

NLY A FARMER'S DAUGHTER.

ByMRS. FORRESTER.

to be happy in this world, but to go on longing keeniy after something we think happiness, and when we at last strain to it, to find we have lost the desire for

CHAPTER VIII.

CHAPTER VIII.
All Lady Grace Parquhar's guests had arrived, save one. That one was Wintred Eyre. On the morning of the day on which she and her cousin were to have appeared at Endon Vale, a letter came to Lady Grace, saying that Madame de Moutelles was seriously II with an at-

Miss Champlon, of course, arrived all to Endon Vale with her cousin had been superfluous to enter into a few particulars concerning them. Lord Harold Erakhae has already been mentioned; so we will begin with Mr. Francia Clayton, on his return to England, looking very thin and worn, he was made quite a hero of by all the women, and looked his part extremely well.

I suppose that if two men from the opposite poles had been brought together fered more essentially than Col. d'Agul-iar and Mr. Clayton. One was generous in heart and mind, chivairous to women.

under one roof, they could not have not leave her

It, and that it gives us no pleasure?"

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued.)

And Fenner, trembling and cringing Lady Grace assented, and Winitred like a betaten spaniel, seat quickly out.

Errol returned to his uriting (abbs, un.)

Errol returned to his writing table, and second moved a letter to Wintred Egre. He had served her move would she be moved disposed to took leniently on her offense, and tet her love conquer for would anly pride. "I will at least make the trial hefore I go," he said to himself, and then he took up his pen and wrote thus:

"I inclose you a note. Miss Egre, from the man Fenner. You will see by that that he engages to discontinue his an moysness of you, and to leave you facture free and minimiselved. And now before I leave England on my long voy age, I proy of you to hear the appeal of my hearst to yours. Windred, I live you with all my and, with the truest, sleep set strength of which passion is capable, and I come to your in declide in future. The come to you in declide in future from and I come to your in declide in future. My happiness, my misery, are in your longing keenly after something we think and I come to you in decide no future.

My happiness, my misery, are in your hands. It is for you to sead my perfect bliss by consenting to become my cheristical wite, or to punish a fault born of love, and to condemn me to a lifelong sorrow, by driving me away from the anashma of your presence. Do not decide healthy, I shall not leave this for a week, and if your anaster is what I scarcely date to whall not leave this for a week, and it your answer is what I scoreely dare to hope it will be, I shall not leave at all. If you cannot find it in your gentle, womanly heart to forgive me. I shall go out that the world and seek to forget the only woman in the world I ever really loved.

When Win)fred broke the seal, and read Errol's letter, her first emotion was one of intense relief. Then, reading the avowal of Errol's love, for a moment her heart refented to him, and a said, fond recollec-tion of the bundsone here of her past worship made the rears start into her worship made the trans start into eyes. Then her quick pride came to the reacuse she tore the letter to atoms and three them from her. "I will never for give him "never!" she cried, passionately; and then she thought what that letter would have been to her if it had come a

If wanted but one day to the comple-tion of the week, when Arthur La Mar-then of the week, when Arinar as any chant rushed into Errol's room.

"My dear Errol," he exclaimed, "what is this I hear about your leaving the Caurt? It surely is not true?"
"My dear fellow," said Errol gently, "I cannot tell whether I am going or not. You shall know to morrow. I am wait-ing for my vertice, and if it is adverse to me I shall go away, and ity to forget my me I shall go away, and try to forget my

Two days after Errol and to La Mar-

"It's all over, and I'm going. Don't ask me any questions, old fellow-I'm hard hit." action of his on record; and yet he passed Before Mr. Hastings left the Court he muster in society, because he post a certain degree of manner, and be made his friend promise to play host there in the shouting season during his absence; and on the last day of August he was standing on the deck of his beau-tiful yacht Genone booking down into the blue waters of the Mediterranean. His thoughts were full of tenderness to the woman who had secreted him.

"She is right," he sold, "but I think, if beast that he had never made any woman an offer of marriage, she had known how I loved her, she would have found it in her heart to forword have and was a great favorite with give me.

