Sarah Exasted inclined her head more closely to the woman, who began albe pering about her hisband in a rambling fashion that was difficult to follow, up til she went suddouly back three steps, to Harah's surprise, and stood gaving at her, or at something near her.

"What is it?" exclaimed Sarah; "what woman stooding over the fire precycle, or at something near her.

"Fifteen thousand pounds over the fire precycle and greed.

"Fifteen thousand pounds only from the state of the stat was to a life apart from Sedge 11ill. and those who loved her there. She was lying on a bed, with Sophy Eastbell doz-log by the side of a scantily furnished terrous jump in her chair at finding her sister in law cronciled upon the hed, with her great dark eyes glaring at her. "Where have you brought me? Why sm I in this dreadful place?" Sarah ask-where the man eager voice.

"You're come round, have you's said.

Rophy. "Well, I am glad of that Blost if I didn't think they'd overdone it with their klory what's its name, and sent you bang off afore they meant it."

"If to Mr. Culwick, we—I should say,

Why have I been brought here?" she asked less putiently. "You'll know in good time, gal. There's no 'casion for a hurry, or a flurry. Take it cost. You're aske end?"

Sarah Flastbell was standing at the our of the room when she had recovered erself. It was locked, as she had ans-

"It's no use your thinking of getting out, Saily," said Tom's wife, "don't build on that, or harm will happen to you.

'Do you think I am the weak girl whom you remember last?" said Surah, walking from the door to the woman's side, and clutching her rightly by the waist, "or that I am to be frightened by wast, or that I am to be frightened by this trick of yours, and of the wretches who have assisted you? Do you know in what peril you have put yourself?"

"Oh, yes, we all know; it's all been thought on," said the woman bronically. "We're of the don't care sort, and have chanced it. You can't say it wasn't well done. Sally."

pany. You can't behave line a may, and all your fine flash silk. I have only to family to himself.

"You're done your parts well, boys," he said in a quick, sharp voice, "but there may be more to do."

Surah Eastbell released her hold: Yes. She was in danger, and must be can thouse. They who brought her to this den had risked a great deal in entrapping her, and would risk more rather than allow her to recape. She must be tendent and on her guard, not defiant and means ten thousand pounds between us aggressive.

"I ain't get no key, if you must know," said Sophy, as she returned to her chair and sat down: "this is my room, and we're both locked in together. I'm to ke charge of you, that's all, my ga! d think yourself locky it's me." "What place is it?" Sarah asked again

"A place of big'ness," was the enigmat Comers the old gang from Potter's Court—the Petersons," cried Sarah. Mrs. Eastbell did not answer. She warmed her thin hands at the fire, and a convenient cough prevented all possibil-ity of reply. She was a prudent woman, t likely to commit herself and her by responding to leading questions of this character.

The spiriting away of a young lady from home without her consent, and with-out leaving a cine wherewith to trace her, feat in the nineteenth cen and Mrs. Thomas Eastbell had shown a natural pride in the neatness of the achievement. True, the house was the achievement. True, the house was five or six miles from a quiet city, and was desolate enough at all times, the hour was late, the circumstances were opportune, and how to profit by the riches of old Mrs. Enathell and her granddaughter had been the study of six months, but till Mrs. Thomas Eastbell had s atill Mrs. Thomas Enstbell had some-thing to take credit for. It was a bold stroke carried out by desperate men, and of policy would have assuredly fail

It was the boldest bit of business that the Peterson gang had over been engag-ed in, and the Petersons had been en-gaged, under various aliases, in innumerable shady transactions. They had com-to "fresh fields and pustures" new" by adopting the fair county of Worcester a sphere for their operations; they had ted a tumble-down old edifice in wild part of the country, and put on the door the name of Jackson, button maker; they had even made a few acquaintances in distant villages, and bore a respecta-ble name among honest, manupicious folk who believed in them and their buttons. No one visited them certainly—it was an out-of-the-way place, to which nobudy was invited, and where only button making was the order of the day.

No one confounded the name of Jack son with Peterson—and it was possibly good policy in the Captain adopting his name when he went with Thomas own name when he went with Thomas Easthell to Sedge Hill. It kept matters clear and distinct, though he had not bargained for Sarah Eastbell's good mem was he who unlocked the door of he said, recining languidly against the He lingered at the door meditating on

There was no opportunity to say more, to servam, or to stringgle. Two strong sime closed round her, and a cloth, wet and sickly with drugs, was pressed to her mouth and nearths by a merciless hand, that somed to smatch her at once from active life to oblivion. When she came lack to consciousiess it was to a life spart from Sales 1999.

