THE LEWIS & CLARK CENTENNIAL
PORTLAND - OREGON - 1905

FOR AN ORE EXHIBIT.
During the latter part of August beginning on the 22nd and closing on the 27th the American Mining Congress will hold its 7th annual session. For the past three or four months, Secretary Mahon has been industriously circulating literature concerning the Congress and urging upon the authorities of the various states the appointment of delegates who will attend this gathering. In many instances the request has been complied with and an assurance is given that a large delegation will be present upon this occasion. Mining is one of the most important industries in a number of States and it is fast assuming a high position in Oregon. The mineral resources are here and it only needs the united efforts of the people to develop them and place Oregon well up in the list of mining States.
Cottage Grove, although 35 miles from the Bohemia mines, is owing to the fact it is the only gateway to those mines where people must first come before reaching that point and is also the base of supplies, directly interested in the development of the mines of that district.
The Commercial Club of Cottage Grove realizing this fact has decided that Bohemia shall be properly represented not alone by an exhibit of the ores, but by an exhibit of the ores. Every mine owner will be asked to make a collection of ores from his properties, and send them properly labeled to the end of the O. and S. E. track where they will be taken charge of by that road and brought to this city free. After reaching this point the committee will receive them and see that they are placed on exhibition in Portland at the proper time. As was recently said by Col. Mahon, "If you have something up there in which you have confidence let it be known. If not why of course keep it still."

OFF FOR BLUE RIVER.
G. R. Chrisman, county judge, and Commissioners H. D. Edwards and H. M. Price, leaves in the morning for a trip over the McKenzie road to Blue River to note the needed improvements to the road. The court will probably put in an extra day and make the trip to the mines before returning. It was the intention of a number of business men to leave for the mines today on a tour of inspection, but some of the party, being unable to get away, they have postponed the journey until a later date.—Eugene Register.
The above mentioned officials learning that a government official will soon be at Eugene to demonstrate a good roads proposition, gave up their trip to Blue River and came to Cottage Grove to examine the County road about two miles east of town, where the Row River is cutting it away.

THE "AMERICAN" NATION.
From the New York World.—Secretary Hay's order that our embassies abroad shall be officially designated as "American" will be criticised by our Canadian consuls, yet it is a sensible arrangement.
Hitherto the official designation has been "the embassy of the United States," which was inaccurate, since several other countries are called "the United States of Venezuela, of Brazil, and so on. Each is known abroad by its last name. "The Brazilian minister," "the Venezuelan envoy," are terms everywhere in common use. So "the American ambassador" has always had one meaning, even before Mr. Hay's order was issued.
Undoubtedly we are all "Americans" together, but no nation save "the United States of America" has put the name into its official title. The new nomenclature is short, convenient and will be universally understood.

KILL THE PANTHERS.
T. C. Scarr in a letter to the Roseburg Plaindealer says: It takes about two little beauties (spotted fawns) each day to satisfy the appetite of the panther. I can find these little fellows nearly every day in the week now, and in the fall I will perhaps see a hundred large deer before I see one of them, and where are they? It would be much more to the credit of the state to fix a bounty of not less than $25 a bounty of every panther killed in the state instead of arresting a poor man living in the hills for killing a buck at this time of the year. If the state is too poor to afford a bounty, then the federal government ought to place a bounty on them, for I do believe that a panther kills more deer in a year than any half dozen hunters. It is said that a panther can not be caught in a trap. I have a steel trap that weighs 32 pounds, and during the last rain storm a panther killed my largest Angora wether. The next day we found what was left of the goat (about one half) neatly covered up. We set the trap and in four hours had him. I have long since learned that when a panther furnishes the bait himself he can be caught in a trap, and in no other way have I been able to get them into a trap. This is my experience with the cowardly brute.

CLOUDBURSTS AND DROUTH.
Oregon Daily Journal.
As was remarked awhile back, this is a freaky year meteorologically. While western Oregon is experiencing an unprecedented drowth for this time of year, eastern Oregon is being subjected to an almost continuous series of cloudbursts, occurring in several counties and causing considerable damage in the aggregate, yet a very small comparative loss of crops or other property. The flood that overtook the little town of Mitchell was the worst in results; Heppner, that naturally was apprehensive, fortunately escaping with slight damage.
It is to be presumed that these abnormal conditions will change soon, but even if they continue for a while we can look at reports from other states and be thankful nevertheless that we live in Oregon in stead of in one of them.