A fortuight inter Lady Grace Farquhar, by dist of subtle diplomacy, managed to secure what she had for some time past set her heart upon, and that was to prac-tically adopt Winitred Eyre as her protreatly adopt Wintired toyer and to tree, if not as a doughter. She was very anxions that Winifred should have an opportunity of being introduced to society and the coming shooting season at Bir Claxton's estate. Endon Vale seemed to afford Lady Grace the opportunity. Among those who would be present for the shooting, her nephew, Lord Harold Erskine, who was quite taken with Flora the shooting, her nephew, Lord Harold the shooting, her nephew, Lord Harold Erskine, who was quite taken with thora off with him, and subsequently account of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him, and subsequently account of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, subsequently account of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment. Yes, it's a pay, of with him to India with his regiment.

Hurst Manor, the home of the Champions, and while there deficately. Yet plainly insinuated to Sir Howard and to Mrs. Champion that unless Mrs. Champion and Flora would drive with her to Mr. Eyre's farm and second her invitation to Winfred to come to Endon Vale there would be no incitation for Miss. The seder, a boy, alled on the long and the client was plones, and the little was received with open arms by her aunt as a precious charge from her dearly helowater blora would have been supported by the control of t Hurst Manor, the home of the Cham-pions, and while there delicately, yet there would be no incitation for Miss. Champion. Moreover, Flora would have to bind herself to treat her cousin with at least ordinary courtesy during their stay in the same house.

Bir Huward acceded readily enough to this arrangement as long as he was not obliged to speak to his granddaughter.

whom he had never spoken to or even seen in his life or in any way to recognize her father. It was a bitter pill for Mrs. Champion and Flora to awallow, but the thought that if Flora did not go to Endon Vale, Sir Harold Erskine might possibily fall in love and propose to Winifred, obliged them to give a grudging consent.

The young girl was gathering reses in a minated wax doll. Everyone admired the garden, as the carriage from the

The young girl was gathering reses in the garden as the carriage from the Manor drave up the read. She turned away to the house. She could not bear the contemptoons tooks the Champions cast on her as they went by. But then ashe heard the carriage stop, and she looked back in surprise. The footnian was letting down the steps, and Mrs. Champion was descending, followed by Lady Grace Farquhar. What could it mean? The blood cushed to her face, and for a moment she hesitated. Then she went forward.

You did not expect visitors so early, dear?" said Lady Grace, kissing her. Mrs. Champion has come to call upon

Mrs. Champion came forward and shook hands with her, and uttered a few polite commonplaces, which put Winifred at her case. She had a great deal too much tact to allude to the past-in-deed, she behaved precisely as though she and Winifred saw and heard of each and Winifred saw and heard of each other for the first time.

Winifred soon recovered her composure, and lavited them to enter the house. Mrs. Champion was struck by the taste and elegance displayed in the miniature drawing room, and while Winifred was talking to Lady Grace, she examined her keenly. She was forced to confess to herself that this girl who had been so long ignored, and so much distained, was both elegant and pretty, and that her style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest in the style was unexceptionable. The conviction of the first interest to long ignored, and so much disdained, was both elegant and pretty, and that her style was unexceptionable. The conviction did not please her at all. As they were taking leave Lady Grace said:

"Then remember, my dear, that next Thursday week, at three o'clock, I shall send the carriage for you."

"Pray do not think of such a thing, Lady Grace," interposed Mrs. Champion:
"you have invited Flora the pre-few day; let ther delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one may and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and let her delay her visit for one day and could not help himself, in love-confoundedly in love with a pretion, in love-confoundedly in love and confounded in large and could not help himself, in love-confounded in large and could not help himself.

happy to repay hospitality by making himself agreeable, and amusing the company.

These were the people whom Miss It is our painful duty to call attendampion found assembled at Epsion tion once again to the fact that the

When the latter arrived she found her kind hostess alone, all her guests being away on an excursion to the neighboring woods. They had spent a pleasant afterthe returning carriages were heard, Ludy Grace sent her young friend away to dress, promising to call for her on her way to the drawing room. This she did, and when they entered the drawing room there was no one in it but Lord Harold Erskine, who came up immediately to be recognized her haughty cousin. They had never met since it had been agreed the farmer's daughter was to be noticed

(To be continued.) IS A RAINY-DAY FINANCIER.

A Small Boy Who Has an Original Plan for Earning Money.

Montollen was seriously ill with an at-tack of broughits, and that until she was sufficiently recovered Winifred could "The small boy-or at least one small boy-has found a new way of making the same, and, if the truth must be told, she was very well satisfied with what had occurred. The idea of driving over money," said a young woman the other day who had made the discovery.

