

HOTEL GRAHAM.

A. Graham, who recently purchased the lease of the old hotel house, this week, completed his work of rearranging and refurnishing and has opened the house to the public under the name of "Hotel Graham". The proprietor has spared no pains to make his house neat, convenient, and attractive and his efforts will certainly meet with the approval of the public. The house has been remodeled in a very convenient manner, the office and reading room having been installed in the rear of the parlor on the west side of the building, with the new dining room in the rear of that. The old office has been converted into hotel bar, and furnished with attractive fittings. A bath room has also been added and the toilets have been brought into the building and connected with the hotel sewer, running to the river. The house has been thoroughly renovated, repainted and refurnished, with linoleum on the floors. Twenty-four newly furnished and well appointed sleeping rooms are at the service of guests. The kitchen has also received the close attention of Mr. Graham. It has been thoroughly overhauled and equipped with a steam cooking apparatus. The bar is separate from the hotel proper, and will be kept so. In the rear of the bar, an attractive billiard and pool room has been fitted up with two fine tables. Mr. Graham is a hotel man of many years' experience, and has been successful in the business at Spokane and Seattle. While the expense of refitting the house has been somewhat heavy, the proprietor is rewarded by being able to throw open to the public one of the best appointed houses in the valley.

TURNER GARDEN.

Oliver Hart, of this city, has developed into a first class, and to be good, and has the good fortune, on his lot, opposite the M. E. parsonage in this city, to substantiate the statement. Something like a year ago he commenced preparing the ground for garden, and last spring put in a "truck patch" that would do credit to a man who had followed the business all the days of a natural life time. At this writing Mr. Hart has sold $24 worth of truck from his garden, and has some $3 worth of onions and potatoes, besides 1000 head of an asparagus, and some 1000 head of celery plants, which he thinks will mature 750 bunches. This garden is grown on less than one lot, Mr. Hart having reserved quite a strip of ground for winter onions, which are now just coming up. The lot comprises about one-fifth of an acre. With his 750 celery bunches at 10 cents per bunch, and his 1000 head of cabbage at 50 cents per head, he finds his receipts $125.00. Adding to this the $24 already sold and the worth of onions now ready for the market, he shows that he has a crop from a little strip of ground, comprising less than a fifth of an acre, which he has tended at odd times, worth $152.00. At this rate an acre would bring him $760.00. Mr. Hart is of the opinion that an acre of good garden ground in this section of Oregon can be made to earn $1000.00 per year.

DIED IN WISCONSIN.

From the Detroit (Mich.) Tribune the following sketch regarding the father of Dr. J. E. Hosmer, of this city, who died at his home in Rome, Wis., Aug. 27, is taken. And we Jackson Hosmer was the father of eleven children, ten of whom are still living. John A. Hosmer, of Ann Arbor, Mich.; Albert H. Hosmer, of Nash, Wis.; Dr. J. E. Hosmer, of Seattle, Wash.; Dr. J. W. Hosmer, of St. Louis, Mo.; Dr. J. W. Hosmer, of Ashland, Wis.; Mrs. James Spear, of Eugene, Oregon; Dr. J. E. Hosmer, of Cottage Grove, Oregon; Dr. Chas. S. Hosmer, of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Adeline Hosmer, of John River, and Eli R. Hosmer, of Bonanza, Wis. There are twenty-five living grandchildren, one being Andrew S. Hosmer, Jr., who graduated in medicine this year, making five doctors in the Hosmer family. Deceased was a hard working farmer, having educated a large family of children and succeeded in making for himself a comfortable home. He was also an honest, upright citizen and a good neighbor, having held various town offices.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Last Saturday J. R. Brown, of this city, met with a peculiar and dangerous accident at the Hays hop yard near Creswell. While walking he caught his foot in a hop wire, tripped and fell head long striking the pit of his stomach, on a clod of dirt. Mr. Brown was unconscious for a few moments, with no recollection of the accident, attempted to get on his feet, but immediately fainted. He was brought to his home in this city, on the afternoon train, and has since been in a very dangerous condition, his heart being badly affected. It is announced that the accident resulted in breaking loose some of the muscles of the stomach and crowded the heart. At last accounts Mr. Brown was considerably improved.

FELL DOWN STEPS.

Mrs. Will George suffered a severe accident last Tuesday evening, in company with her mother, Mrs. Cal Boren, she attended the Sunday Army meeting at the M. E. Church. During the services Mrs. George's little baby became uneasy and the mother took the child and started out. As she reached the top steps she was struck well with her head on the heart and fell head long down the steps with her baby in her arms. Several men rushed to her aid and with the aid of a physician she was soon able to return to the Cottage Grove Hotel. Fortunately Mrs. George escaped injury other than a severe bruising of muscles.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.

John D. Damewood, of Silk Creek neighborhood, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise last Thursday, Sept. 10. It was on the occasion of his 74th birthday, and neighbors and children, some thirty strong, came pounding in on Uncle John to greet him with cheery words and bright smiles. Mr. Damewood was not only surprised but pleased and the way those folks did eat, was a caution. The birthday of these sturdy old pioneers is well worth keeping in mind by the younger generations, for the pleasure given them will long remain a pleasant memory not only to them but to the donors as well.

ENLARGED PICTURE.