Those devoted to outdoor exercise should find plenty of interest in the coming Presidential campaign says the Oregonian, for both President Roosevelt and Judge Parker are excellent examples of the value of sports. The President's athletic pursuits range from riding the jujitsu, while Judge Parker's morning swims have lately acquired National fame. Even the venerable ex-Senator from West Virginia Henry G. Davis, declares that he "would rather ride a horse than go to the opera any time," adding with a smile that meant he was thinking of another distinguished Democrat. "Yes, I would rather ride than go fishing even." Riding and swimming have displaced the more meditative pleasures of angling this year, and it is now up to Senator Fairbanks to come out as a boxer or wrestler on the Republican team is to have an equal standing with the Democratic.

NIGHT WAS HER TERROR.
"I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 55 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Morgan & Brehaut.

THE DOMESTIC GOOSE.
Its Value as Market Poultry—Feed For Geese.
The price of geese in the eastern markets during the past winter ranged from 9 cents per pound for the lower grades to 35 cents per pound for the very finest, as sold in the best meat markets in the large cities. Between the lower and the higher prices they quoted about 16, 20, 24, 28 and 30 cents per pound, according to quality, says the Feather. Those that are known as mongrel geese demanded the higher prices. The mongrel geese are the result of crossing the wild Canada goose with the African. This produces a fine, large, high flavored table fowl, and this variety of geese brings the highest prices when properly raised and nicely presented for sale.
Geese will lay from twelve to as high as thirty eggs in a season. It is always better to permit the goose to hatch her own eggs. When there are more eggs than the goose can take care of, they can well be hatched under very large chicken hens and the goslings turned over to the goose to care for them.
Boiled hominy and rice are very good for the young goslings. Never feed them any whole corn or corn of any kind. Let all their feed be mixed or mashed feed, rather dry, with a plentiful supply of cooked vegetables in same. Always provide plenty of grazing on good grass or clover. After the goslings are fairly well started they will need but little attention or feeding, provided the grazing grasses are rich and plentiful.
When fattening time comes the young geese that are intended for market should be confined in close quarters and fed plentifully on fattening foods of all kinds. A good diet to start them is ground oats mixed with water; after this some barley meal may be added to same, and steamed or cooked potatoes mashed up and mixed with buckwheat flour and oats. All of these moist foods may be fed warm, but not hot.

Large Flocks.
It is generally believed that fowls do better and lay better in comparatively small flocks, say twenty to fifty, than in a mob; the theory being that the food is more evenly distributed and individuals have a better opportunity. We have seen a thousand Plymouth Rock hens running together, but they divide up into flocks of about fifty in the twenty roosting pens on the main floor of the poultry house; they were all in the basement of the house when we saw them together. "These were on the farm of Mr. Prescott, near Boston. On Mr. Henry Van Dresser's farm, Cobleskill, N. Y., there are 1,200 White Leghorns housed in the long house, and all run at large together over a fifty (or more) acre pasture when let out; in the house they are in flocks of about fifty in the twenty four pens. We saw on a highly prosperous poultry farm in Maine 240 fine looking Barred Plymouth Rock pullets, all in one house. The owner said she cleaned annually about $2 profit per hen on her birds; she has only seven eggs and cockerels running with that number of pullets, and last year the eggs from a flock kept in similar condition averaged 90 per cent fertile and "hatched splendidly."—Reliable Poultry Journal.

Woods in Alfalfa.
The most successful method of controlling weeds in alfalfa consists in frequent mowing during the first year, even when the alfalfa plants have not attained sufficient height for haymaking. Repeated clipping with the mower during the first summer will do much to repress weeds and to thicken the stand of alfalfa by making the plants throw out a greater number of stems.
Protection From Sun Scald.
Sun scald kills thousands of newly set trees. The wind also whips them unmercifully unless supported. Kill two birds with one stone by driving two sharpened strips of board on the sunny side of the tree, as shown in the cut, tying a bit of cord about the top, advises American Agriculturalist.
This guards against both sun and wind, and the tree will have a much better chance of getting safely through the critical first season. This protection can be left on during the winter and will prevent effectively injury from rabbits, mice, etc. Renew as often as necessary until the tree has passed the danger period.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.
"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va., "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine. This remedy is for sale by New Era Drug Store."

Therefore I recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism. Price, 1.00. Sold by Morgan & Brehaut."

BRUTALLY TORTURED.
A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Godolick of C. J. J. writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known, I came across Electric Bitters and its the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Morgan and Brehaut, Druggist.
