

Ayer's

Stop it, or you will soon be bald. Give your hair some Ayer's Hair Vigor. The falling will stop, the hair will grow, and the scalp will be clean and healthy. Why be satisfied with poor hair when you can make it rich?

My hair nearly all came out. I then tried Ayer's Hair Vigor and only one bottle stopped the falling. Now my hair is as thick and healthy as ever. — Mrs. L. M. BARTON, Haverhill, N. H.

HUMOROUS SAYINGS AND DOINGS HERE AND THERE.

Jokes and Jokelets that Are Supposed to Have Been Recently Born—Sayings and Doings that Are Old, Curious and Laughable—The Week's Humor.

Biggs—Did you ever notice what a healthy-looking man Dr. Pellet is?
Diggs—Yes; he looks so different from his patients. I wonder who his physician is?

Force of Habit.
 "I appreciate the fact that you have honored me with a proposal," said the dear girl, "but are you sure your love for me is the real thing?"
 "Perhaps not," frankly replied the young drug clerk, "but it is less expensive and just as good."

Equal to the Emergency.

At Stingsy Woman.
 Employment Agent—Why did you leave Mrs. Goodwin so soon? She is said to be a very nice woman.
 Domestic—Nice! She's that stingy she begrudges the very air she breathes.
 "You must see."
 "Judge for yourself. Kerossene is half worth over twice cents a gallon, is it?"
 "No."
 "Well, she 'most had a fit 'cause I started to pour a few drops of it in the kitchen stove."

Mr. Lovelorn—Oh, Miss Matilda, my heart is on fire for thee—it is burning!
 Miss Matilda—Sakes alive! Thee ought to put it out and cool ye, too!

His Explanations.
 "But why," I asked the good wife, "are you so anxious to secure the top flat in that ten-story apartment house?"
 "Because," explained the household freight payer, "the elevator would be a great help to us in bringing up the children."

Such Dear Friends, Too.
 Clara—I'll tell you a secret, dear, if you'll promise never to repeat it.
 Maude—All right. Out with it.
 Clara—Fred proposed to me last night.
 Maude—Oh, say, doesn't he do it awkwardly, though?

Feminine Charity.
 Mrs. De Playne—When I married my husband his eyesight was very poor.
 Mrs. Dimples—Yes, it must have been.
 It looked that way.
 Mrs. Hespeck—I don't think she'll ever marry him.
 Mr. Hespeck—Why not?
 Mrs. Hespeck—Oh, she quarrels with him so and is so domineering.
 Mr. Hespeck—Indeed! I'll bet they have been secretly married already.—Philadelphia Press.

Billville Literary Note.
 A Billville literary note reads as follows:
 "While one of our leading authors was peacefully plowing in the field some miscreant stole his shirt, his shoes and six poems. Verily the way of the literary man is not as smooth as a railroad."—Atlanta Constitution.

What Papa Said.

Why?
 Willie—Why? grandma, are you going home? Papa just said yesterday that he thought you were going to stay forever.

 "Oh, he's too old-fashioned. He will insist upon taking his texts from the Bible."—Philadelphia Press.

Miss Nellie Holmes, treasurer of the Young Woman's Temperance Association of Buffalo, N. Y., strongly advises all suffering women to rely, as she did, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your medicine is indeed an ideal woman's medicine, and by far the best I know restores lost health and strength. I suffered misery for several years, being troubled with menorrhagia. My back ached, I had bearing-down pains and frequent headaches. I would often wake from restless sleep, and in such pain that I suffered for hours before I could go to sleep again. I dreaded the long nights as much as the weary days. I consulted two different physicians, hoping to get relief, but, finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me, I tried your Vegetable Compound on the recommendation of a friend from the East who was visiting me.
 "I am glad that I followed her advice, for every ache and pain is gone, and not only this, but my general health is much improved. I have a fine appetite and have gained in flesh. My earnest advice to suffering women is to put aside all other medicines and to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Miss NELLIE HOLMES, 540 No. Division St., Buffalo, N. Y. —5000 Perfect Preparation of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Eruptions

The only way to get rid of pimples and other eruptions is to cleanse the blood, improve the digestion, stimulate the kidneys, liver and skin. The medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla Which has cured thousands.

Frederick Kent Loomis, whose body has been found in Highbury Bay, 15 miles southeast of Plymouth, England, was en route to Abyssinia when he disappeared. He was a passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, and was missed when the boat reached Bremen on the night of June 19 last. Next day when passengers landed at Plymouth he was not seen. With Loomis, who was brother of Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, was William H. Ellis, a colored man. Loomis was carrying to Emperor Menelik a commercial treaty just concluded between the United States and Abyssinia. It has been alleged that Ellis possesses a peculiar influence over Menelik, and that he has a desire to become ruler of Abyssinia. He is reported to have told friends in New York before he sailed with Loomis that he expected within two years to have control of $150,000,000 and of the richest country in Africa.

James H. Peabody, Governor of Colorado, has been leading the strenuous life since last August, when the State began to be stirred by the miners' strike that has since resulted in many deaths, riots, court controversies and crimes of various degrees. Governor Peabody is a native of Vermont and is 51 years old. He was educated in the public schools JAMES H. PEABODY, and as a young man was a noted athlete. For a time Governor Peabody worked as a dry goods clerk in Boston, later going to Colorado. He settled in Canyon City, his present home, and engaged in mercantile business. Fortune favored him, and in 1885 he became a banker.