"How do you know what money is lodged in my name at the bank?" "Thomas tells me—that is all. He sent me here with your check book-he fire. There was a narrow window in the found that in your deek, too, he tells me side of the room, with some boards not bed across it to keep the light of one aplittering candle from betraying itself to the night.

Suddenly Sophy woke up, and gave a nervous jump in her chair at finding her states in two crouseld upon the hed will be at Sodge. Hill this evening. Miss Holland will tell you everything to-night," he said as he drew the check book from his pecket and pitched it care-lessly upon the deal table that was there. "I have left compthing for that young lady to explain. It is a story apart from yours, and suits not my style of narra-

Surah Eastbell was sitting at the edge of the bed now, regarding her jatter "Let him" cried Sarah with a subject with eager attention. She was scarcely outburst of anger.

"Am I to understand then—"

"An I to understand then..."
"That I will not sign one of those checks. Yes, understand that for your friend. You may kill me," she cried, "but you shall not touch a penny of Reuben Uniwick's money.

CHAPTER XXIII.

on your time," he said. "I will communi-cate with Thomas at once."

He unlocked the door and went to the He unlocked the door and went to the midding place beyond, closing and locking the door behind him. Finally he went down the rickety stairs, which were crumbling to pieces with the house, hat-ed at the bottom of the next flight, and listened at the right-hand door, as though there were snother prisoner close at hand. The door was not locked, and he opened it softly, and not his head into "Give me the key of the door, or couwill find me the stronger woman of the two!" cried Sarah.

"Don't ketch hold of my wrist like that," cried her sister-in-law, "or you'll be sorry if I go away, or if any one downstales comes up instead of me, because root are too wielent for my counpany. You can't behave like a indy, for sall your tine flash silk. I have only to solly, and put his head into the room beyond, withdrawing it in sither mean beyond, withdrawing it in sither mean beyond, withdrawing it in sithe flow and an or the the room beyond, withdrawing it in sithe flow and proceeding down another this gase: and proceeding down another flight of stairs, to a room on the ground floor, where three tall men, in shirt these men were Petersons, Captain Edthese men were Petersons, Captain Edthe sell your tine flash silk. I have only to family to himself.

"How's that?" inquired scoundrel num

He had mentioned fifteen thousand counds upstairs, but he and Thomas Castbell were keeping an extra five thou-and to themselves. Edward Peterson lid not tell his brothers everything when oney was in question.

"What more is to be done?" asked the first scoundrel, who was the worst-teered and most disputations member of going.

was the short answer; "at present the young lady is refractory."

"Will the girl sign the check before the day is out? that's the question," asked number one, "for we can't go on like

"I have said that it's her me woman would prefer to be fo any woman would prefer to be found in the Severn, to paying away money that she can afford to part with?"

"We don't want to hear snything about the Severn," said the first scoundrel; "you know what's safe better than we do, hat we'll have no hand in it. Dennis and I and Mike have talked it over, and won't go further than we've done aiready

You fools, have I naked you?" she d Peterson, springing to his feet you've done the work I've set you to do, and I will pay you for it and he rid of you. The money's safe, and I'll keep my word—as I always do, and always will. I don't want your help—you are in the way, and must go.

'Go!" echoed the men.
'This house will be unsafe after to at the old place, with you

One by one these men drifted away e, without a thought of Sarah safety, and with an immense mount of consideration for their own It was not murder that troubled the ind so acutely as complicity with it, de-ction, and sentence. If Ned would she all the risk, he might murder half Worcester for what they cared; but it was out of their line, and they would pre-fer to return to London as quickly as nossible, and wait for the money that kad been promised them, or the bad news they half expected instead. It was two ack in the afternoon before the ed went away down the narrow lan which led from the high road. Captain Peterson stood at the front door. He was in excellent spirits, and he waved his hand to the disputations Sarah's extempore cell at seven in the morning, and stood before her, the avowad agent of her captivity.