Recently," she continued, "I most distasteful to her; and now that she was relieved from that unpleasant necesdown town to do some shopping. When I left the sun was shining brightly and the skies were blue. Through the vag-aries of our delightful New York clisity she was radiant, and, as her brothr, who accompanied her, remarked, in a most unusually good temper. The greater part of Lady Grace Farmate, when I got out at the 116th street station on my way home it was raining quitar's guests were strangers to her. Those she knew were Lord Harold Erskins, Miss Alton, the Honorable Evelyn cats and dogs, or halling cabs and ournibuses, as you prefer. I was gathering my skirts for a frantic rush when a Van and his sister. As the reader will pass some time in the company of the log's voice accosted me. Take you home cheap under an umbrella, lady? he inquired. "How much? I said.

"'Where to?' he asked, promptly, "'One Hundred and Nineteenth who from his consinship to the host claims priority of mention.

Francis Clayton was a man who would have completely baffled the researches of sponded. We were off in a moment, those estimable people who persistently find good in everyone. There was not an amiable truit in his character, nor a kind and I questioned blm. "'Yes'm; soon as school's out, when it rains, I get our umbrella and go over to the elevated station and take 'em home, three blocks for 5 cents for one s certain degree of manner, and because his income was a very large one. He was not a man to charm women, and yet there was many a one who would have been content to ignore his well qualities and take him for the sake of his rent roll.

Francia Clayton was 37, and it was his from the ladies, but always in the ladies, but always are supported by the ladies of the ladies. Francis Clayton was 37, and it was his boast that he had never made any woman

"I could make more if I had rub-young woman, according to the New York Times: "That chap is the sort," she went on, "who'll grow into a penniless young man, persuade some clever there is none of the foregoing requirements which it does not Yulfill perfectly. It is very inexpensive of manufacture; has a fusion point below the temperature of boiling water; cannot be exploded from ignition, and, indeed, he was naturally indignant. cannot be heated hot enough to explode, for it will boil away like water without exploding. It is, therefore, perfectly asked. safe to melt over an open fire for fill-Should the material by any chance catch fire, it would simply burn away around her and lifted her to a sitting act. like asphalt, without exploding. When east into shells it not only solidifies looking man (albeit decidedly handsome), who was very much in love with her. He had been all through the Indian war, and into a dense, hard, incompressible mass on cooling, but it expands and sets hard feel refreshed."

> "When a shell filled with it strikes armor plate, the Maximite does not found it out." shift a particle, and it is so insensitive that it not only stands the shock of penetration of the thickest armor plate which the shell itself can go through, but it will not explode, even if the pro-upon the walls of the projectile, like jectile breaks up on the plate." Style. "And have you seen your little baby brother yet?" inquired the caller. "Yes," replied little Ethel Blugore. and I was so disappointed in it."

- Why?" "Because it doesn't look a bit more stylish than the one our washwoman's got."-Philadelphia Press.

The most perfect echo in the world South England. It will repeat twentyone syllables.

Too much style is apt to produce that

THE WICKED MOBQUITO.

accommodating genius, who was always Nocturnal Visitant Who Leaves Rage and Bites in His Wake, Champion found assembled at Emission on Vale, and I think her first sensation on being introduced to them was a slight chagria at finding no great people among them.

Westerd had arrived at Endon Vale. and was sitting in her room, dressed for there is a sound of buzzing in the land, dinner, until Lody Grace should come in. From aundry swamps, from odd pools as the data was the following the land. dinner, until Lady Grace should come in, as she had promised, and take her down stairs into the drawing room.

Mrs. Champion had been prevented will we cannot escape that haunting paying a visit to Lady Grace, as she had intended; but she, nevertheless, fulfilled in all the world. It is the forerunner for disaster.

when the summer heat was terrific and heard the soft hum of the mosquito lirace sent her young friend away to litess, promising to call for her on her was promising to call for her on her was to the drawing room. This she did, and when they entered the drawing room here was no one in it but Lord Harold Srakine, who came up immediately to be utroduced.

"Harold," said his aunt, "I leave Miss Sye to your charge until dinner time, so a post?

Who bath not wondered when the time of badly cured and poorly cooked fish. The Kaffirs, who furnish very many victims, have a depraved appetite for rotten fish.

The gradual disappearance of locusts in Rhodesia and other pars of South appearance of your charge until dinner time, so apont?

political organization that will take up of singly, this question will find victory perching A scientific investigation of extraor-

HIDES DRUG IN HER HAIR.

