Social Afternoon.

The ladies of the "Woman's Club" spent a very enjoyable afternoon on March 4 at the Commercial club rooms.

The regular lesson was dispensed with and the study for the coming year's work was informally discussed, after which some of the members present employed their time with fancy work while others discussed the current events of the day. Refreshments were then served. Those present were: Mesdames G. B. Hengen, Eva Wheeler, Anna Wood, Ruth Corpron, Grace Hockett, Olivia Eskin, Alton Abam, Flora Miller, Katie Veatch, Marguerite Johnson, Mea Thompson, Mamie Dunn, Clara Burkholder.

Rescue Work.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Most Lively Meeting of Year
Mayor's Veto of Saloon Ordinance Sustained.

The City Council met Monday night in regular session. Present, Mayor Medley, Councilmen Veatch, Currin, Campbell, Bingham, Chamberlin and Hinds. Absent, Recorder Wheeler.

Mr. Bingham was appointed Recorder protem.

Minutes of preceding meeting read and approved.

On February 20th city ordinance No. 98, relating to the government of saloons passed the council by a vote of four for, and two against.

On the 23rd Mayor Medley vetoed the measure and with the knowledge that upon last evening the ordinance would be again submitted to the council, either to be defeated or passed over the mayor's veto. A large number of citizens gathered in the council chamber to learn its fate.

When it was called up I. H. Bingham took the initiative and said he had voted against the ordinance at the previous meeting and would vote against it now.

Alderman Chamberlin, spoke at some length in support of the measure, stating he had been elected to do everything for his constituents that seemed best for the city's interest and good government and he would again vote for the passage of the ordinance. Councilmen, Veatch and Currin also announced their determination to stand by their former action and vote for its passage. Councilman Hinds said his position was well known in the matter, he having voted against it at previous meeting. Councilman Campbell, who had voted for the ordinance stated: "That he had not been a member of the city council but a short time and at the time he had voted for the measure he was not very familiar with the former ordinances and had been in favor of its passage but since the mayor's veto and the fact that within a short time a new council would be elected to govern the affairs of the city he should not sustain its passage. The vote when taken stood, ayes: Veatch, Currin, Chamberlin, Nays: Bingham, Hinds, Campbell. The mayor declared the ordinance not passed. Mr. Veatch moved: That the saloon license of L. A. Minert be revoked which was seconded by Chamberlin. Mr. Bingham spoke against the motion and gave as his reason: That no charges of any nature had been preferred, and so far as he knew personally there had been no violation of the laws of the city.

The mayor stated to the council that in a short time the licenses would expire, that a hasty action of this nature might involve the city in litigation and consequent expense and thought ill advised to take such action at this time. Bingham offered as an amendment to the original motion: That the mayor appoint a committee to investigate and report to the council what violations L. R. Minert was guilty of. Those voting for the amendment, ayes: Hinds, Campbell, Bingham, Nays: Currin, Chamberlin, Veatch. The mayor voting aye the amendment was carried, the vote recurring on the original motion as amended. The vote was reversed, for, Hinds, Bingham, Campbell, against Currin, Veatch, Chamberlin. This time the mayor voted no and the ordinance, together with the appointment of a committee was defeated.

The following bills were allowed: W. H. Hubble, $7.10; Griffin & Veatch Co., $31.71; Turner, $2; Electric Light Co., $192.20; H. D. Underwood, $66.85; Robt. Martin, $60; Griffin & Veatch Co., $40.48; F. D. Wheeler, $3.50; John Wallace, $3.75; Workmen on Streets, $14.50.

This being the meeting for the calling of city election, the proper notices were ordered.

In the first ward, H. C. Dutton was appointed judge and J. C. Wallace and D. Coots, judges and clerks. Second ward, W. S. Christman, judge and W. S. Bennett and W. F. Hart, judges and clerks. Third ward, J. Ostrander, judge, and F. H. Rosenberg and A. W. Wallace, judges and clerks.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

"Bob White" in Oregon.

A few years ago a number of Eastern or "Bob White" quail were turned loose in the fields near Albany, Oregon, where they have been allowed to increase until now they are becoming quite plentiful in that section of the state where their cheery call of "Bob White," proceeding from some sheltered thicket or from a fence post upon a wet morning, gladdens the heart of the agriculturist as he goes to his daily work in the nearby fields. State game warden J. W. Baker, whose home is in Cottage Grove, recently received a shipment of 16 of these splendid little birds from Jefferson, Oregon, which he turned loose in the vicinity of Cottage Grove, in the hope that they would multiply and replenish that locality, which they surely will do if given any protection whatever. Every body coming to the coast from the Eastern or Central states are familiar with "Bob White" and his cheery call and will be pleased to welcome the little fellow to the beautiful hills and valleys of "The Oregon Country" where he will not be exposed to such extremely cold and inclement weather as in his native home.

Let us hope that within the next few years, the "Bob White" quail as well as the Chinese pheasant, will become so numerous in Southern Oregon as to be a perfect nuisance were such a thing possible.

This country should be a perfect sportsman's paradise, and with proper care and protection of game, it will become and remain such for many years, as the climatic conditions here for both game and fish, are unexcelled in America.

CHAMPION LINIMENT FOR RHEUMATISM.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no case of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce permanent cure. For sale by The Modern Pharmacy.

Bankrupt Stock for Sale.

BY THE TONIC ROUTE.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by The Modern Pharmacy.

LIFE

is often hanging in the balance when a physician writes a prescription. If the compounding is inaccurate, or if the drug supplied are lacking in purity or strength, who shall answer for results?

We recognize our responsibility in these matters. We regard every prescription as one requiring the utmost care as to accuracy, and demanding the highest grade of drugs that money can buy.

Our ideal prescription service costs you nothing extra—we always strive to give the best of everything at prices that are absolutely fair.