"I have come to apologise for my friends' rough treatment of last might," affair is likely to turn out."

overcast, and he looked up at it an prophesied to himself that it would rei prophesised to himself that it would rein before the morning. He walked round to the opposite side of the house and gazed modelly at the water flowing twenty paces from him, and at a host lying on this long grass above the river bank. One the long grass above the river bank. One glaines at the darkened window in the top most story where his fortune lay, he throught, and then he returned to the house meditating on the difficulties in his way, and of his genius to surmainst them. He went into the house, and upstairs to the first floor room, wherein we have seen him gage with interest at an early hour of the norming.

W

W

"Besa," he said in a sharp voice, and at the summons a small thin-faced child, in a hat and clouk, appeared at the door. "You have come back then, father."

"Yes,"

"Yes,"

"Yes."

Edward Peterson went downstairs, full room my heart I give fice joy; I was once a harefuct bay, oved by the little girl. At the front sor he said:

"You were when to have to your front."

Only is republican.

"You were wise to keep to rour room in day, little woman, for they have been very cross, and Mrs. Easthell has been very cross, and Mrs. Easthell has been worse than ever. You must find your way to Worcester to-night, all by your saif. Two miles from here is a rull-any station—you know it, where the red and green lights shine out like big eres after dark. You have run about here a good deal, and know your way well, and you can find the station. Now, take ears of that many."

Thou hast more than he can buy in the reach of ear and apendically a substitute of the property of

He placed some money in her hands. nd she wrapped it up in a corner of a city white handhershief, and tucked it swn the boson of her dress, wrapping or cloak round her afterward with all a carefulness and confidence of a

"At the railway station ask for a thirdclass ticket for Worcester. When the train comes up to the platform, get in. When they call ant 'Worcester,' get out. At Worcester a lady, very pretty, and with hands full of toys, will be waiting for you at the postoffice. Ask the way to the postoffice like a womain as you are, and when you see the lady under the clock, say. 'Pa keeps his word—I'm Bessite.''

"All right,"

"I the child again, with a form word of the surface toy!

"Extra word for a preference in her way."

LAWYERS AT CHEAP RATES.

Thirty-nine Ceats Is the Cost of Making One in the Old Bominion.

A local business man who was once the representative of one of the big increantile agencies tells a story of how he became a member of the bar in the State of Virginia a number of years ago. He had occasion to go to one of the inland counties of the State to make an examination of the county records in order to assertain the stand.

Waited on the barefoot bor. Cheerily, then, my little man. Live and laugh as bothood can: Though the flinty slopes be hard. Stablic speared the new mown awa Every morn shall lead thee through the dew: Every evening from thy feet. Shall the cool winds kiss the heat; All too soon those feet must hide to make an examination of the county records in order to assertain the stand.

Made to tread the militie man. Charten Assured the attended the authorized from the country of a number of country and down in considers molt, bell with his customary sang from the ing in the country of a number of country and down in considers molt, but the country of a number of country and down in considers molt, try merchants. Upon reaching the Happy if their track be found railroad station he found it necessary. Never on forbidden ground! to drive a distance of ten miles or more Happy if they sink not in over a read which was a mere apology Quick and treacherous sands of sin!

"After that, I need not trespass further for a highway. Reaching the county. Ah, that then couldst know thy joy for a highway. Reaching the county sent, he went to the clerk's office in the Ere it passes, harefoot boy! courthouse and proceeded to look over the records as he had done in many other places without any objection be ing offered. While he was still on his Home of the Carmelites in Mexico Is first book he was asked by one of the more than two miles away he would handsome old church of Nuestra Sen not have time to get him unless he ora del Carmen. Its triple domes, with missed the next train. ing the matter." the clerk informed the the attention of strangers approaching ministered and a certificate showing lastical monuments in all Mexico. It that the bulky individual is paying at the stranger was a full fledged lawyer was dedicated to the worshop of God least twice the small fledged lawyer was dedicated to the worshop of God least twice the sale that is the way they do it on was handed over to him.

was asked. "Pay the fee," he answered.

"What is the amount?" rompt response.

Star.

Tribe of Eskimos Found. The remnant of a remarkable and life, and I mean it! She will be back to-night at Sedge Hill, or she will never re-turn again. Mark that. Do you think Hudson Ray. It is said that until re-Their huts are built of the great jaws such Christian devotion and good will stone lamp used for lighting, heating, another's necks and wept. clothes. The lamp is only a dish of as follows:

The sensitiveness of the families of distinguished men as to the early occupations of their ancestors is son what remarkable. Recently an author was asked to write a brief history of the life of a man who had done service o his state. Like Lincoln, this man had been a woodchopper, a fact to which his historian gave prominence. "Don't say he was a 'woodchopper,' " said the spokesman of the family.

