FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1904.

A Quiet Election.

The Election on Monday passed off very quietly in Cottage Grove. What little interest was shown was over the office for Sheriff and the Local Option question.

It was apparent from the first that all the efforts of the democrats would be concentrated on their nominee for Sheriff. Fisks popularity gained from a long residence in the County and his record since his appointment as Sheriff made him a formidable candidate. This together with the special effort made for him all over the county, elected him by a large majority. It is probably Stiles ran as well as any one who might have been nominated.

The balance of the republican ticket came out ahead.

Our candidate for Representative I. H. Bingham, may well feel proud of the vote he received. Local Option seems to have been carried by a fair majority.

Good Results Obtained.

The results of the winter's work in Bohemia have been very satisfactory. As was suggested in the Nugget early last winter when the snow compelled all outside work to be suspended, it would cause those who remained in the district to do all their work under ground. This was the case and we have yet to learn of an instance where great improvement was not the result where any considerable work was done. The Crystal Consolidated, Vesuvius, Oregon Securities, Riverside, Sunset, Oregon-Colorado, Champion Basin, North Fairview and several others are examples.

The season has just fairly opened and many owners of properties are beginning work on their properties. This promises to be the best season in the history of Bohemia.

Oregon Securities.

The Nugget publishes on the front page the report of G. B. Hengen to the Stockholders of the Oregon Securities Company. There has been several inquiries recently from Eastern subscribers concerning this company. The report gives a fair, conservative statement of the affairs of the company represented by Mr. Hengen and it is published for the benefit of all interested parties.

A NEW KIND OF GEOLOGIST.

An English professor of geology says that he once received a call from a man who was at the head of a large commercial enterprise. He wished to consult the professor about the instruction of his son, who would ultimately inherit his vast business and wealth.

"But, mind you," said he, "I don't him to learn about stratus or want or faults or unevens or denudations, and I don't want him to fill his mind with fossils or stuff about crystals.—What I want him to learn is how to find gold and silver and copper in paying quantities, sir, in paying quantities."

Unfortunately for such people, the preparation for no business in life can be kept down to such severely practical limitations.—Success.

The final payment in the form of a check for $17,500 for the Snow Creek property in the Greenhorns, Eastern Oregon, was made last week.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? A dose of Horebine at bed time and frequent small doses of Horehound Syrup during the day will remove it. Try it for whooping cough, for asthma for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. 1st Street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for 5 years, and find it the best and most palatable medicine I ever used." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Morgan & Brehaut.

Eugene Reister.

George E. Waggoner of the Oregon Blue River Mining Company, was in Eugene yesterday looking after transportation of a 10-stamp mill to the Badger mine, one of the group in their valuable Blue River property.

Mr. Waggoner is one of many mining men in Blue River district who have unbounded faith in the greatness of the future and who is not afraid to put money into development work and into stamp mills by which to extract the precious metal from the gold lined quartz of that district.

While in the city Mr. Waggoner presented a petition to a number of business men, who did not hesitate to sign. This petition asks the county court to buy the private roadway leading from Blue River City up to the Lucky Boy mine and build a mile and half of road beyond toward the Badger and several other valuable properties.

SOUVENIR ALBUM.

F. J. Hard and Co., with offices at Portland and Boston, have issued a Souvenir Album of about sixty-four pages. It contains a number of views of some of the handsome scenery of Oregon; also has devoted a large number of its pages to the scenery in and about Bohemia, with a picture of Cottage Grove.

There is also descriptive matter of "Prosperous Oregon", Seventh Annual Session of the American Mining Congress, "Good words for Portland", "Opportunities for good Mining Investments," Mine and Mining Companies in Bohemia and other interesting matter. While they last a letter addressed to the company at Portland will secure one.

THROWN FROM A WAGON.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best remedy he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. POPULAR OCEAN BEACH.

Many From the Willamette Valley to Spend Their Vacation at the Sea Shore.

Hundreds from the Willamette Valley spent their vacation at North (Long) Beach, Washington, last summer, and it is safe to say that this popular resort of the North Pacific Coast will be visited by many more this year than ever before in its history. The change from the valley to the sea level opens up an entirely new realm of scenic charms.

The trip on the Willamette and Columbia rivers, out of Portland, is one long to be remembered. The usual heat of a summer afternoon being tempered by a gentle breeze freighted with the aroma of pine trees and seasoned with salt sea air. The scenery includes much that is beautiful. Leaving Portland on one of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's palatial river steamers, (the T. J. Potter being queen of river flyers) the excursionist is carried through the harbor where fly the flags of many nations. The twelve miles on the Willamette river are quickly made, and, after saluting the government light house, marking the junction of the two rivers, the boat swings into the Columbia for the trip down stream. The morning is clear (generally so from June until September), and a magnificent and inspiring sight meets the eye as the sweep around the bend is made—five snowcapped peaks, Mount Hood, Mount Adams, Mount Saint Helen, Mount Rainier and Mount Jefferson, looming into view—a sight worth traveling thousands of miles to see. On down the picturesque river, past villages, sawmills, fishing fleets, salmon canneries, perpendicular basaltic bluffs, and pretty side-hill farms, the boat pursues its way. The majestic sweep of the river is awe-inspiring. Gradually the shores grow farther apart and, scarcely realizing that the five hours have been consumed in making the trip, the boat steams alongside the wharf at Astoria.

One hour from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia, past scores of salmon traps and nets and as many white-winged fish boats, land the passengers at Ilwaco, on Baker's Bay, where connection for beach points is made with trains of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Company, whose cars stand on the wharf waiting the steamer. North Beach, where the surf bathing is unexcelled, at low tide is from 200 to 400 feet wide, twenty-three miles long and so compact that a carriage or wagon scarcely leaves a trace upon it. Scattered along the beach are hundreds of cottages and hotels in which summer life is an unceasing round of pleasure from the opening until the closing of the season. The much dreaded "Resort Mosquito" is unknown and no venomous snakes or insects are found. The thermometer rarely goes above 80 degrees in July

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by New Era Drug Store.