How a Patient in Sanitarium Got a Supply of Morphine. "It is well known," said a nurse in beliess to marry him, and then make an uptown sanitarium to a New York wonder how he ever Times man, "that women addicted to Presiden happened to bind himself to such a morphine will resort to all sorts of show that he has a great big heart." girl."

tricks to hide the drug for use when they know it will be kept from them.
I am 'wise,' as they say, on all the the other day. "The President No. 1" and "wise," as they say, on all the the other day. "The President No. 1" and "wise," as they say, on all the the of counties in toward the lower than the counties in the same and the same It Will Not Explode from Ignition— violet bonbons, bouquets, chocolate tier of counties in lows. It was rain-insensitive to Shock. The drops and similar resources of that de-Insensitive to Shock.

Hudson Maxim, the inventor of "Max scription in which morphine is secret thousands of people who had come many miles in their wagons to see imite," which has recently been adopted by the United States Government, gives a clear account of his remark. Her supply of morphine was gradually and open stands erected, so that able invention in Frank Lealing Paper. gives a clear account of his remark—able invention in Frank Lealie's Popu—freduced until the second day of treat—inens, and then cut off altogether,
"Maximite," he says, "which has recountly been adopted by the Governmucut, has satisfactorily stood every test to which it has been subjected, and there is none of the foregoing require—gives a clear account of his remark—Her supply of morphine was gradually a good look at the President might be obtained. At the other towns where not even stops had been arto phine. There was no doubt about

to which it has been subjected, and there is none of the foregoing require—susplcion. The patient was a woman

At a watering station where the train

A long with the chariot were found the pharoah's driving gloves.—Baltimore Sun.

His Time Was Not Up

A man of a mercenary spirit had can be stood on the rear platform, and he stood on the good look at the President might be obtained. At the other towns
where not even stops had been arto phine. There was no doubt about to phine the chariot were found the was pharoah's driving gloves.—Baltimore
be obtained. At the other towns where not even stops had been arto pharoah's driving gloves.—Baltimore to pharoah's driving storich the chariot were found the pharoah's driving storich pharoah's driving cused of bringing her the drug and he stopped talking. "I will not go

"The fourth day the doctor in at- away to a nearby house and ing projectiles, in the same manner that tendance stood for a long time over again with a chair, and the President asphalt is melted in a street caldron, the patient, who was drowsy with concluded his little talk amid a gen-sulphur. That is to say, it expands in and the secret was out. She had the train platform and have kept dry, the same way as water does in freezing, enough morphine hidden in her half but the people could have not seen to last her six weeks if we had not him so well.

Business Notice.

Ex-banker, having been in retire ment, is anxious for opportunity to get back into business world; would is said to be that at Shipley, in Sussex, take advantage of any opening, however small.-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The man who poses as a lady-killer makes good by boring se. sible women

Science Invention

A lately tested section of the auth marine cable, laid twenty years ago between Clenfuegos and Santiago, is in excellent condition, proving the durability of rubber-covered cables.

Modern science seems to show that leprosy, the losthsome scourge of many sound. There is nothing else like it in all the world. It is the forerunner and the world. It is the forerunner or that may be easily prevented orders that may be easily prevented. Who hath not lain awake at night His late investigations in South Africa woods. They had spent a pleasant after, as he flitted hither and you in the dark-noon together, and just as the wheels of near? of ness?

Who bath not wondered when the theory that the cause is the est the word hadle cured and boorly cooked

"Harold," said his sunt, "I leave Miss Eyre to your charge until dinner time, so do your heat to amuse her."

Lurd Harold forthwith devoted himself to being agreeable to his new acquaint ance, and succeeded perfectly. She felt quite at her case, and chatted gayly to him. Presently the door at the further and of the room opened and a magnificent young lady, affired in sweeping lace and silk, entered. The crimson color flushed into Winifred's cheeks as she recognized her hanging coain. They failures.

micrography. Good photographs of in-sects have been made with such a lens, but the following morning there was a pile missing; also the lobster, which but the manipulation is difficult. Even the composite eye of a beetle, which in THE WAR OR MOSQUITOES.

25,000 separate lenses, each producing from the rolly water caused by drag-ning to recognize his right to think pests? What more futile anger in all an independent image, can be used ging the heavy pile, and he was related for himself, independent of the world than that directed against for making photographs which are captured after another flerce struggle one of those long-legged, long-billed curious rather than useful. They raise to mentires of the night?

