THE ECLIPSE OF PRIDE.

"I need the money," says the saloonkeeper, as he takes over his bar the last dollar of the drunken workingman and turns him into the street. "Business is business."

"I need the money," says the young woman who sells her soul for a paltry sum to whoever will buy. "I am forced to do this by the unfortunate position I am in."

"I need the money," says the gambler, as he pockets the coin he knows full well the poor clerk has taken from his employer's till. "My family can't starve."

"I need the money," says the highwayman, as he raises his bludgeon or pistol to shed innocent blood and wrong those who have never wronged him. "The world owes every man a living."

"I need the money," says the thief, who lives off others by his wits, through cards, dice, gold bricks or confidence games. "A man must live."

Yes, we all need the money. But we need something else much more. We need self-respect, we need an approving conscience, we need the confidence and companionship of our fellow men.

Dowie parades himself before gaping thousands and drags the sacred things of religion into the mire. He needs the money for "Zion."

Bryan defies good taste and imperils his good name for the sake of a paltry $50,000. He needs the money for his family.

Perhaps it is that we lack pride—the pride of family, the pride of reputation. These things were once most powerful deterrents from wrong doing. The inherence in society where money is appraised at its true value.

Perhaps an aristocracy of birth and breeding is, after all, better than an aristocracy of mere money. Perhaps our commercial civilization needs an infusion of gentility. Is the race of Tom Newcome and Bertie Cecil and John Halifax extinct?—Oregonian.

GOOD ADVICE.

The following from the Alamosa Courier is certainly good advice, and should be read by all:

Praise it.
Improve it.
Talk about it.
Trade at home.
Write about it.
Be public spirited.
Tell of its business men.
Take a home pride in it.
Remember it is your home.
Tell of its business resources.
Tell of its natural advantages.
Trade and induce others to trade here.

When strangers come to town use them well.
Look ahead of self when all the town is to be considered.
Don't call your best citizens frauds and imposters.
Support your local institutions that benefit your town.
Help your public officers do the most good for the most people.
Don't forget you live off the people here, and you should help others as they help you.
Don't advertise in your local paper "to help the editor," but advertise to help yourself.

While the people in eastern sections are shivering and lamenting the cold, as well as dreading the severe weather yet to come, we in Oregon are enjoying the finest kind of fall weather, the sun shining bright and clear from sunrise to sunset. Later on, when winter as we understand it, does come, we have only to endure an ordinary rainy season, during which with few days exception cultivating and the various kinds of work goes on with little inconvenience. And yet you will find people who dread to come to Oregon. It is undoubtedly because they are ignorant of the true condition of things, and in this instance is not a blessing but a curse to them.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Notice is hereby given that any and all notes due bills, orders, accounts and any and all other evidence of indebtedness in the hands of or purporting to be due or owing from the undersigned to one C. L. Rainey, or order, or otherwise, are wholly void and worthless for the reason that the same were given without any consideration whatever and have been kept and retained by the said Rainey through fraud and misrepresentation.

BACHELOR'S HONEYMOON.

This clever play, which will be interpreted by Clement-Keefe Co., is perhaps the best farce comedy ever written. It has been done by only the best companies and in the large theatrical centers, and the Clement-Keefe Co., which has no superior as a traveling organization, pay a high royalty for the play. This company proposes producing only high-class standard plays of which a "Bachelor's Honeymoon" is a fair type. The management requests those who do not enjoy a good laugh to remain away. The play is credited with 1365 laughs. The characters are all finely drawn and true to life, which places this play far above the ordinary farce. It has sufficient logical plot to furnish legitimate surprises and is wholesome as well as laugh provoking. This will be the only opportunity to see the comedy. Clement-Keefe Co. has sole rights for its production in the northwest. This company will appear at Martin's Hall, Oct. 30. Reserved seats 35 and 25c. The C. M. A. Band of this city will furnish street and orchestra music.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. N. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for Coughs and Colds. 30c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by New Era Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

Dividing the Deck.

"Now, Johnny," said the teacher, who had been describing a war ship to the class, "how is the deck divided?"

"A deck is divided," replied the bright boy, "into spades, hearts, diamonds and clubs."—Philadelphia Press.

DO GOOD—IT PAYS.

A Chicago man has observed that "good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by The Modern Pharmacy.

FOR SALE.

Lumber, 3000 ft., two inch suitable for sidewalk, stable floor, bridge floor, etc., price $4 per M. Call at once.

GAINED FORTY POUNDS IN THIRTY DAYS.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Cough and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—Holley Bros., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by The Modern Pharmacy.

HE LEARNED A GREAT TRUTH.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and it is pleasant and safe to take.
