WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1904

The question of changing the mail route seems to be held in abeyance. So far as is learned or claimed no one seems to have known just why the change of route was contemplated yet for some reason the government was prepared to receive bids for different routes than now used. Our representative Binger Herman has written to parties interested in Bohemia and from the statements contained in his letters he will very strongly recommend the continuance of the present route up Sharp's creek, to Bohemia with the additional service up Row river to Orseco. This plan so far as known meets the approval of all parties concerned.

Mayor J. S. Medley, who has been spending a considerable portion of the past few weeks with Mrs. Medley, who is quite ill at the home of her mother in Eugene, returned to the city Tuesday.

The Mayor reports Mrs. Medley some what improved but not sufficiently recovered to return home. He said the Fair in Eugene was a very creditable one and the races until interrupted by the rain were an interesting feature. The exhibits were good, especially those made by the ladies which were said by the Judges to be very fine. Governor Chamberlain in his address complimented the managers of the Fair upon their success as did also Jefferson Myers the Lewis & Clark Commissioner.

In speaking of the hop industry Mr. Medley cited an instance where one man had for four consecutive years netted over $500 per acre and advanced the idea that owners of good lands in the vicinity of Cottage Grove would do well to turn their attention to this industry.

Quite a number of the city's sporting element were on last Friday, called upon by the city officials to render a slight contribution to the "charity" fund.

The Bohemia Nugget and the Weekly Chicago Inter-Ocean sent to any address in the United States for $1.50 for one year. Read the advertisement of the Inter-Ocean in another column.

The reception of the Commercial Club given on last Wednesday evening was a great success.

At 9 the rooms were well filled and a glance showed many engaged in playing various games. "flinch" "pit," whist, and other diverting pastimes, while in the billiard room some of the ladies experimented with the games of billiards.

At one corner of this room a booth of bright foliage was presided over by four little ladies who dispensed pineapple punch and lemonade during the evening. Refreshments were served at 10:30.

As patronesses there were present Mesdames Thos. K. Campbell, W. H. Abrams, F. D. Wheeler, F. H. Rosenberg, L. Lurch and A. C. Gage. The small ladies at the refreshment booth were Misses Vernie Brown, Lindley Welch, Mable Rosenberg and Hazel Hemenway.

Mr. G. G. Warner one of the old time mining men was down from Bohemia a few days recently. He brought with him a few pieces of very fine galena and copper ore from a tunnel on one of the properties he is now working. He states that the ore body is quite large and improving as distance and depth is attained.

Remember opening day at The Misses Newland's Friday, Sep. 30.

Mr. R. B. Gilmer of Portland is in the city on business.

Schools Opened.

The schools of the city were opened on Monday and all the teachers were in readiness and there was a large attendance of scholars.

The teachers with their assignment of work are as follows:
G. H. Dunn of Petaluma, California, Superintendent.

Miss Maud Gidlogly, Oregon City, and Miss Nan Shively, Portland, High School.

Chalmers L. Strange, Ashland, Assistant principal, Eighth grade and Seventh B.

Mrs. J. C. Powell, Ashland, Seventh A and Sixth grade.

Mrs. Lincoln Taylor, Cottage Grove, Fifth A and Fourth A.

Miss Gertrude Palmer, Cottage Grove, Fifth B and Fourth B.

Miss Maud Kelly, Albany, Third B and Second B.

Miss Ethel Taylor, Cottage Grove, Third A and Second A.

Miss Orlah Mickey, Medford, First B.

Miss Marion White, Cottage Grove, First A.

School opened with eleven teachers, but additional teachers will be added to the corps as soon as the attendance shows need of increase.

C. L. Strange, assistant principal, Miss Palmer, Miss Kelly, and Miss Mickey have been assigned to the west side, Miss Gidlogly, Miss Shively, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Taylor and Miss White to the east side.

A New Industry Proposed.

A. W. Drake of Avon, Iowa, was a visitor to the city the first of the week. Last winter Game Warden Baker, met Mr. Drake while traveling and among other matters discussed the raising of corn in this portion of Oregon. Mr. Drake has been a successful grower of sweet corn in Iowa and has had the impression that corn might be grown in this locality and a cannery established.

With that in view he sent to Mr. Baker, seed to be planted and tested. The seed was planted on the Corrin farm east of town and Mr. Drake pronounces the product a very good quality. The plan as suggested would be the organization of a stock company and allow the residents here to subscribe for such an amount of stock as desired while the balance would be taken by the eastern people. It would require an outlay of from $30,000 to $50,000.

If sweet corn can be grown in this valley as many assert it can, this would be a fine proposition for the farmers as well as all interested, as there are thousands of acres suitable for the growing of sweet corn.

Two of Oregon's floating population drifted into the city, during the absence of Tom Parker they attached themselves to his bakery which is behind the store of Curran & Veatch. In the rear of the store was a large wooden bowl containing some 12 doz of eggs. The bowl and contents were appropriated by Peter Coulter one of the floats, who was later arrested by the city marshal. He admitted the theft and was bound over to await the November term of court at Eugene.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest, and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweats. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists, Garman & Hemenway.
