Parents Attention.

The old method of teaching a child to read by the uninteresting meaningless plan of learning his A B C's has long since been superseded by the word system. The methods of teaching must have kept pace with the improved methods of teaching school. The old tedious, discouraging method of teaching the five-finger exercise and scales has given place to a method which interests and delights children as well as grown people.

Mrs. Roy Welch has taught music for eight years during which time she won East twice to study. Recently she had the privilege of a year's continuous study under an own pupil of Calvin Gady of Boston, Mass., whose genius has revolutionized the method of teaching music.

Drop a card in the P. O. and Mrs. Welch will call upon you and give you an idea of the method whereby one can begin reading and writing music from the first lesson.

Caught With 31 Hides.

State Game Warden Baker reports that Deputy Warden Marvin arrested George Fisher of Douglas county, for violation of the game laws. Fisher asked for trial by jury. Thirty-one deer hides were found in his possession and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. He received a fine of $100 and costs. This is the third time this party has been arrested and the second time for him.

Deputy Warden arrested John Patten for same offense. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25.

Chinese Pheasants.

Under the decision of Attorney General Crawford, Chinese pheasants can be hunted from October 1st to December 1st. Ten pheasants is the limit for one day's hunt. The last 15 days of November they can be sold in the markets.

SAFEGUARD FOR CHILDREN.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitable inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is probably not one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by New Era Drug Store.

FARMERS ATTENTION.

We have a large supply of cheap lumber, just what you want on a ranch, price very cheap, must be sold to make room for other stock.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., Saguinaw, Ore.