"What shall I say then?" asked the "Say-let me see now. Just say that

Kaiser Wilhelm takes great interes n the work of the Y. M. C. A. lu

The rarest of flowers is candor.-Ra-

OLD INDIAN BATTLEFIELD.

OLD gled for the Mastery. FAVORITES

Let the million-dollared ride; Barefoot, trudging at his side, Thou hast more than he can buy,

Me, their master, waited for! I was rich in flowers and trees, Hummingtirds and honey bees: For my sport the squirrel played, Filed the shouted mole his spade. For my tasts, the blackberry cons Purpled over hedge and stone; Laughed the brook for my delight, Through the day and through the Whispering at the garden wall, Talked with me from full to fall; Mine the sand-rimmed pickerel pond; Mine the walnut slopes beyond; Mine, on bending orchard trees,

"All right," of the child again, with a rare amount of confidence in her own comprehension of the defails, which however, he asked her to repeat, briefly ing attentively to the revital.

Else my bowl of milk and bread! (Fowter again and bowl of wood) On the doorstep, gray and rude! O'er me fike a regal tent, she should grieve for it or him, and there had been a promise of a glorious should been a promise of a glorious should for her, and a high world. The tan off quickly toward the parrow lane, already full of shadow that marky afternoon (To be continued.)

(To be continued.)

Fastmomer for a business of the country bowl of milk and bread! (Fowter again and bowl of wood) On the doorstep, gray and rude! (Fowter again and the wood) On the doorstep, gray and rude! (Fowter again I was monarch; pemp and joy Waited on the barefoot box. John G. Whittier.

OLD MONASTERY IN RUINS.

Now a Mass of Debris clerks if he was a member of the bar. The suburban town of San Angel, at "Not in Virginia," he answered in a the base of the foothills, three-quartone indicating that he was a member ters of an hour from the captual by their tiles shining brightly in the sun-"There will be no trouble in arrang- light, are the first objects that arrest in 1617, or three years before the pilas handed over to him.

"What shall I do now?" the clerk grim fathers of New England landed is weighed, and pays according to his as asked.

On Plymouth Rock. The interior is avoirdupois. Before he enters the car on Plymouth the state of the steps upon a weighing machine, his be steps upon a weighing machine, his ome notable paintings by the famous "Thirty-nine cents," was the clerk's Mexican artist Cabrera. Pious women have adorned the chapel of our lady, The money was paid and the man which is one of the features of this from Washington returned home and uncient church, and the magnificent told how he became a lawyer for the Churrigueresque ornamentation of the small sum of 39 cents.—Washington northern transept is a splendld specimen of this most distinctive Spanish nitherto lost tribe of Eskimos has re- died of disease during the war of the North American invasion, when the ad-of whales covered with skins. In the that when the troops evacuated San brilliancy in color, and was often en- difference in the temperature after middle is an elevation, on which is a Angel monks and soldlers fell on one hanced in effect by a gaily colored tur- dark, but it is possible to adapt oneself ban, sometimes worn ranishly on one is a certain fascination about it that, now?" asked one. "The professional, I whale oil, in which is a wick of dry | "In the year 1613 Don Felipe De inoss. Indeed, the whale is the chief Guzman, a pious 'cacique' of Chimalis-Boylston, owned by Harvard Univer-means by which these people live, the tac, in fulfillment of his father's testa-sity, depicts that eminent benefactor bones being utilized for making plates, ment, gave up to the Carmelite order and sober citizen in a banian of sky cups and sledges, but they also use a huerta of considerable size. Here blue brocade, a scarlet turban and scarcaps and sieeges, and walrus tusks, with deer the Carmelites built a little hospice. let morocco slippers. antlers for cross pieces. The tribe is Don Filepe De Guzman presently died. almost extinct, as only some sixteen and a little lated died also his widow, she describes is still in existence, and are left. They speak a dialect peculiar childless. By her will the entire es- is made of a cotton fabric with varicolalght, and we must vanish before it's to themselves and are very daring tate of which she died possessed pass-ported. I will be in London to-morrow hunters. ed to the Carmelite fathers, and by soft silk of brownish orange spotted these it was devoted to the building with green and white. A piece of white of the existing monastery and church. linen sewn on the cuff is inscribed with The plans for these buildings were prepared by the celebrated architect Fray Andres De San Miguel, a lay brother of the Carmelite order, and at that time held to be the first architect of New Spain. That this reputation was well merited is shown by the beauty of his still existing work. was begun June 20, 1015, and was pushed with so much vigor that the surch and convent were finished within two years. The church was dedicated to San Angelo Martir, whence came the name of the little town that presently grew up around it.-Modern he was connected with the lumber Mexico.

