To relieve muscular strain of the eyes, that rob the vigor of the rest of the body, use Dr. Lowe's glasses.
He puts the cream of over 17 years' experience into them. They are intended for more than the aiding of vision. Do not procrastinate in the matter of having your eyes examined.

REQUESTS HANNA TO STAY.
In a conference held at the White House Nov. 9, President Roosevelt formerly requested Senator Hanna to retain the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. The President and Senator were in conference for some time notwithstanding the fact that several callers of note were waiting to see the President. At the close of the conference Senator Hanna refused to discuss the question either as to his retaining the chairmanship or as to his candidacy for President.

ELOCUTIONARY ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Laura Gertrude Thomas, one of the best known elocutionists in the United States will give an entertainment at the Opera House on the evening of Nov. 26, 1903, assisted by local talent. Miss Thomas lives in Chicago and in the west giving entertainments and at several places—notably Grants Pass, Ashland and Junction City—where she has been before, by request returns. Her entertainments are of a high class both entertaining and instructive. The humorous pieces recited, especially Mrs. Wigg's Cabbage Patch, in Evening always brings down the house.
