CAUTION!
This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1888 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25-cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. German & Hemenway Co.

WANTED.
We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used green's August Flower for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Liver Troubles that has not been cured—and also mean the results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, dependent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been used for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If you something more serious is the matter with you, the 75 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. G. G. GREEN, Woodbury, N. J. German & Hemenway Co.

BOY CURED OF COLIC AFTER PHYSICIAN'S TREATMENT HAD FAILED.
My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Benson Drug Co.

LIBELOUS.
The Drayn Nonpariel has placed itself in a position to be used for libel. Last week it printed the following article: It may be of interest to know that the style of hosiery is to change this fall, and that radically. The New York Commercial says there will be as many colors to the fall hosiery as those displayed in Joseph's coat. It is needless to remark that the long skirt of the present will be perceptibly shortened.

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.
"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adult. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Benson Drug Co.

POWERS HAVE SPIES.

(London Express)
There are many things about each other which nations would like to know. In order to discover what they must know, but are not allowed to, civilized states employ military spies. They may be military or naval attaches, duly accredited to an embassy, or secret agents, who are sent to reside or travel in those districts from which information is required by the intelligence department. The work of the first class is not unimportant, but it is not risky. The officer may not overstep the bounds of common honesty, and rarely, if ever, attempts to achieve anything secretly.

He is closely watched and knows it. If he becomes a strong center of attraction he may divert the attention of watchers from some secret agent who is possessing himself of the particulars the attaché is ostensibly so anxious to acquire, but is successfully prevented from securing. The attaché is useful as a clearing agent. Spies become possessed of facts which are of no real value to those who employ them, but are assumed to be worth much to the agents of other countries, and an exchange of "pieces" is effected. Sometimes apparently useless information is sought simply for its exchange value. For instance, some years ago two British officers created considerable annoyance in Russia by their persistence in hanging about the district in which the autumn maneuvers were to take place. They were invited to join the staff—the British attaché was there—but this honor they declined.

Then representations were made at the British embassy, where the officers were unknown, and subsequently they disappeared for a time, only to be discovered at the end of the maneuvers in one of the five great fortresses which protect the west frontier of Russia and the one that had been the center of the military operations.

Had these men been Prussian officers their position would have been dangerous and an unpleasant international incident might have occurred. The Russo-German frontier is nothing to Great Britain, neither is the Franco-German. We exchange the first "piece" with Germany for the second, and the second with France for a little bit of news about Russia in Asia which India believes to be important. And thus we get home.

Each country has its own peculiar sphere of interest to which it devotes its greatest attention. Great Britain has so many that properly speaking it has none. But India is always alarmed as to Russia, and agents—British and native—of the Indian department are ever busy seeking particulars likely to be of service when we have to defend an empire which already in the military sense extends from Aden to Hong Kong. Most of the Indian agents in Russia are officers of the Indian army, but needless to state, they do not travel as such. Some affect to be tourists of an innocent but inquiring turn of mind; some go as commercial travelers; some lean to religious propaganda, while others collect curiosities.

These agents have been so energetic and so prolific in their disguise that in the south of Russia the bona fide commercial traveler excites suspicion. The Russians now insist upon all "commercials" being licensed and taxed; moreover, the intelligence department has found the orders for goods obtained by its travelers somewhat embarrassing.

As a buying agent the spy has also worked well. No Briton can now go across the Caspian to purchase skins any more than to sell hardware or even just to amuse himself, without his letters being opened and the company he keeps being carefully noted.