Reflection on His Neighbor. "Paw, what is a 'spite fence'?" 'Any backyard fence, Tommy."hicago Tribune.

Many a woman loves her busband ess than her husband's wife.

Where Iowa and Kansos Tribes Strug-

George Remeburg believes he has iscovered the scene of a great fight and between the Iowa and Kansas Indians near what is known as Oak any temporary teeth has in its laws, come out in the open, and when they Mills, in Atchison County. The Kanelson County along the either crupted or noncrupted, no fewer do will lodge at the slightest alarm has Indiana held the country along the than fifty two teeth more or less forminto their underground homes. But Missouri River until about the time ed. battles. At this point many human equally, ones and implements of war have Gates at frequent intervals ber the county has traditions of fights of this riers, ments of the kind took place in com- lands. Pawnies and Sioux in the railey of instrated in the collection of photo-Beaver Creek, near the northwest cor-graphs of snow crystals made during from my hand, would run up my her of Kansas. The Pawnees were the past twenty years by W. A. Bent-slaughtered in great numbers, the ley, of Vermont, He has now more Sioux being the victors. After the than one thousand photographs of inlattle the Pawnees returned and cared dividual crystals, and among them no for their dead. This they did by erect- two are alike.

the whitened bones of the dead reposing upon them. A buffalo hunter once told Topics of a curious sight be saw at this graveyard. Some "horse hunt-ers" were hunting in the vicinity. Horse hunters were those who chased the buffalo on horseback, and they were hated cordially by the "foot hunters," who stalked the game, because they ran the buffalo out of the conn-

On the occasion mentioned the horse unters stampeded a great herd of buffalo right through the Pawnee rection. Indeed, when they had passed not a platform remained standing. In the years which followed many passing hunters picked up skulls and

One of these skulls was secured by a ow had gone through one side and from land, early through the other. People who used to look at this skull and marvel. It has about one-fifth of all the cotton at the prodigious force which the Indians could give to their primitive than twice as many as any other inweapon.-Kansas City Journal.

PAY AS THEY WEIGH.

or themselves and give every man a the fastest express train could here is the trouble with overcrowding is more than two miles a minute n street cars that is to be found in New York, but on the Pueblo Valley slim strip of a counter-jumper sitting next him the C. J. does not meditate weight is automatically stamped upon a slip of paper, which he gives to the conductor, who charges him accordingly. The moral effects of this system are far-reaching, and New York officials may take notice,

STEPPING ON WEIGHING MACHINE.

Kept for Thankfulness mode of decoration. Beneath this Mrs. Alice Morse Earle, in her recent transept rest in their eternal sleep 45 book on costume in America, devotes American soldiers, who were killed or much space to that curious dressing month. gown er negligee costume for men called the banian; a flowing garment there it takes the people all the rest of joining monastery of the Carmelite so popular with the fine gentlemen of the year after the rainy senson to get fathers was converted into a military a contury ago that they frequently dry cently these people have never had an hospital and barracks, the good fathers elected to wear it when having their | In the dry season the heat is intense, opportunity of seeing a white man, nursing the wounded Americans with portraits painted. It could be made of the mercury ranging from 80 to 90 de any degree of richness in texture and grees day and night. There is little ban, sometimes worn rakishly on one to the conditions of the place and there wig of full dress.

Copley's painting of Dr. Nicholas

The most interesting banian which ored palm-leaf design and lined with its history:

"This Banyan was made in Cantoz in 1702 for Archelaus Brown by Chi nese Taylors. It was made by order of his son, Rufus Brown; Supercargo of the bark The Lively Nancy. cleared $100,000 of Chinese gold cash for a venture of $100 of Ginseng: and Barrel of dried Sage of his Mother's venture cleared a Chiney ten set, 2 Crape Shawls and $100. All lost by Shipwrack but one small Chest mostly Books. He was mourned 1 year Etienne, France. as Dead & He came in on horsely waring this Banyan for the last of his othes was were out and Rotten with Sait Water and Sun. A very live dress he sayd for a Dead Man. Which is kept for Thankfulness." Many a fool man expresses his will urness to die for a weman who wouldn't even take in washing for him. mighty dollar under the wire.

