WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1905

Monday's election passed off without trouble of any kind. The adherents of the various candidates worked hard and did their best, but the citizens ticket headed by Robt. M. Veatch with the exception of the alderman from the first ward was elected by, in some instances a large majority.

As usual the way of the average voter is past finding out.

The partisans of Oliver Veatch were probably the most sanguine, up to three o'clock at least. They had thoroughly canvassed the city and were sure of enough to elect their nominee. The business men's ticket supporters also had the city canvassed and could figure out a plurality for their candidate. As has been said before, "Doubtful things are very uncertain," and the saying held good in this case.

There is but little to say and no use to feel sore. There were three well known gentlemen in the field for mayor. The people by their votes have elected Robert M. Veatch to serve them the coming year and have also elected representative business men to assist him in the government of the city's affairs and all pledge themselves to do their duty, which we believe will be done.

If their pledges are kept, they should have the fullest support the citizens can give them; when they fail in this respect, it will be time enough to condemn them.

The growth and prosperity of the city is paramount to the question of who shall fill the offices.

The election is over, now let every one help so far as he may in building up the industries which surround us and make of Cottage Grove a model, as well as the most prosperous city in the Willamette valley.

WAS AN EFFICIENT OFFICIAL.

Mr. Medley, who has served the city for the past year in the official capacity of mayor, may well feel satisfied with the work of the year. One thing that is openly stated by those who differed with him upon questions that came before the council, is that they always knew just where to find him and that he never dodged an issue.

His knowledge of the law has been of benefit to the council in its deliberations.

Prior to his election he made no great promise, but stated he would do his duty as he saw it. This we believe he has tried to do.

It is generally admitted he has been an efficient official and he carries with him the good wishes of the community.

A petition to W. C. Comer, agent S. P. Railway Company, asking for such a rate on logs, to Portland, as will enable their shipment from this locality. It is said the proposition is being considered by that gentleman and he will meet the request if possible.

This would be helpful to those who have the timber and cannot now dispose of it at a profit.

The Astoria Herald has the following to say on apples.

Oregon is a great apple state, especially in the vicinity of Hood River. The choicest fruit is shipped to eastern cities and even to Europe where it commands a good price. The second grade is fed to the hogs and what the hogs won't eat is sent to Astoria and sold for one and a quarter a box. The reason for this is that the apples bring a higher price in the eastern markets than people would be willing to pay for them in Astoria, and sold for one and a quarter a box. The reason for this is that the apples bring a higher price in eastern markets than people would be willing to pay for them in Astoria. Nearly all the fruit shipped to Astoria from Eastern Oregon and California is of inferior quality—except as to the price.

A LIVELY CITY ELECTION.

tion of alderman for the first ward, and those who were candidates Monday morning are now city officers and should, and doubtless will, have the full support of the citizens in their labor for the city.

In the evening the council met and canvassed the vote. Mayor Medley announced the names of the successful candidates and declared them elected and all but Treasurer Eakin and City Recorder Young took the oath of office. Retiring Mayor Medley then in a neat and complimentary speech introduced Mayor Veatch and said in part:

"Gentlemen: I have the honor to introduce to you your newly elected mayor, a man whom you all know personally and who has served the city before in the same capacity in a highly efficient manner. He may well feel proud of the confidence bestowed upon him in receiving so large a vote over his distinguished competitors. I feel that in turning over the affairs of the city, it is into safe and capable hands. I do not have any regrets at vacating the position except those of severing the pleasant ties and associations, which I have formed with the members of the council during the past year and while we may have differed upon occasions, yet they have been honest ones and there is only upon my part, the best of feeling toward each individual member of those with whom I have been associated in this council chamber. I now present to you your newly elected mayor, The Hon. R. M. Veatch."

Some things the mayor said: "Gentlemen of the retiring board, mayor and to those to come: I wish to express my sincere thanks. It is a pleasure to me to see that no bitterness remains from this campaign, I tried to, and requested my friends to conduct it without bitterness or undue feeling and have but the warmest feeling for all."

"I have no friends to reward or enemies to punish, but only a square deal for all alike, with equal justice to all."

