FRANCE & GOWDY.

We think our sun a glorious object; yet there is another, known as Arcturus, 950 trillions of miles distant, so brilliant at that distance that the human mind cannot even imagine what it would be were it as near to us as our own little sun. It pours forth over 6,000 times the quantity of light of that orb.

Then there is still a greater sun than Arcturus, which astronomers have discovered, Canopus—even yet more distant; and Sirius 700,000 time farther away from us than our sun, is a glorious object to the naked eye, and a most awe inspiring one, seen through the telescope in all of its colors of the rainbow.

As Professor Larkin says: "This space contains countless suns, revolving around their centers with great speed. Many millions of these may be surrounded by cool worlds each inhabited by beings far more exalted in mental power than the human beings on this earth."

This is all wonderfully inspiring and uplifting to the broadly religious mind. It elevates and magnifies our ideal of the Creator of all this overwhelmingly stupendous system of worlds.

How banal—how nearly idiotic—is the mind which, incapable of fashioning a blade of grass, yet looks on the starry vault of heaven and says: "There is no God."

How pitiful is the mind that says there is a god over it all, a revengeful creature, who will burn us in a lake of fire if we do not believe this or that idea set forth by some translator of old histories.

No, no, dear doubter—no, no, dear bigot! You are both wrong. The great Cause, the great Intelligence, the great God, exists! He is Love, and we are emanations from Him! We come from the central source of all these suns, and we shall return there—where He is.

About us are millions of other worlds trillions of other beings, all children of God.

Is not the father of twelve children as truly the loving father as though he had but one child?

And can it lessen God's interest in the earth that he has a million other worlds to care for?

Astronomy and all its marvelous disclosures in the last century should increase our self-respect and elevate our ideals of man and God.

Think of the human intellect which has been able to create instruments to weigh the suns, and measure the stars, and photograph explosions in the sun! And then think of the power great enough to create those suns—billions upon billions—now living or dead.

All these positive data have been acquired in 100 years. What may we not expect in the next hundred or in the next twenty? It is a sublime age to live in.

Let your soul stand on tiptoe, eagerly waiting to read the bulletins from space! Any hour, any moment, a discovery may be flashed across the world that will revolutionize human thought.

Be ready, be receptive, be reverent!

God is with us, and over all is Love.

We are His and let us live worthy of our majestic inheritance.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Ore., Sept. 28th, 1903.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.

MARY GREEN, of Cottage Grove, Co of Lane, State of Ore., has this day filed in this office her sworn statement No. 5756, for the purchase of the E½ NE ¼ of Section 28 in Tp 20 S., Range 2 W., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish her claim to said land before J. J. Walton, U. S. Commissioner at Eugene, Oregon, on Saturday the 12th day of Dec. 1903.

She names as witnesses:

J W Parrish, J. D. Palmer, James W Houck, of Jefferson, Marion Co., Ore., Richard Green, of Cottage Grove, Lane Co., Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 12th day of Dec., 1903.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at Garman & Hemenway Co. Price 25c and 75c.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get this reliable remedy at Garman & Hemenway Co. Price 25c and 75c.
