TEXT.

"If any man will do this he shall know of the doctrine." John 7-17: CHRIST'S CHALLENGE TO MEN.

Christ's appeal is to carnest souls. He presupposes a yearning to know the truth. He does not argue. He deals in assertion. He throws a challenge down before every human being.

That Challenge consists of condition and fulfilment. The condition is man's part; the fulfilment God's part. The condition is the doing of God's will; the fulfilment is the consciousness of the truth wrought by God in the obedient

Obedience to God's will in every known respect is the condition of perfect consciousness of the truth. No futile effort will avail. There need be no futile effort. Omnipotent power is assured. But to get that power there must be rightness with God and rightness with man. Then that power comes and we can do God's will every time. Doing