"I shall during my term of office if I live, be the mayor of Cottage Grove. No doubt I will make mistakes but they will be of the head, not the heart. I shall strive to advance the interests of all so far as possible. The laws and ordinances will be enforced. There are times when men will come to the mayor and state the laws are being violated, and have an idea the mayor can at once throw some one in jail. When you know of a violation of law, make affidavit to that effect and present to me and I'll see the law enforced. I shall not make any recommendations to the council tonight, but will outline and present them at the next meeting. I suggest the council now adjourn until the evening of the 10th of the month," which suggestion by motion was adopted.

Meanwhile the Cottage Grove band was playing upon the streets and a large crowd had gathered in front of the bank building where it had been announced Mayor Veatch would address them. He, with ex-mayor Medley soon appeared upon the balcony and was again introduced by Mr. Medley in a speech similar to the previous one. The mayor thanked the people for their confidence and pledged them his best efforts for their welfare. At the conclusion he was warmly applauded. Fire crackers both small and great enlivened the evening for some hours. All those who were defeated yielded gracefully and wished the successful ones well.

The retiring members are: Mayor Medley, recorder Wheeler, councilmen: Currin, Oliver Veatch and Campbell. The hold overs are: Chamberlin, Hinds and Bingham. It is a council of capable gentlemen and the people have a right to expect good results from their efforts.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Morgan & Brehaut's drug store.

Origin of All-Fool's Day.

The origin of All-Fool's day remains hidden in the darkness of the past ages. In the years that are past and dusty in continental Europe the aristocracy of France received gifts on the first day of the year, which then fell on the first of April, from their vassals, (or slaves.) But in 1563 France changed their calendar, which brought the first of the year back to January, and the lords and the magistrates, etc., expected their yearly gifts of the good things and their vassals refused to hand them over on the ground that their gifts were not due until three months later, and in this they were sustained by the courts. After the three months were up the feudal lords were obliged to empty their coffers, etc., in order to make room for the expected gifts of the vassals. But, strange to say, no vassals appeared, and when the officers were sent to get them, they declared that inasmuch as April 1st was not the year's beginning, no lords could collect from them New Year's gifts. This statement was sustained by another judicial decision. So that the day that is looked down upon by the older people and up to by the younger generations has a place in history.

FEBRUARY DIVIDENDS

FEBRUARY has been a good dividend-paying month in America, 43 mining and metallurgical companies reporting to The Engineering and Mining Journal a total of $13,202,725. This is nearly double the amount declared in January, partly the result of the $6,305,919 distributed as a quarterly dividend of 1.75 per cent. among the preferred shareholders of the United States Steel Corporation, and $1,530,879, the 1 per cent. quarterly payment by the Amalgamated Copper Company. The distribution of dividends during the month was as follows: Copper, four companies, $2,572,104; gold, silver and lead, 14 companies, $579,733; zinc, two $501,500; iron and steel, three, $6,984; coal and coke, five, $832,311; oil, 13 companies, $824,448; miscellaneous, two, $97,750.

Continued strength in the metal markets, active development on economic principles of promising low-grade mines, concentrated management of metallurgical plants to effect a saving in the cost of operation, and a temporary cessation of labor troubles, combine to create hope of larger dividends in future.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

EASTERN OREGON NOTES

The Dixie mill is being run to its full capacity.

Delivery of ores and concentrates continue regularly at the Sumpter smelter.

The Sumpter smelter shipped four car loads of matte last week, to the refinery.

The Blue Mountain American says: The outlook for mining was never better in the district than at the present.

The Snow Creek mill had a narrow escape from fire last week. The offices and dwelling house of the manager was burned.

The Standard Consolidated Mines Company at its annual meeting recently held in Pendleton, selected the majority of its directorate and officers from among its eastern stockholders.

Fred D. Smith, a mining engineer and operator of Sumpter, has purchased the Psyche and Diamond properties both well known and valuable properties.

