down, and if the claim is not met then redressed it is ground for a divorce.

Taking No Chances. "Some one was telling me that parlor matches aren't legal any more," said Marmaduke.

"Let's go into the sitting room," said Allee, hastily leading the way.—New York Sun.

"Is that so?"

"He's even willing to have it come off by cable."

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some sensible advice to women passing through this trying period.

The painful and annoying symptoms experienced by most women at this period of life are easily overcome by Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. It is especially designed to meet the needs of woman's system at the trying time of change of life.

It is no exaggeration to state that Mrs. Finkham has over 5000 letters like the following proving the great value of her medicine at such times. "I wish to thank Mrs. Finkham for what her medicine has done for me. My trouble was change of life. Four years ago my health began to fail, my head began to grow dizzy, my eyes pained me, and at times it seemed as if my back would fall off. Had terrible pains across the kidneys. Hot flashes were very frequent and trying. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken six bottles of it and am today free from those troubles. I cannot speak in high enough terms of the medicine. I recommend it to all and wish every suffering woman would give it a trial."—Mrs. H. B. Ross, 88 Montclair Ave., Roseland, Mass.—$25.00 per full set of bottles of this letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Easily Accounted For. "Lillian," said a certain little girl's mamma, "there were three pieces of cake in the parlor and now there is only one. How did that happen?"

"Well," said the girl, her eyes wide open with excitement, "it was so dark in there I didn't see the other piece."

The Only Thing Wanted. Mrs. Noorich—Isn't it grand to ride in your own carriage? Mr. Noorich—Yes, but I'd enjoy it more if I could stand on the sidewalk and see myself ride by.—Brooklyn Life.

No Danger. "Do you think there is any danger of America being dominated by Europe?"

"No, sir," answered Mr. Meekton, "an extraordinary emphasis, not as long as eminent Europeans continue to marry American girls."—Washington Star.

RHEUMATISM

ACUTE AND CHRONIC, MUSCULAR, MERCURIAL, ARTICULAR AND INFLAMMATORY.

Some people have been suffering from Rheumatism so long that they can scarcely remember the time when they were entirely free from an ache or pain, and have long since forgotten the joys of a painless existence. They are at the mercy of every ill wind and their misery is aggravated by exposure to cold or sudden changes in the temperature. They become walking barometers and most accurate in weather predictions, the increasing pains in muscles and joints foretelling the approaching storm or the coming of bad weather. It is from these constant sufferings that the great army of rheumatic cripples is recruited. Their bodies are worn out by the incessant pains and the joints become so stiffened and bent that they are at last compelled to give up or hobble about on crutches.

Nobody ever outlived Rheumatism; the disease never loosens its grip or leaves of its own accord, but must be driven out by intelligent and persistent treatment through the blood, for Rheumatism of every variety and form is caused by an over acid condition of the blood, and the deposit in muscles, joints and nerves of corrosive poisons and gritty particles, and it is these irritating substances that produce the inflammation, swelling, and pains, which last as long as the blood remains in this sour and acid state.

To cure Rheumatism permanently the blood must be purified and invigorated, and no other remedy does this so well as S. S. S. It refreshes and restores to the thin acid blood its natural purity and health-sustaining properties. And when strong, rich blood is again circulating through the body the acid poisons and irritating so well or so promptly as S. S. S. It blood is nourishing and health-sustaining, matter are washed out of the muscles and joints, and the pains at once cease and Rheumatism is a thing of the past. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine and does not damage the stomach like the strong mineral remedies, but builds up the general health, increases the appetite and tones up the digestion.

Through our Medical Department we will receive helpful advice from Physicians of experience and skill without charge. Write us fully about your case.

An Interesting Letter Concerning Peruna.

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Peruna. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Peruna is a reliable family medicine."

Adla Brittain, of Sakiton, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna."—Adla Brittain, if you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