Well Fitted to Be a Judge.
 A funny story comes from the South, where the cynic had gone to spend a few of the cold days of January. While rousing his way through Georgia he stopped off to see an old friend and a jaunt through the country was the outcome of his visit. It happened that his friend was quite prominent in politics in the vicinity, and as they trudged down the road an old derby approached and saluted them cheerfully.
 "Mornin', Judge," began old Sam.
 "Howdy."
 "Say, Judge, I see like to be on de nex' ticket for Justice uv de peace," continued Sam.
 "You a judge?" replied his friend.
 "Why, what do you know about de law?"
 "Mos' eberythin'."
 "Well, now, Sam, if we should elect you and a man was brought before you charged with committing suicide what would your judgment be?"
 This caused Sam some deep meditation, and after a considerable while he replied:
 "Well, under de circumstances, I guess I'd make him support his wife."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Voice from Arkansas.
 Cleveland, Ark., August 15 (special).—Nearly every newspaper tells of some wonderful cure of some form of Kidney Disease by the Great American Remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, and this part of Arkansas is not without its share of evidence that no case is too deeply rooted for Dodd's Kidney Pills to cure.
 Mr. A. E. Carlile, well known and highly respected here, tells of his cure after nearly a quarter of a century's suffering. Mr. Carlile says:
 "I want to let the public know what I think of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I think they are the best remedy for sick kidneys ever made."
 "I had kidney trouble for 23 years and never found anything that did me so much good as Dodd's Kidney Pills. I recommend them to all sufferers."
 There is no uncertain sound about Mr. Carlile's statement. He knows that Dodd's Kidney Pills rescued him from a life of suffering and he wants the public to know it. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills from Backache to Bright's Disease.

Rooscoe Conkling's Big Fea.
 It is said that one day when Rooscoe Conkling was beginning to attain some measure of success he dropped into the office of Charles O'Connor, of New York, then one of the leaders of the bar.
 "What's the trouble?" asked the latter, as Conkling excitedly paced the floor.
 "I've just been subjected to the worst insult I have ever received. This is the first time a client ever objected to my fee."
 "You know I defended Gibbons for arson and put in some tremendous work for him. He was convicted at the trial, but we couldn't help it, and I took the case to the Superior Court, and he lost there, then on to the Supreme Court, and that affirmed the conviction, and he has been given ten years. Now, my fee only amounted to $3,000, and the scoundrel actually has the audacity to grumble about it, saying it's too high. What do you think of that for impudence?"
 "Well," said O'Connor, slowly, "of course you did a lot of work, and $3,000 is not a big fee, but to be frank with you, Mr. Conkling, my opinion, founded on mature consideration, is that he might have been convicted for less money."

Should Have Known Better.
 "What was the trouble between Joasher and his wife?"
 "She stated that a certain young lady of their acquaintance was the handsomest girl in town, and she agreed with her."—Butte Inter-Mountain.

Knowledge and Experience.
 She—What is a silent partner?
 He—Did you ever dance with a deaf-and-dumb man?

Friendly Suggestion.
 "My heart is still unattended," sighed the slender summer girl.
 "Why don't you write on your card 'Flat to let'?" asked her plump cousin, who was wearing a broad smile and a new engagement ring.

Never Called Down.
 Hoax—Old Adm had one advantage over the modern after-dinner speaker.
 Joax—What was that?
 Hoax—After he had finished no man ever said, "I always did like that story."

An Unfair Advantage.
 The Bear—Why did you lose that bet?
 Gen. Zoltoff—The Japanese attacked us in our rear.
 "I was informed that they attacked you in front."
 "Yes, but that was our rear when they got there."

Consumed by a Fire That Water Will Not Quench

Eczema drives its victim almost to the verge of distraction by its intolerable itching, stinging and burning. It seems to set the skin on fire, and the tormented sufferer rubs and scratches till the flesh is raw and the skin is torn and bleeds. Nothing applied externally does much good, for the disease is internal; the blood is aflame with acid poisons, that are forcing their way through the glands and pores of the skin, causing it to redden and swell and break out in spots, pimples, and from which a clear, yellow, watery matter exudes, hardens and dries, and then peels off in scales or fine particles like bran. Eczema kindles a fire that water will not quench, and that lotions, salves, powders and soap cannot smother. As warm weather comes, and the system is reacting and the blood making extra efforts to throw off the accumulated poisons, Eczema attacks with redoubled violence, and the sufferer is almost distracted by the fearful itching and burning. It is the most uncomfortable and aggravating of all skin eruptions and a terror in warm weather.

Local remedies give temporary ease, but as Eczema is not due to outside causes, but to a disordered condition of the system and an over-acid and impure blood, the treatment must be constitutional, or internal. Purify the blood and the skin disease will disappear. No better blood remedy can be found than S. S. S. It builds up the sour and acid blood, rids it of all impurities and poison, stimulates the sluggish organs, and invigorates and tones up the entire system; and as all skin eruptions like Eczema are only symptoms or signs of bad blood, they naturally disappear when that vital fluid is again restored to health.

S. S. S. is guaranteed strictly vegetable. It is not only a blood purifier, but a splendid tonic and appetizer, making it an ideal spring medicine. Treat Eczema through the blood, or you will never get permanently rid of it. Write for our book on the Skin and its Diseases, which is mailed free. Medical advice furnished without cost to you.