C. W. Bradford is now prepared to make enlarged pictures and in order to get his work better than a bill make a beautiful enlarged portrait for $1 for all those having one dozen $3 cabinet photos. No coupons necessary. This offer will stand good until the 15th of Sept. Everybody invited to call and inspect his work.

FINISHED PICKING.

Hop picking in the Knox yard was finished late last week. Owing to the wet weather and the burning of the hop house with the spreading of the first floor of hops, only about half of the crop was cured. The quality, however, is said to be good.

FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Cottage Grove, Ore., Sept. 17th, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern:—

Be it known that for years I found the greatest difficulty in trying to get on at school. Everything went wrong it seemed. I was backward and people thought I was a dull child. But I have found out the reason recently, and thinking there may be some other poor sufferer in the same fix, I give him this information gladly in the hopes that he may find like I am doing, a happy relief from disappointment, and untold honors at the graduation day. The only thing I found to get me out of my trouble was to consult Messrs. Morgan & Brehaut, of the New Era Drug Store. There tablets and school supplies do the work.

Yours
ROBERT SHERWOOD.

The above is a sample of letters that are daily arriving at the New Era Drug Store for the above.

CHURCH NOTES

Sunday morning subject at the M. E. church, "Heaven"; evening subject, "Come and See."

ITEM FROM SILK CREEK

Sept. 17.

Miss Alice Wheeler, who was suffering from quite a severe attack of cholera morbus, is about again.

Rev. Bryan preached his last sermon for this conference year at this place last Sunday, to a fair sized audience. Prayer meeting will be held in the school house on next Sunday.

While engaged in some ranch work, last week, Mrs. Ella Thompson had the misfortune to get thrown to the ground, and the front wheel of the wagon ran over her left arm and shoulder breaking the member in a very painful manner.

Last week while playing on an embankment close to his home, the youngest child of Wm McCoy was unfortunate enough to fall breaking his leg just above the knee. Dr. Schlee was called, and reduced the fracture. At last accounts the little one was doing as well as could be expected.

A surprise birthday dinner was held at Mr. John Damewood's in honor of his 74th birthday. About 35 of the neighbors were present and any one who has ever attended one of our Silk Creek surprise dinners know that food was plenty, appetites great and fun in proportion to both.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos Dickers m, who have been the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Ida Caldwell, departed on the 2 a. m. Wednesday for their Ill. home via San Francisco, Cal., where they expect to make a short stop. They also expect to visit in the cities of Salt Lake, Utah, Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.

BUSY BLACKBUTTE

Doings of the Denizens of the Quick-silver Camp.

PERSONALS AND PARAGRAPHS.

Blackbutte is a busy camp.

Nearly every man who comes looking for work finds it. There is plenty to do. A number of men have been added this week to the crew on the big flume, and the work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Men are wanted to cut wood by contract. Good wages can be made by any one who wants to work and knows how to handle an ax and a saw. Men in the timber are wanted for clearing and fence building. There are no idle men about the camp, except one, and he has chronic rheumatism.

The usual string of visitors were seen at the butte last week. The reputation of the mine is going abroad and every man who visits the country wants to see the big works and greatest deposit of quick silver ore in the United States. It is also becoming a popular place for visitors from Cottage Grove and Eugene. Those who come go away and give the mine and the management a good reputation. They always receive cordial and courteous treatment, although the underground workings are not open for public inspection.

Among the visitors last week were Mr. C. H. Griffing, a wealthy timber man from New York state; Mr. J. S. Hamilton, the new head of the land department of the O. & S. E. R. R. Mr. Levi Geer with a large party of guests from the Oregon Mineral Springs, and Mr. C. W. Bradford, the Cottage Grove photographer. Mr. Bradford was employed by Mr. Dennis to take a number of views of the big dam, new buildings, etc.

Work on the $50 foot level still progresses with satisfactory results and Assayer Frank Whipple is kept busy breaking up and quartering down the many samples of ore that daily come down from the mine. New apparatus and modern appliances are being continually added to the assay office, until this department of the mine may truly be said to be one of the most complete, and the most systematically handled assay office connected with a mine on the Pacific coast.

Butch Watkins has increased the canine population of the camp by the importation of four full blooded pups. Butch declined to name the breed, so the new arrivals have been refused registry in the Blackbutte kennel records.

Road Supervisor J. W. Bemis is pushing the road improvement work with a good force of men. To those who have been obliged to travel the road in winter it is good for them to see the old long stretches of bottomless slough road nicely rounded up and covered with good clear gravel.

TELEGRAPHIC FLASHES

Sir Thomas Lipton the great English yachtsman, is suffering from serious illness, at Chicago. His physicians hint that he is attacked with appendicitis.

An immense block of stone fell from the upper part of a 20-story building in New York on the 16th inst, landing on the Fifth Avenue side of the building. Great damage was done to the pavement. The fragments flew in ever direction and the report was heard blocks away. A piece of the stone hit a man half block away and broke his leg. A passing team was struck by smaller pieces, and ran away. A street car was badly damaged and some of the passengers slightly hurt.

Chief of police Hunt, of Portland, is alleged to be implicated in some of the "peculiar" methods adopted by his department in the matter of officials getting hush money from the "badlanders."

CROUP.

Upon begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat, 50c at New Era Drug Store.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Ague-cure, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing so serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at Garman & Hemenway Co. Price 25c and 75c.
