Finic Grapes.
 Geo. W. McTeynolds, who lives on his farm a few miles south of the city, has for years past been experimenting with varieties of grapes and is raising some nine varieties. Last week he brought to the Nugget office a large well filled box containing a selection from nearly every kind raised by him. They were left on the counter and visitors invited to sample them and were pronounced by all to be of as fine a flavor as any brought to the market from abroad. Mr. McTeynolds is Commander of the Grand Army Post which meets on Saturday afternoon, as so many of the comrades cannot attend at night.
 For the past few weeks he has supplied the members with all the grapes they could eat, besides bringing to the postroom a gallon demijohn of sweet cider of his own make. All of which the old veterans enjoyed and appreciated by being remembered by their commander.

Last Week.
 This is Boyd's last week. Don't wait too long.

Fine Weather Now
 Eugene Register.
 A recent arrival in Oregon from Alva, Okla., who landed in this part of the valley during the rainiest season hands the Register the following "take off" for publication:
COME TO OREGON.
 If you never got the blues,
 Come to Oregon.
 Where the grass is always green,
 And the sun is seldom seen;
 But it rains, and snows between,
 Here in Oregon.
 If you're tired of sun and wind,
 Come to Oregon
 Bring your parasols along,
 And your slickers good and strong,
 And gum boots that are plenty long,
 And come to Oregon.
 If you've never learned to swim,
 Come to Oregon.
 'Twill not be long till you'll begin,
 And like ducks and all their kin,
 You'll have toes with webs between,
 Here in Oregon.
 If you handle lots of chink,
 Come to Oregon.
 Here's a hop for beer and grapes for wine,
 Good wheat for bread so nice and brown,
 And plenty of drink to wash it down,
 Here in Oregon.
 —George Ingals.

CAUSE OF LOCKJAW.
 Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps, or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Now Era Drug Store.

SAVED HIS LIFE.
 J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Linctum saved my life. I was under treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side.