QUEER STORIES

tribes, which came down from the lily than those that have daily work Four-footed Trails' tells of catching a North and conquered the region. The to do. It is a fact, however, and, be Oak Mills location is supposed to have log s fact, the thing to do is to take trap, and putting them in a cage made een the place of one of their greatest palos to eat on both sides of the mouth especially for them, country roads in Norway, and are a Kansas has been the scene of Indian nuisance to travelers, who have to battles innumerable and almost every leave their vehicles and open the bar-These obstructions mark the boundaries of farms, or separate the One of the most remarkable engage- cultivated sections from the waste paratively modern times between the Nature's infinite variety is well if ther animals.

When the first fringe of the white days. A rug 12x12 feet would there. Then I noticed that the canvas which settlement had reached as far as Philifore require the labor of one man for I had used to patch the broken wire Hps County some of these platforms 3,312 days, or over ten years, not counting Sundays.

In the Smithsonian report on scienabout one one-hundred thousandth of a proved that temperature can now be to my query was to finish the tail and measured to less than one one-hundred-millionth of a degree readily and A few days after this tragedy I was with precision.

After a series of experiments with ones of the dead flying in every di- have decided to erect permanent pig-Wilhelmshaven, will beceafter carry a tions. It is estimated that the birds

Fall River easily lends all other cotand seen the bow only in its toy form ton manufacturing centers in America, spindes in the United States, and more dustrial center in America. It makes 843.000,000 yards of cloth annually. Every working day its mills weave more than 1,500 miles of cloth. If all It takes Western people to look out the mills could be run on one plece, fair show, even in rapid transit. It is travel fast enough to carry off the not probable that in Pueblo, Colo., piece as it is woven, since the product

Nowhere is the woman doctor more in evidence than in Russia. Among Railrond every man pays according to the wild and scattered population of this weight. If the corpulent minewner and his fur coat envelop the exhaustible field for women as doctors and teachers, and it is the knowledge of this fact which has disarmed the pposition to their going through untversities. In 1897 Russia had 997 romen doctors and the number constantly increases. In this profession guished name. They have enormous Colorado. Charley was out looking practices in the great towns, and are deer. He was equipped with an largely employed by the municipali-

Rain Is Always on Time. In few places on the earth has the weather prophet as easy a time as in Entering a private room, the oath or campanario, is distinctive, and the and their monopolies, for he knows and edifice is one of the handsomest eccles. At 3 a'clook prope oft. and it seldom falls to be on time. This is the rule all through the rainy season. The morning is clear and the evening, after 6 o'clock, is delightful, and except from 3 till 6 o'clock nobody ever thinks of carrying an umbrella. Not so at Colon, only forty-seven say be'd like a piece of deer, and then miles away. There it rains all the time during the rainy season and it never rains but it pours. Water comes down by the bucketful. At Panama the an nual rainfall is in the neighborhood of nine feet, while that of Colon is twenty-one feet, and it all comes in five months an average of four feet a

It is humorously said of Colon that He had a fine voice, and was greatly in the case of some people, seems to make up for the heat The Magic of Carbon.

Steel is cast iron, balf-way on to-ward wrought-iron. It has some of the stiff-harsh, stubborn traits of the castiron, combined with the bending, yielding qualities of the wrought iron, and ter to be a good architect than a pretty inherits from its pig-iron forefather the good musician and a fairly good archifamily trait of absorbing carbon. Car- teet. bon, then, in varying proportions, is the great distinguishing mark between iron and steel. The subtle play of this element, as found in steel, is one of the most marvelously fascinating exhibitions of natural phenomens. The amailest quantity, changed in the ness and vital force when wounded slightest degree, produces effects as different as night from day .- St. Nicholas.

District Technical Schools. improving the artistic education of the single-barreled muzzle-loading orking girls and designers are about to be opened in certain centers in St.

Water Power Lights City. The city of Grenoble, France, in stalled its new system of electric light ing from a water power source twentyeven miles distant, in the valley of the Romanche,

Politeness occasionally beats the al

A SINGING MOUSE

Was One of a Pair of Field Mice that Had Been Made Pets.

