OLD INDIAN BATTLE GROUND.

Tokens of Peace and War Found in the Kennewick Valley, Washington.

Where the great steel bridge of the Northern Pacific railway spans the Columbia rivers there was fought sixty years ago a battle to the death between two Indian tribes, nrobably the Cay-nees and the Wallahwallhs or the Ciholihs which latter tribe was a reck-ess and thieving one. Great Irrigating Ditch Completed.

The railway company has recently completed a great irrigating ditch 25 miles long and 20 feet wide that is turning this valley adjacent to the weet bank of the Columbia from a sage brush plane into what a lew years hence will be an orchard and garden spot 20 miles square, with a climate peculiarly adapted, it is said, to raising all sorts of vegetables, berries peaches, apples, plums, cherries and