They raise to which the fishermen's boat was the distribution of the flatterners of the night?

They raise to which the fishermen's boat was the distribution of function and truth instead of the presentation. They raise to making photographs which are captured after another flerce struggle precedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. It is an independent image, can be used to the serious procedents of personalities. We have all known the polgnant gain by having thousands of images of an ingle with the mosquitoes the same thing projected on its retina?" after being recaptured, however, not tist, Brooklyn, N. Y. and we all feel the need of a reform. Quite astonishing is the rapidity of standing captivity well.

Why does not the President of these working of brain and nerves in modern. United States get to work to suppress these vile pests that cumber the earth as with a postilential and noxious the ordinary player must cultivate the issue, then the Democrats should seize 2% minutes. This is equivalent to home, three blocks for 5 cents for one person. When they's two together, I walk behind in the rain and jet 'em carry the umbreila 'emselves. Oh, yes, I generally make about 25 cents at regular pay from the ladies, but aiways more if it don't look like rain early in the afternoon and the rain comes sudden.

"I could make more if I had rub-

CONSIDERATION FOR PEOPLE,

Haw the President Is Always Showing His Big-Heartelness. "Here are instances of one day in Roosevelt began, but all of a sudden on until that old gentleman is given Suddenly he put his arms eral exclamation of approval for his

"When the town where a speech "'Now,' he said, 'we are going to had been arranged for was reached, eel refreshed.'

"The patient fought like a wildcat, the Fresident might have stood on the train platform and have kept dry, nough morphine hidden in her half."

The boy very promptly reminded his openly. Otherwise they are imposters, father of the day of the month and —Rev. W. S. Rainsford, Episcopalian, the year, and declared his intention of the train platform and have kept dry, nough morphine hidden in her half. comb your hair and perhaps you will it was raining hard. The stand was Without hesitating be got off the train and stood in the rain and delivered his address. At the next place, where a mile and a half carriage ride was a part of the local program, and it was still raining hard. sed carriage had been provided. Can't this be opened? asked the President. 'If these people can stand out here in the rain to see me I guess ! can ride in the rain to give them the opportunity.' The carriage top was thrown open and the President rode in the rain during the estire distance."-Washington Star.

MONSTER LOBSTER IS

CAUGHT AFTER A FIGHT. This fish story is about a lobster, but it's all right and its veracity is vouched for by Capt. Emery Gray, one of the most hardy and daring fishermen on the taland of Vinalhavoff the Maine coast

Gray is the hero of the story, or, at least, shares first honors with the lob ster.

One morning, so the tale runs, the doughty captain was strolling along the shore near the mouth of Indian creek with a clam hoe in his hands, then he caught alght of a lobster claw protruding from the sand. The anustial side to this discovery was that the claw was about a hundred times larger than any whole crustecean the captain had ever encountered. Phinking it was but a lifeless relic of some species belonging to ages agone, the captain gave the claw a sharp blow with the hoe.

It proved to belong to the very active present, however, and snapping is claw on the offending weapon, the obster nearly wrenched it from Gray's . Victory. The moment a man feels hand. The timely appearance of an her is a victim he is conquered. We other fisherman enabled the captain go through the world as victors or hand.

CAPT. GRAY AND HIS LODSTEN.

o dig up the giant beast from its it; we do not bring it to us. A crystalline lens taken from the specific of a bullock has been found especially useful, says Prof. W. F. Watson, for photographing objects which are too small for the common camers lens too small for the common camers lens to small for the saud. Securing the lobs already in it. Rev. W. E. Bently, Episcopalitan, New York City.

Ends of Drink.—Drink poisons the blood, shatters the nerves, destroys the tonshed natives. and yet too large for ordinary photo- fastened to a pile supporting a dock, some species consists of as many as venied the crustacean's whereabouts TOMB OF A KING OF THEBES.

Last Resting Place of Thothmes IV. Unearthed in Egrot.

the ordinary player must cultivate the cys to see about 1,500 signs per minute. The which are the cocupies if he is to allow these pairty little insects to make our lives pulsersble? Something should be done, and that right quickly. If the R-publican five the summer of reading must reach 8,950 signs in large with a part of the control base, then the Democrats should seize upon it with avidity.

Who is there with soul so dead who would not vote for a straight ticket ten consecutive impressions per second, it had been conveyed for concealment.

