BIRTHDAY DINNER.

On Saturday, Dec. 12 there was a birthday dinner given at the residence of Jesse Trunnell, three miles south of town, the occasion being the 84th birthday of Grandma Trunnell. She received many elegant presents as tokens of the high regards entertained for her by the many friends and neighbors who had gathered around the happy home. The dinner was as fine as any we have ever had the pleasure of attending. The aggregate ages of the oldest four was 300 years. Despite her advanced age, Grandma is spry and strong and is very interesting to converse with. The company remained until late in the afternoon when all wished Grandma many happy birthdays and returned to their homes feeling was good to have enjoyed such a happy day.

FRIEND.

DAILY MEMORANDA CALENDAR.

The re-issue of the Pope bicycle daily-leaf calendar may be considered the opening gun proclaiming the natural and healthful return of bicycling. Col. Albert A. Pope, the founder of our bicycle industries and the pioneer in the good roads movement, is again at the head of the bicycle industry. Upon the 366 calendar leaves are freshly written lines, from the pens of our greatest college presidents, doctors, clergymen, statesmen, and other eminent men and women, all of them enthusiastically supporting bicycling. Half of each leaf is blank for memoranda. This calendar is free at the Pope Manufacturing Company's stores, or any of our readers can obtain it by sending five 2-cent stamps to the Pope Manufacturing Co., Hartford, or 143 Sigel street, Chicago, Ill.

County Commissioners Hill and Edwards were in the city yesterday on their return from a trip up Row river, where they had gone to inspect the bridge through which Mr. Joe Cole and his team were precipitated recently. Mr. Hill informs the Nugget that the bridge will be rebuilt this winter if the weather will permit, otherwise the work will be done until spring. Both commissioners said that Mr. Cole would be responsible for damages. They left for home on the noon train yesterday.

COUGHING SPELL CAUSES DEATH
Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1903. Ballard's Horsehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c, and $1.00. New Era Drug Store.

MRS. G. A. EALBERTON,
Dressmaking.

Agent for French Dress-Cutting System. Room 3, over Walker's paint store.

DIVIDE ITEMS.

Not much doing this week. Born December 14, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Geiweltz a nine pound boy.

About $16 subscribed for the Christmas tree. Nearly all of us on the sick list, some only slightly so, some worse. Floy Lee is ill with pneumonia, Dr. Schief is in attendance. She is reported as not being in danger at present writing. Rev. P. D. Gardner of Springfield who owns the former Alec Wright place here, was up here on business last week and while here preached at the school house. He will be here once a month until further notice.

RECTOR OF ST LUKE'S.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a good remedy. Respectfully yours, E. A. Langfield, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church, To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by New Era Drug Store.
