From the Kansas City Independent:

"Surely I cannot be mistaken," said the lunatic steerer. "This is Uncle Silas, Josephine's Corners, isn't it? Just let me carry that carpet bag for you."

Ten minutes later the lunatic man heeping like a horse and grunting every step:

"What in the world have you got in this bag?" he asked. "It weighs a ton."

"Mean that it should," returned Uncle Silas, fiercely. "Loaded it with bricks for purpose and put my clean collar and an extra pair of socks in my coat pocket. Reckon you blunko-bunco men don't get hardly enough exercise to keep your health good."

To Make the Hair Fluffy.

To make the hair fluffy without curling it moisten it with a preparation of two grams of alcohol or rectified spirits of wine, one ounce of eau de cologne, half an ounce of bicarbonate of soda and four ounces of rose water. Every night rub every inch of the scalp with cold water, using a clean nail brush, if you want to keep the hair in good condition. Once a week use a tonic. An excellent one is made of one pint of alcohol, one ounce of sweet oil and one dram of tincture of cantharides. Use a few drops of any essence preferred to perfume it. A good way to apply lotion to the head and hair is by means of a nail brush or the fingertips.