L.A. Banks, Methodist, New York City. for any party that would put an auti-mosquito plank in its platform? The political organization that will take up of singly.

It appears that in very rapid music the probably in the period of the twenty-first dynasty. Mr. Davisa found in the new discovered tomb various wall paintings, a magnificent granite sarlooks like the small end of the smalleat needle in the world a mile away.

the black and the brown have said strictly art, as the raised tion of bloods are found the Negrito, part of the scale had been smeared tion of bloods are found the Negrito. some days, and was a great favorite with everyone in the house. Her aunt, Lady Marion, was in Ireland, and as she was Marion, was in Ireland, and as she was not particularly strached to her prim old grandfather and grandmother, whom her sunt visited annually, she had been very still.

"I could make more if I and rubbles with me, but ladles' feet is such the world a mile away. What we want is an eradication of the scale had been smeared with the finesces that fly by night and make great deal, but it's money for a 10-year life one long torture.

We demand some relief. We insist the tomb the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared with the payman and the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared with the insects that fly by night and make great deal, but it's money for a 10-year life one long torture.

We demand some relief. We insist the tomb the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Cambodian; the ladles' feet is such to the first of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Cambodian; the ladles' feet is such that fly by night and make are the found to the part of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Cambodian; the ladles' feet is such to the part of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Aryan; the climber of the scale had been smeared to the Papuan and the Cambodian; the ladles' feet is such that the part of the scale had been smeared to the primary to the papual that the papual the papual that the papual the papual that the primary to the papual that the papual that the papual the papual that t grandfather and grandmother, whom her suit visited annually, she had been very glad to accept Lady Grace's invitation to spend a month with her. Marion, or spend a month with her. Marion, or the ladies pays me extra. There was a lady before you, a few minutes, that little coquet in the world. Her mother and Lady Marion were twin sisters, and the former having formed an attachment for a handsome young captain in the army whan her father would mot hear of ran off with him, and subsequently accompany according to the New condition of the long torture. We demand some relief. We insist you measures for the amelioration of the condition of our people at night. We call upon all men to take up the gave me a quarter. You look so much like her I'd almost think you was her. I does go, but alaa, he comes back again.—Chicago Chronicle.

"Yes, it's a paying scheme," said the one long torture.

We demand some relief. We insist your measures for the amelioration of the condition of our people at night. We call upon all men to take up the gave me a quarter. You look so much like her I'd almost think you was her. I demand some relief. We insist your measures for the amelioration of the condition of our people at night. We call upon all men to take up the gave me a quarter. You look so much like her I'd almost think you was her. I demand some relief. We insist the tomb has deven, in a slight dered by robbers, but need her, was the dered by robbers. We demand some relief. We insist the the condition of our people at night. We call upon all men to take up the condition of our people at night.

We demand some relief. We insist the the demand some relief. We insist the condition of our people at night.

We call upon all men to take up the cambet of the condition of our people at night.

We call upon all men to take up the cambet of the condition of our people at night.

We call upon all the Cambodian: the Hamilte, the Semite and the Aryan; the dered by robbers, but need by robbers, but need by robbers, but need by robbers by the find The mosquite must go. He usually involves a study of habits, relics, pre-deposited with the munmy, but much does go, but also be comes back again. historic remains, tribal legends and oc. was left for the archaeologist of to expectations and I will show above our wantonly broken. Among the rest were allst, Brooklyn, N. Y. glass and also of opaque white glass men with widest spiritual horizon, have n beer bottles. which hierglyphic characters had been woven with wonderful skill. The dom come," with grotesque mental plochief "find." however, was the actual chariot of Thothmes used by the king Bradlet, Methodist, Atlanta, Ga. n his daily drives at Thebes. It was of wood, covered with papler-mache and stucco, carved inside and out with scenes of the king's battles in Syria. light may break out of the eternal

A man of a mercenary spirit had Caswell, Presbyterian, Greenpoint, N. and employe in the house was under suspicion. The patient was a woman with a beautiful and bountiful supply of hair. Her husband, who visited her twice a day, was virtually see the residence of the twenty first birthday. The father had always been a strict disciplinarian, keeping his boys well under anked to make a short speech. Mr. Roosevelt began, but all of a sudden It was with a feeling of considerable satisfaction that the young man regenerates, so the higher life will "What do you suppose I am paying good money for a cure for?" he decrept old man standing in the center of the crowd. Some one rushed ingling preparatory to starting out in the dot gentleman is given a sent," he declared, pointing to a rose on the morning of his birthday make the man a new man.—Rev. D.
A. Goodsell, Methodist, South Norwalk, ter of the crowd. Some one rushed ingling preparatory to starting out in his trunk, which he rightly judged to be evidence of the early loss of a good young man's room and saked what he they might as well step down and was going to do.

old man, "at least not for a while vestigation, but of mental aberration yet! You wasn't born until after 12 and bankruptcy. The truth o'clock, so you can just take off them all civilized lands are obligated for vicgood clothes and fix to give me another half-day's work down in the po through falth in Christ; the great contato patch.

