

A HOT TIME.
Sometime in the "evening hours" Sunday morning, a "hot time" in the old town. The early, there, the crowd much blood on the walk in front of a notorious house on River street, one of which was readily followed up town. Much speculation was rife and all sorts of stories were circulated. It transpired, however, that "Homicide" Dan Cox, and Harvey McFarland got mixed up with Dr. Petrie, the altercation presumably arising over a game of cards. The doctor promptly put the handsome Dan out of business right close to the first round, so the story goes, but in the mix up, got tangled with his foe on the ground. About this time McFarland, the inviolable hopped up and lambasted the doctor over the head with a club, or board or some other kind of weapon of torture, and all but put Petrie out. McFarland didn't stop to ascertain the extent of damages done, but made tracks, and up till Tuesday neither Dan nor McFarland had been around to inquire into the state of the doctor's health. It is reported that Dr. Petrie's head was badly cut and that several stitches had to be taken by his attending physician. Some say that Dan's was scared up, and that the doctor waited on him at Sogham. Others thought that McFarland was dealt a blow from the doctor's belt—or from fright. But low and behold the two sporting men showed up in their most charming condition Tuesday night. Just as though they had never had an argument with the doctor. It is understood that owing to the nature of the trouble, Doctor Petrie will not come any arrest.

TO LONG BEACH.
A representative of the Nugget had the pleasure of a visit to Long Beach last Sunday, via the steamer T. J. Potter through the courtesy of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Co., and to say that it was an enjoyable one would be putting it mildly. The steamer Potter is an up-to-date river steamer, finished throughout in neat style and perfect in convenience and is amply large to furnish good accommodations for all who make the trip, except at this season when it is considerably crowded. We left Cottage Grove Friday, via the Southern Pacific to Portland and from there to Ilwaco by steamer completing the trip via the Ilwaco narrow gauge railroad which is always crowded, arriving at Long Beach in good time for dinner, and then on to the beach where hundreds of beautiful summer girls and heartbroken young men are promading from early morn till late in the afternoon. Long Beach is an ideal place to spend the day, and to go camping for a few weeks. Fruits and vegetables are as plentiful as any market and can be purchased at very reasonable prices as also heard. It is an ideal trip and well worth the expense and time of making it. The O. R. & N. people are to be congratulated upon their good steamer service afforded those who enjoy—and everybody does—a river and ocean voyage.

SURGICAL OPERATION.
Last Monday afternoon, Dr. Geo. Wall of this city, performed a very delicate surgical operation at the Dr. Wall hospital in this city. The operation is known as ovariectomy. The patient was Mrs. Hubbard of this city. Dr. Wall was assisted by Dr. Job of this city, Dr. E. H. Barber, of Yoncalla, and wife. He is also a physician in the operating room, a very delicate one, but notwithstanding, the patient stood the ordeal in a very satisfactory manner, and is now nicely recovering.

A VICTOR'S DOG.
A dog accompanying a party of campers in town yesterday was particularly vicious. He was left alone with a wagon tied to the park and made a business of biting passerby. He sank his teeth into the leg of a son of James Montgomery and set the dress of Miss Ada Orrell, but was beaten off. Marshall Stiles was about to kill the vicious beast, but the owner appeared and promised to take him out of town. He was a blooded hound worth $100 according to his master.—Guard.

RAD ACCIDENT.
Jim Allen, met with a serious accident at the Pacific Timber Co.'s Rocky Point logging grounds last Friday, which will lay him up for several weeks, although he is able to be about the streets with the aid of a cane. Jim struck an ax out of a cut he was opening, and the instrument struck the big toe of his left foot, inflicting a painful wound. He came to town as soon as possible and Dr. Job dressed the wound and at present writing Mr. Allen is rapidly recovering.

NEW FEED STORE.
At Elledge and Wm. Higgins, have this week opened their commission house and feed store in the Walker building, on Main Street. The gentlemen have their first inventory of goods in and have already had a good sale on flour and feed. The firm intends to handle all kinds of produce and will pay the highest market price for it. The gentlemen are well known here and will no doubt work up a splendid trade.

FIRES.
J. K. Barrett's residence caught fire at the noon on Wednesday. A spark evidently blew from the kitchen chimney and ignited the shingles. An alarm was turned in and the house company responded promptly, but before they arrived, Mr. Barrett and his neighbors had run up a ladder and turned the garden hose on the blaze, controlling it at once. No particular damage was done.

ELECTED POSTMASTER.
A dispatch from Washington D. C., brings the information that C. C. Sturtevant has been appointed postmaster of Crow, Lake County, Oregon, vice C. H. Varney, who conducts a store at Crow, and will no doubt give entire satisfaction to the people in that vicinity. Mr. Varney has served the people well and many regret that he has resigned.—Guard.

CENTRAL HOTEL.
The Central hotel is now under the management of L. E. Thompson and his estimable lady and is enjoying a patronage almost beyond its capacity. The Central consists of 28 bed rooms, baggage room, parlor, office and dining room, 24x36 feet in size. The house is extremely well finished through out. Special care has been taken in the ventilation of every room along the most modern methods of sanitation. The dining hall of the Central is a very beautiful room, large and airy and would give one an appetite whether hungry or not. The tables are always furnished with the very best market affords, two in the old fashioned style and four on the European plan. The management of this house has given such close care in every detail of the business that they have been forced to rent rooms near the hotel to accommodate those who are anxious for the service of the excellent tables of the Central and now have thirty-five rooms occupied. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson came to Cottage Grove about one year ago and took charge of the Cottage Grove Hotel under a one year lease which expired about two weeks ago and so well pleased were their patrons that when they moved to the Central they took with them eight of their regular boarders. They will make a great success of the hotel business and will command a large share of the patronage. They are pleasant people and thoroughly understand the business.

THE GUARANTEED COMPOUND INTEREST GOLD BOND.
Of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York
Richard A. McCurdy, President.
This Gold Bond differs from any policy written by this or any other insurance company in the following essential particulars:
1st. The policy is by its terms, payable in Gold Coin. This refers to both the principal sum and the interest.
2d. It guarantees annually, for a specified term of years, 3 per cent in gold on all premiums previously paid. These credits may be drawn at the time they are made or at any other time, but as long as they are allowed to remain with the company, they will be increased by 3 1/2 per cent interest, compounded annually, until the end of the said term, and, in the event of the death of the insured, any such accumulated credits will be paid with the sum insured.
3d. At the end of the period during which premium payments are required (10, 15 or 20 years, as the case may be), the Company, if requested, will exchange this Bond for a new one for a stipulated amount, payable at the death of the insured and, in the meantime, drawing 3 per cent simple interest annually on its par value.
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN.
The accumulated surplus or dividend will at the same time be paid in cash, or it may be applied to increase the amount of the new 3 per cent Bond which will also thereafter participate annually in the dividends of the Company.
In addition to these features which are peculiar to the Gold Bond, it also combines all the advantages of the Distribution Policies of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, such as full participation in the surplus earnings of the Company, Cash Surrender and Loan Values, grace in payment of premiums, Automatic Paid-up Insurance, etc.
Full information regarding this exceedingly popular and attractive combination of Investment and Protection for any particular age or amount may be obtained by applying to the Company's nearest agent, or call or write to
W. A. WANN, Supervisor of Agencies.