The Friday Mining Company has had plans drawn and have ordered a large plant for the reduction of its ores.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salve you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. IGGOROTTES SET SAIL

Native Filipinos Leave the Islands This Week for the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Portland.—Two hundred Igorottes, Moros, Negritos and Visayanos will leave the Philippine Islands this week, arriving in Portland the latter part of April, where they will proceed immediately to the grounds of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. These natives will populate the Philippine village on the Government peninsula at the Exposition.

Upon their arrival, the construction of the Philippine village will be started at once. A feature of this will be a city of houses built on poles over the surface of Guild's Lake. This is characteristic of the expedient resorted to by the natives to avoid reptiles and fens of similar kind. The city of pole-houses will be occupied by the Moros, who with the Igorottes stand lowest in the scale of civilization.

Boiled dog will represent the principal sustenance of the Igorottes, who are conceded to be epicureans regarding this delicacy. The general supposition is that a hearty meal of boiled, fried or roasted canine adds fervor to the fighting prowess of Igorotte warriors. Accordingly, the dogfish is served only to the males, the fairer sex being denied the rare treat.

Visitors to the Centennial, however, need have no fear of witnessing a bloodcurdling combat, unless the Portland police should have become obstreperous in the presence of the Igorottes, which would naturally result in a lively scene.

"Five Hundred Dollars Reward."

The Southern Pacific Company will pay Five Hundred Dollars reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any one of the persons who maliciously placed ties on track at private road crossing two miles east of Albany, April 2nd, 1905.

Tell Your Friends About Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The 1905 issue of "Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Their Resources," issued by the Passenger Departments of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, and the lines of the Southern Pacific in Oregon, is now ready for distribution, 50,000 copies having been issued. The book has a specially designed front cover in two colors and contains eighty-eight pages (illustrated by twenty-one full page first class half-tone cuts and a number of smaller ones. The book is divided into chapters covering the following subjects: Climate, dairying, diversified farming, fish and fishing, fruit culture, grain growing, grasses and forage plants, home for millions, hog raising, irrigation, Lewis and Clark Exposition, lumber and lumbering, markets, mines and mining, Portland, "The Rose City," railroads, schools and churches, soil, stock raising, vegetable products, lands in western Oregon, condensed information about towns and cities along the O. R. & N. and the Southern Pacific lines.

The illustrations of fruit scenes in lawn and orchard districts are taken from actual photographs, the facts and statistics are based on conditions as they are, and these features of the work make it of great value to people of the East who are looking to the Pacific Northwest for homes and business locations. Every citizen of the states exploited in the book will find it valuable to send to relatives and friends in other states who may be induced to come and live in the Pacific Northwest.

Four-cent stamps sent to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Oregon, with the address of an eastern friend, will insure its being sent.

A THOUGHTFUL MAN.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind. knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at Morgan & Brehaut's Drug Store.

NOTICE OF FORFEITURE.

To L. F. Slavens and Niles Helms, and to any and all other persons claiming the right, title or interest, either in law or equity, in or to the hereinafter described mining claim and premises, by through or under the said L. F. Slavens and Niles Helms or either of them:

You and each of you are hereby notified that the undersigned, has expended money and performed labor and work to the amount of $96,000 upon the "Mistress" (Mystry) lode mining claim, situate in the Bohemia Mining District, Lane County, State of Oregon, located by Arthur Helms and L. S. Slavens on the 24th day of July, 1880, which said notice was duly recorded in the Record of Mining Claims, Book 5, page 144. That the labor so performed and the money so expended was made and expended on said claim between the first day of December, 1904 and the thirty-first day of December, 1904 in order to hold the said mining claim under the provisions of Section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and the laws of the State of Oregon to the same, together with the sum of $33,333 expended by Charles Bowen, the other co-owner being the amount required by law to hold said claim for the year ending December 31st 1904.

That the proportionate share of each of you as co-owners so expended being the sum of $16,666 each, and that if within ninety days from the service of this notice upon you by the Sheriff of the county, or within ninety days from the service of said notice by publication, you fail to contribute your proportionate share of the said expenditure as a co-owner, your interests respectively in said claim will become the property of the undersigned under the provisions of said Section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States by reason of such failure to contribute your proportionate share of such expenditure.