It is announced that the govern nent will erect the greatest wireless elegraph station in the world at Caps Henry. The principal use of the sta tion will be to communicate with war ressels at sea, Tampa, Key West and stand you, my son. Dry Tortugas and northern navy yarda. The poles will be 200 feet high

His Turn Too Often. Fligg-I see they're going to open treatless tayern" in New York. Flagg-Well, that will be a treathtladelphia Bulletin.

A spinster's ideal man is one wh

Attitude Toward God -- God's treatment of you depends on your atti-ude toward him.—Her. L. C. Barnes, Buptlet. Wercoster, Mass.

Extravagance.-Extravagance brings dishonesty and individual, municipal, state and national corruption. -- Rev. O. P. Spiegel, Disciple, New Orleans, Victory. The moment a man feels vanquished.-Rev. A. Z. Courad, Boston, Mars.

National Religion.-A religion makes a nation. The answer to China is Confucius, to India is Buddha, to civilized Europe is Christ.—Rev. W. F. Crafts, Washington, District of Colum-

Environment.-Character can not be nherited nor entailed; it is a virtue influenced by environment, for a man is known by the company he keeps. -- Rev. W. T. Dixon, Baptist, Brook-

The Spiritual World.-The spiritual world is co-extensive with creation.
It fills all space and interpenetrates the physical world. We do not go to

The Right to Think.-Man is begin-

Victory and Defeat-Defeat and fallure in business or life, in our ambittions or plans are results we never Yet there are many victortes which are worse than defeats and many apparent failures which are Protestantism-The term Protestant swadays has come to mean a sort of go-as-you-please religion and embraces piritualists, Mormons, Dowlettes and ollowers of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, and surely we do not wish any longer to be classed with them.-Bishop C. C. Grafta, Episcopalian, Fond du Lac,

Popular Christianity.-Time was when men were persecuted and even crucified for the sake of their belief. But to-day Christianliy has become popular and an easy way to travel, let right is right and wrong is wrong. No social rank can extenuate sin. Rev. S. P. Codman, Congregationalist, Brooklyn, N. Y. Success. - Does Christianity make success? Not in dollars and cents, but in the integrity of the heart and in the power of the brain. Show me a man's day. The floor was covered with vases expectations. It is not the work we dishes, boomerangs, symbols of life and do, but the spirit with which we do other objects in blue falence, nearly all it.—Rev. J. D. Adams, Congregation-cups and vases of blue and variegated The Spiritual Horizon.-The best with pieces of what looked like mod never surveyed in all its extent the erdom of God. Often the high spir There was also a piece of cloth in itual meaning has been missed and men have said the words, "Thy kingtures in their thoughts .- Rev. J. T.

> Higher Criticism.—Higher criticism has no explosive. Its province is to tunnel into the Rock of Ages that more Word. If any one thinks he has discovered an explosive that will demotish the Rock of Ages the church is ready for the experiment,-Rev. L. H.

> we shall know that as the lower life

the world.

The farmer, seeing his son packing the trunk, which he rightly judged to the church was placed in trust by God to the people. If the people can not give the church something of their The boy very promptly reminded his must be done candidly, honestly and

'Not much you won't," shouted the longer recognized as a school of in tories which have been wrought tempation is that all men will not ac knowledge the debt.—Rev. M. E. Har-lan, Disciple, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Medicine for Johany and His Ma. Johnny Jones-Why do ma and I require such different medicine, pa? Mr. Jones (puzzled)-1 don't under Johnny Jones-Well, in the spring it always takes a trip to Europe or springs to do for ma what just a plain done of molasses and sulphur does for me .- New York Sun.

Well Off by Comparis n. Sailor (shouling)—blan overboard. Seaslek Passenger (grouning)—Lucky dog-Pack,