The wise little field mice seem to be fully aware of their constant danger A child of 6 who has not yet lost from enemies. By day they seldom after twilight they venture out for of our revolutionary war, when they It is a curious fact that the teeth food or to make a friendly visit to a were driven away by the Sac and Iowa that are seldom used decay more rap. neighbor. Buth A. Cook in "Along

They soon grew accustomed to their new home. I firmly fastened a small tree-branch in the center of the cage. This afforded the little creatures very great pleasure, and they would crawl up its trunk and out on the slender branches, which would bend with their weight almost to the ground. On these ecusions they used their long talls to aid them in climbing by giving them sleeve, and dart back again at any sight or sound.

One night, as I was about to retire I heard a peculiar little squeak, and rushed at once to the mouse-cage. The for their dead. This they did by erecting platforms out of poles and branches, and putting the bodies on them out of the reach of wolves and the square foot of surface a bad always brought them from their them out of the reach of wolves and the square foot of surface a bad always brought them from their them. was eaten away, and at last my peta had found freedom.

I looked about the room for them. tific work for 1902, Professor Langley and z: I did so I saw a sight that remarks that when the bolometer was shocked me. The family cat was busy invented, some twenty years ago, it munching something. There was a lit was able to measure temperature to the blood-stain on the floor, and a small tle blood-stain on the floor, and a small gray tall still protruded from her Since then the instrument mouth. Was it Deacon or Quaker or and its adjuncts have been so far im- both? The only answer the cat gave awakened one night by hearing a sweet little shrill song, not unlike that graveyard. They struck the rotten carrier pigeons for conveying intell. of a miniature cannry. The song poles in their mad flight and sent the gence, the German mayal authorities ceased when I began to move about, and I had my trouble for my reward. Night after night I was serenaded by this mysterious nocturnal musician. The whole family heard it, and joined me in the search for the source of it. other hones and carried them away as consignment of pigeons, to be released at varying distances from the land sta.

All our attempts to solve the mystery at varying distances from the land sta. tile until one evening I went to take man at Hays City. It was remarkable from the fact that an iron-pointed arfore my eyes sat dear little Quaker! Her little throat was actually pouring forth the sweet refrain. She had made a nest in my rather expensive hat. But Quaker had demonstrated herself a singer. She was recaptured after time, but while I had her she never sang again. I have never been able to determine whether she lost her power of song through loss of liberty or because she was lonely or for some phy-slological reason; all that is certain is

HOW UTE CHARMED A GRIZZLY. Indian Found Bear Susceptible to the Powers of Argument. "the most interesting story I ever heard came from the lips of old 'Buck-skin Charley,' chief of the Southern Utes," said J. P. Adtberger of Phila-delphia.

"As told by a white man the narrative is tame, indeed, lacking the dramatic action and eloquence of the red warrior. It was about a meeting with Russian women have made a distin-guished name. They have enormous Colorado. Charley was out looking for fashloned, mussle-loading rifle, which put him at a terrible disadvantage, when he was suddenly confronted by ne of the biggest specimens of the grizzly he ever saw. "'I jumped behind big tree very outck,' he said, 'and Mr. Bear came close, rearing up on his hind legs. I was scared to shoot, only having one said: "Mr. Bear, I am your friend, come out after deer, I hope you go way and so I kill deer and leave big plece of meat for you." Then the bear seemed to get friendly, and he dropped on his legs to the ground, much as to he run off into the mountains."-

Poor Jack of all trades! So strong is the prejudice against him that he is even denied the right to practice avocation lest it interfere with his calling. This is an age of narrow specialization. When John Belcher, known now as a daring and original architect. was a young man he gave a good deal time to music.

demand at evening parties. One evening, after he had sung, to oud applause, he overheard two gendemen talking him over:

mean. "Ob, that was Mr. Belcher, an archi-

"Well, he can't be much of an architect if he can sing like that." The listener never sang again save at home. He decided that it was bet-

The Grizzly of Old Days. In the old days, before the deadly agazine rifle was invented, hunting the grizzly was a very different affair. and no animal on the American confilling the most reckless of hunters with a wholesome dread. It was not at all unusual for a grizzly with a builet through his heart to pursue and tear to pieces the hunter, whose long with its one round lead bullet, was altogether inadequate for such a con It is a strange thing, too, that while the grizzly bear is an omniver-ous feeder, living on anything from roots and nuts to steer and bu meat, he has never been known to de rour human flesh.—St. Nicholas.

English Walnuts from California California produces more English walnuts than all the other States, and they are of better quality.